Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish was established in 1910 for Italian Catholics living in NE Minneapolis and moved into the present church in 1938. The Archdiocesan Office for the Deaf joined the parish in 1986, and today our 170 families include Italians, Deaf and Hard - of - Hearing Catholics and their families, and neighbors from NE Minneapolis and beyond. You are most welcome to join our intimate, lively community.

Our Mission

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim year acceptable to the Lord.

Luke 4:18-19

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

WEEKLY STATIONS OF THE CROSS

As part of our independent lenten journey this winter, each week we'll feature two stations of the cross in the bulletin for you to pray at home. We feel this gives each of us an opportunity to reflect deeper on each of the stations. This rendition of Stations of the Cross came from Diocese of Manchester found here (<https://www.catholicnh.org/assets/Documents/Worship/>)

The Thirteenth Station

Jesus is taken down from the cross

Priest: We adore You, O Christ, and we praise You. (Genuflect) People: Because, by Your holy cross, You have redeemed the world. (Rise)

Priest: Consider how, after Our Lord had died, He was taken down from the cross by two of His disciples, Joseph and Nicodemus, and placed in the arms of His afflicted Mother. She received Him with unutterable tenderness and pressed Him close to her bosom (Kneel)

People: O Mother of Sorrows, / for the love of Your Son, / accept me as Your servant and pray to Him for me, / And You, my Redeemer, since you have died for me, / allow me to love You, / for I desire only You and nothing more. / I love You, Jesus my Love, / and I am sorry that I have offended You. / Never let me offend You again. / Grant that I may love You always; and then do with me as You will.

Optional: (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be)

By the cross with you to stay
There with you to weep and pray
Is all I ask of you to give.

The Fourteenth Station

Jesus is placed in the sepulcher

Priest: We adore You, O Christ, and we praise You. (Genuflect) People: Because, by Your holy cross, You have redeemed the world. (Rise)

Priest: Consider how the disciples carried the body of Jesus to its burial, while His holy Mother went with them and arranged it in the sepulcher with her own hands. They then closed the tomb and all departed. (Kneel)

People: Oh, my buried Jesus, / I kiss the stone that closes You in. / But You gloriously did rise again on the third day. / I beg You by Your resurrection that I may be raised gloriously on the last day, / to be united with You in heaven, to praise You and love You forever. / I love You, Jesus, and I repent of ever having offended You. / Grant that I may love You always; and then do with me as You will.

Optional: (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be)

Virgin of all virgins blest! Listen to my fond request: Let me share your grief divine.

EASTER SUNDAY

CHRIST IS RISEN

IN MEMORIAM

Our sympathies go out to the family of Dolly Tillman, as she passed away on March 22nd. May God's Eternal Glory shine down upon her as she eternally rests in Heaven.

For Easter this year, one of our parishioners donated a book for everyone to take home with them. They're found around the entrances at OLMC. If you are receiving the bulletin by mail, the book is included in your Easter mailing. We thank all of our parishioners for your generosity!

If you would like to donate to OLMC's Easter Flower Fund in memory of a loved one, please find the pastel pink half sheets at the church entrances or in your Easter mailing packet.

Save the Date!

We want to welcome you "Back Home" on Sunday July 18th from 11-2 pm with a modified festival. Come socialize, have a Marino's box lunch, and take a tour of all the repairs that have been done. We will also rededicate the bell tower now that it has been repaired and usable again.

Congratulations to Susan Sweezo & Bob Zismer on their new granddaughter Veda!!

The Italian American Foundation is sponsoring a Taste of Italy at the N.E. Moose, 356 Monroe St NE, on April 25th, 2021. There will be a variety of entrees, including a vegetarian option.

Funds will be directed to our scholarship program, for deserving students. Your generosity as always is greatly appreciated.

We ask you to consider purchasing Taste of Italy tickets at $10.00 each. Please help make this annual fund raiser a huge success. Should you have any questions, please contact Harry Villella at 651-485-3983.

Please make your checks payable to the ITALIAN AMERICAN CLUB FOUNDATION, INC.

Thank You!

We at OLMC are extremely grateful to Cathy Miske for 10 years of service for the church through coordinating our liturgies, directing our choir, and managing our numerous volunteer opportunities.
