We, the Holy Trinity Parish Community, seek to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ by sharing our faith through committed efforts to know, love and serve God. -Mission Statement

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Prayer and Worship

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace and blessings to you.

There is something about this email that I wanted to share with you.

*Fr. Patrick,
Please allow me to express my gratitude and thanks for Holy Trinity providing access to the Chapel 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. An opportunity for my flawed humanity to “hang out” with perfect divinity. Presence provides energy to my soul. Carpe Diem . . . with gratitude and kindness. With gratitude,*

With Coronavirus raging and fear, frustration and anxiety overwhelming the best of us, it is great to receive this encouraging email from a non-Catholic – who regularly spends time in our chapel before our Lord in the tabernacle.

This email is a constant reminder that we can spend time complaining and lamenting about everything that is wrong and not seizing every opportunity as meaningful moments of grace that lead to a wonderful encounter with Christ.

The Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life”, and what a great way to gently encourage all of us Catholics to a life of prayer, a devotion and reverence for the Holy Eucharist. The Eucharist has the power to transform the human heart – let us strive daily to become what we receive and thank God everyday for the blessings that we often take for granted.

Please pray for an increase in vocation to the Sacred Priesthood and the Religious Life.

I thank God for the blessings received via this email.

God love and bless you all.

Fr. Patrick Ike

Why are Catholics required to give money to the Church?

Answer: Offering money and other goods to God and the Church is, before all else, a statement of gratitude. We see this when we look at how our spiritual ancestors showed their gratitude to God for the gifts they had received (e.g. Genesis 14:18-20 and Genesis 28:16-22). One of the ways they offered thanks to God was through a practice called “tithing,” in which 10 percent of a person’s goods (crops, livestock, money, etc.) were given back to God.

Today, the practice of tithing – giving 10 percent – is still common in many Protestant communities, but it is not required for Catholics. Instead, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that, “The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to [their] own abilities” (no. 2043). This means that, although we are not bound to practice “tithing” in the traditional sense, we do share a responsibility to share our money or other resources with our parish communities. Like our spiritual ancestors, we give as a sign of our gratitude for the many gifts that God has given to us. Beyond this, we also share our resources with other Catholic organizations to help them finance their ministries, to continue and grow their outreach to the poor and the needy, and to provide just wages for their employees.

How much we give depends on our individual circumstances, but since we share a responsibility for the programs, outreach, and health of our parish communities and Catholic organizations, this question gives us a wonderful opportunity to ask some important questions about the quality of our giving and what our priorities are. Remember, we are only stewards of our time, talents, and treasures and as the First Letter of Peter reminds us, “As each one of you has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied graces” (4:10).

How might our lives be different and richer if each morning, as we dress for the day, we pray in gratitude for the ability and what it means to “put on Christ” in our daily lives?

- Study the scriptures daily and share what you have learned with others.
- Focus on praising and thanking God throughout the day.
- When the phone rings, ask God to bless the person calling.
- Take five minutes before a daily task and pray before you start.
- During times of stress, tell God you trust in his will & take a deep breath and slowly exhale.
- Daily write down three gratitude thoughts and pray one Hail Mary, Glory Be, and Our Father.
- Make a point of being quick to find praise in others and thank God for this person being part of your life.

Thank you for your generosity and support of Holy Trinity Catholic Church!

There is a certain urgency in today’s Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples – Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning nets and boats and father and fellow-workers. To what is Jesus calling me - at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

Give Until It Hurts

One of the characteristics of Everyday Stewardship is to be committed – to persevere daily in a way of life acknowledging that everything belongs to God. I know, I know. Easier said than done. Just ask Zebedee. It's quite an image we get from the Gospel, after all. "So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him."

There was Zebedee, about his business, mending nets with his two sons, who were undoubtedly his best workers – they had to have been more dedicated than the hired men, who worked for wages rather than for family. And in an instant off they go, following this strange man. I don't know about you, but if my kids left me on a hot summer day to finish the lawn by myself, I wouldn't be too happy.

But Zebedee must have been someone quite special. Perhaps he realized that his sons didn't belong to him – not really. They belonged to God, and from the beginning of time, it had been appointed that they would be among the first disciples of Christ. He passed, he called, they followed, and Zebedee obliged. He simply went back to mending his nets, I imagine. Zebedee already understood what St. Teresa of Calcutta would say millennia later: "Give until it hurts."

"You're wasting my time." "I've done so much for her; she owes me this." How often do we think things, and even people and relationships, belong to us? The truth is none of them do. We must be ready, as Zebedee was, to surrender them to God when He comes walking past.

Prayer of St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein)

O Prince of Peace, to all who receive You, You bright light and peace. Help me to live in daily contact with You, listening to the words You have spoken and obeying them. O divine child, I place my hands in yours; I shall follow You. Oh, let Your divine life flow into me. I will go unto the altar of God. It is not myself and my tiny little affairs that matter here, but the great sacrifice of atonement.

I surrender myself entirely to Your divine will, O Lord. Make my heart grow greater and wider, out of itself into the Divine Life. O my God, fill my soul with holy joy, courage and strength to serve You. enkindle your love in me and then walk with me along the next stretch of road before me. I do not see very far ahead, but when I have arrived where the horizon now closes down,

A new prospect will open before me, and I shall meet with peace. How wondrous are the marvels of your love, We are amazed, we stammer and grow dumb, for word and spirit fail us.
