

New Mass Schedule

Starting the weekend of February 5/6, the Mass schedule will be as follows:

- Saturdays, 5:00 pm at St. Thomas More
- Saturdays, 5:30 pm at St. Joan of Arc
- Sundays, 8:00 am at St. Joan of Arc
- Sundays, 10:30 am at St. Thomas More

Somebody told me after Mass the other day that I was destroying their parish. If you need someone to be angry with, then be my guest. It is misplaced, but I understand your need to be angry at someone. Let me remind everyone that by 2030, a short eight years away, we are projected to have 88 active priests on hand in our archdiocese, approximately 30 fewer priests than today and a 30% drop from our 2018 numbers.

While for some reason the archdiocese has been fairly mum about this publicly, it is beginning another round of pastoral planning. The previous planning, of which I was a part, was not drastic enough. We still will not have enough priests to fill all of our assignments. Here is the outline of what they are planning.

- Phase 1: *Initial Consultation & Drafting.
Now until Feb 2022 Clergy Conference
- Phase 2: *Consultation & Revision.
Mid-February – December 2022.
- Phase 3: *Transition to New Reality.
January – June 2023
- Phase 4: *Implement New Reality.
Wave 1 begins July 1, 2023.
Wave 2 follows on July 1, 2024.

I do not know what the “new reality” will look like, but I doubt it means keeping parishes open that have no good reason to stay open. A parish worth keeping open in this “new reality” will probably need to be committed to drawing people to Christ and walking with them on a clear path to growing as disciples. Locking in a partnership with other parishes now and reestablishing a culture around these two things is a parish’s best bet not just to “stay open” but actually to fulfill the mission of Jesus Christ.

To this end, starting February 2, 2022, Midtown Catholic will be hosting a program called Return which consists of seven weekly workshops.

This series of workshops, written in 2016, aims to help equip participants to navigate the journey of drawing their loved ones to the faith and, at the same time, empower them in their own spiritual life. There is a fear, and a guilt, and a hurt that happens when loved ones stop practicing their Catholic faith. Return tries to equip people to have these conversations with their loved ones and give themselves some peace in the situation. Each night has a specific focus that utilizes a multitude of resources. These nights work together to walk participants toward the path of true evangelization. (<https://returnfaith.org/what-is-return>)

More details to come, but if you would like to learn more about Return, you can contact TJ Simpson at 402-556-1456 or tjsimpson@midtowncatholic.church.

Christmas and Scrip Gift Cards

It was a great Christmas season for selling Scrip gift cards. We want to thank everyone that purchased and gave gifts with Scrip. Please consider making this a year round habit in your daily spending. All orders with a STM student name on it help with their school tuition. Scrip can be purchased at the rectory, before and after all weekend Masses, or sent through the school office in an envelope clearly marked SCRIP ORDER.

Scrip Vendor Spotlight

Scrip has a few extra gift cards that are normally not kept in stock or that we are wanting to reduce in inventory ...

Cabela's, Bass Pro,
Ace Hardware, and Golden Corral.

Please keep these vendors in mind for your next purchases.

Lost and Found at STM

The Lost and Found box is located in the church cry room. If you have lost or left anything in the church over the last year, please check the box to claim any items. At the end of January, all items will be donated or tossed.
