Today we begin the season of Advent, a time for preparing and waiting to welcome Christ into the world by remembering his birth and welcoming him into our lives in a new and deeper way. The Church focuses on these two comings of Christ in during the Advent season. The first part of Advent (through December 16) is focused on the themes of repentance and internal preparation to receive Christ, both in our hearts and at the end of time. The second part turns the focus toward the birth of Jesus and Christmas. I encourage you to pay attention to the readings and prayers used during the Masses and recognize the themes that are taking place.

Advent is a time of hopeful waiting, it is not a passive waiting, but rather a time of active conversion. The Advent season is a penitential season (which is the reason that the liturgical color is purple). Too often the penitential nature gets lost in the business of preparing for the joys of Christmas. It is often marked by Christmas parties, family gatherings, baking, cooking, decorating the house, and listening to Christmas music. With all of these things it is important to pause and to reflect on the importance of Christmas. How has Christ been a part of my life? Do I seek Christ in the busyness of my life? Am I excited to welcome Jesus into my life in a deeper way this Christmas? When Christ came into the world over 2000 years ago, he desired to be welcomed into the people's lives. Now, he also desires to enter into each of our hearts in a deeper way, to be welcomed as our Savior and Redeemer.

~Fr. Sauer

Raise the Roof Campaign at St. Stan's

The shingles on the main part of the church need to be replaced to prevent any interior damage to the building as they are at least 40 or more years old. An estimate of $200,000 has been obtained. Donations are needed to complete this project. Contact the Central Office or place a separate envelope in the collection basket marked roof project. Once adequate funds are received, the project will proceed. All donations are tax deductible.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU to all who came and cleaned the church on Nov. 11th. They dusted and wiped and mopped and vacuumed up the dead bugs and visited with one another. On behalf of the parish, thank you to Dave & Birdie Waldoch, Joyce Petron, Polly Opatz, Judy Zapzalka, Marilyn Prokott, Helaine Waletski, Annette Lampert, Lorie Maciej, Diane Psick, Tim Jendro, Evelyn Barton, Sharon Blonigan, Gina & Gloria Salitros, Diane Reis and Danelle Zapzalka. We will be cleaning again before Holy Week in the Spring. Again, many thanks and blessings to all of you!

St. Stan's Aluminum Can Collection: does anyone know who has been taking some of the aluminum cans in the small fenced area of the parking lot? We recently cleaned out the garbage and bagged all the cans in the "dog kennel", and took the cans to Holdingford to sell and gave the money to charity. Please call Bob or Jan Maciej to let us know who's taking them and what the money is being used for. With all the garbage being thrown in that area, perhaps it would better to take it down.

Thank you to St. Stanislaus parish for sponsoring the turkey bingo/fundraiser for me. Thank you to those who made monetary contributions, donated prizes, and all who helped and attended the bingo. Your support, kindness and prayers are greatly appreciated. Melissa Scepurek.

St. Stanislaus Giving Tree: We invite you to participate in helping those in need during this Christmas season. Morrison county Social Services have given us a list of children, teens and adults who may not receive a gift this Christmas. Help us spread the Love of Christ by purchasing a gift for them. The Giving tree is in the entrance of the church. Please read the note by the tree with the instructions.

Cookie/Candy/Gift Sale: It's time...we are excited to be able to do the Cookie/Candy Gift Sale again. We need your help to make it successful. We are asking each family to make 6 dozen of their favorite Christmas Cookies or Candy.

You can drop off your treats starting on December 9th between 8:00am and 4:00pm. You can also drop off December 10th. If you need a drop off time that is different than those listed please call the office and we can set up a time. This is a fun and busy fundraiser and it's success depends on the amount of treats we get. This year we will have the cookies and candy trayed up on various size trays that will be ready to go. We have some wonderful Crafters and Vendors that will join us for the day so that you can also get your Christmas Gifts done. Another added surprise this year is.....Santa will make an appearance from 9am-11am so bring the kids and your cameras.

Advent Tree: We once again will be having our Advent Tree in the Narthex with tags attached. Please take a tag and when you have it purchased, return it under the tree. Each gift that is donated will help a local family have a brighter Christmas. We are so thankful for our parishioners and their generosity.

Advent Wreath Lighting: We are looking for families/people to light the Advent Wreath at the start of Mass. Please see sign-up sheet in the Narthex. What a beautiful opportunity to share in an Advent Tradition with your family or friends.

Ministry Schedule: New Schedules are ready to be picked up in the back of church.

1st Sunday of Advent Staying awake can often be a challenge, especially when we are exhausted. Life's demands have a way of zapping every last bit of energy out of us. When we are tired it affects us not only physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. All of our senses are dulled and diminished. We can overlook details, become disinterested, lethargic and apathetic, and detached. Getting sufficient physical rest only helps so much. We need to be rejuvenated, refreshed, and reenergized in other ways. If we are psychologically exhausted, we need to understand what is draining our emotions and taxing our relationships. If we are spiritually tired, we need to find the necessary "shot in the arm" to put us back in touch with God. Unfortunately, exhaustion is seldom limited to just one part of who we are. When we lack energy and zeal it is usually the case that everything suffers. We not only are affected physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. In short, when we run out of gas the engine stops. And yet, our Lord's directive is clear, "Be vigilant at all times." Even Jesus knew what "the anxieties of daily life" can do to us. One day pours into another and time quickly flies by. Any one of us can take a moment and reflect on how many wonderful, creative opportunities we miss because there is always so much "stuff" to do and so little time to do it. Usually these are missed moments of love, and if we are missing love encounters we are also missing God. Sleepwalking through life, we check the boxes next to our list of "must and have to dos" and justify it all by convincing ourselves that tomorrow is another day and there'll be more time. It may surprise us, but tomorrow is here, and time is running out. While we may like to believe that we have an "eternity" of time to do all those things that require the focus, energy, and desire we do not currently have, we don't. We're on a limited ride and time is short. Jesus is also clear on another point. "That day [will] catch you by surprise like a trap." If we are going to be judged on love and so easily justify not having all that much time to do so, then it seems we must shift focus a bit. St. Teresa of Calcutta tells us, "We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another." Getting to this place doesn't "just happen." It requires vigilance and discipline both with a knowledge of what is really of importance and what really needs to be the focus of our energy and time. Pray, starting now and not tomorrow, that we can stay alert, be strengthened in our faith, and prepared for whatever will come. Don't miss another opportunity to love. ©LPi

Stewardship as a Way of Life: "But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand." (Luke 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

Christmas Flower Memorials: Would you like to remember a loved one this Christmas? We are excepting memorial donations towards Christmas Flowers. If you would like to include a loved one please use the envelope in your packets and put in the collection basket.

The Healing Power of God

Please remember in your prayers those who are in need of the Lord's healing and strength, especially:

Jeff Czech * Chad Fruechte * Kieran Kloss * Lillian Johannes * Heidi Quinlan* Rya Rudolph* Patience Kniep* Bill Balck Mary Ann Czeck* Robert Wainis

*Permission of the person listed or a family member must be given to put them on the prayer line in the bulletin.

Preparing the Manger Where do you fall in the "Christmas-songs-in-November" debate — do you like them, tolerate them, or outright hate them? There's no theological problem with Christmas songs in November outside of worship, even if it's not everyone's cup of tea. But there is a problem with getting so caught up in the baggage of the season — the trimmings, the gifts, the celebrations, all of which are marvelous in their own way — that you forget to prepare the manger. Every good Catholic knows that Lent is a penitential season. It's hard to miss that point — Lent doesn't even have any fun songs you can groove to on the radio. We are pretty good at recognizing that Lent calls us to examine ourselves. To deny ourselves. To give of ourselves. And most of all, Lent calls us to prepare, as a good steward does, for the return of our master. It's harder for us to remember that with Advent, but Advent is just as much of an opportunity for penance, preparation, and reconciliation to God — and just as much reason, too. The very name of the season — "advent" — encourages us to focus on what is coming, not what is already here. Be on guard, the readings tell us today, "so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and (the coming of the Lord) catch you unexpectedly, like a trap." So let us not forget — our master's advent is upon us. And let us ask ourselves: how can we prepare the manger? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
