33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." - Mk 13:30-32

Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish was established in 1910 for Italian Catholics living in NE Minneapolis and moved into the present church in 1938. The Archdiocesan Office for the Deaf joined the parish in 1986, and today our 170 families include Italians, Deaf and Hard - of - Hearing Catholics and their families, and neighbors from NE Minneapolis and beyond. You are most welcome to join our intimate, lively community.

Our Mission

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim year acceptable to the Lord.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

from: <https://www.franciscanmedia.org>Saint Elizabeth of Hungary's Story

In her short life, Elizabeth manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she has become the patroness of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order. The daughter of the King of Hungary, Elizabeth chose a life of penance and asceticism when a life of leisure and luxury could easily have been hers. This choice endeared her in the hearts of the common people throughout Europe. At the age of 14, Elizabeth was married to Louis of Thuringia, whom she deeply loved. She bore three children. Under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and sick. Seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing. Daily she would take bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land who came to her gate.

After six years of marriage, her husband died in the Crusades, and Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family looked upon her as squandering the royal purse, and mistreated her, finally throwing her out of the palace. The return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne. In 1228, Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order, spending the remaining few years of her life caring for the poor in a hospital which she founded in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi. Elizabeth's health declined, and she died before her 24th birthday in 1231. Her great popularity resulted in her canonization four years later.

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” Take a moment to ponder these words from today's Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It's hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the “when” of death, the “what” of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord's coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God's eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary is the Patron Saint of: Bakers, Catholic Charities, & Secular Franciscan Order

This year OLMC is hosting an ecumenical "Prayer & Pie" service on Wednesday November 17th 6:30 where we will host deaf communities of all faiths to join us that evening. All are welcome to join us for a prayer filled social evening.

We at OLMC wish to thank everyone for making our Spaghetti Dinner a success last Sunday! Without our volunteers working tirelessly, we would not have been able to host a dinner.

We were excited to offer a Big Number Game with a 1 in 7 chance of winning a prize; congratulations to Kathy Miller ($20), Sandy Bornentun ($20), Connie Goodmanson ($20), Marie Ulstad ($20), Carol Buley ($20), Lisa Kocon ($50), Marino's ($125)

Congratulations to all of our winners!

Women's Guild: LOVE IN ACTION

Fall is a busy time for OLMC's Women's Guild as they work on two projects simultaneously!

Women's Guild is collecting hats & mittens for "Hats & Mittens" an all-volunteer nonprofit organization with the goal of ensuring that the children of our community have the access to warm hats and mittens during the Minnesota cold winters. All sizes of hats and mittens are needed to keep kids ages 3 years old to 18 toasty warm. Waterproof mittens are preferred when possible. Hats & Mittens will be collected until November 28th.

Women's Guild is also collecting items for stocking stuffing: personal hygiene items (toothbrushes & toothpaste, travel sized deodorant, shampoo & soap) pens, large print activity books, small flashlights, & candies. This year, the stockings will be donated to Little Brothers of the Poor, friends of the Elderly and Lyngblomsten Nursing Home. Stocking stuffing will happen following Mass on Sunday, December 5th.
