FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Life for Life

Auschwitz, 1941. One of the prisoners, Jan, escapes from the German concentration camp while working at a gravel pit. Thanks to the help of kind-hearted people, he finds shelter. There Jan hears tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death by starvation as a punishment for his escape. One among the convicts is Fr. Maximilian Kolbe, a Franciscan priest who volunteered to die in place of one of the inmates.

You can find beneficiary forms on the website of your IRA, 401 k, 403 b Administrator. For more information contact Nancy Butters, Parish Outreach Manager at 816-659-8266 or nbutters@ccharities.com.

PRINT MEDIA REQUEST

With the decision to end publishing of the print edition of The Catholic Key, you may be approached by other publications interested in promoting their print media products to our diocesan parishes. In particular, if you are approached by nearby dioceses, we ask that you hold off on offering promotional opportunities for subscriptions at this time. As the diocese’s new Director of Communications, I am currently evaluating future print publication opportunities and establishing communications strategies aligned with Bishop Johnston’s vision. There may be partnership opportunities in the future, but this has yet to be identified. Your cooperation ensures that future KCSJ print media will have the best possible chance to succeed. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

As a reminder, diocesan news is still being updated at www.kcsjatholic.org, via Facebook, Twitter and Instagram (@DioceseKCSJ) and via email to more than 60,000 registered parishioners in the KCSJ diocese.
