~Luke 3:10-11*

Donating shares of publicly traded appreciated stock or mutual funds can be a meaningful gift for your parish, a ministry or the diocese. The tax benefits could make it less costly than a comparable cash gift. Capital gains tax is not assessed. Plus, for a security held for more than 12 months, the fair market value of the gift is deductible if you exceed the threshold for deductions. Values up to 30% of your adjusted gross income are eligible for deduction and can be carried over for up to five years.

➤ From Father Barlett ➤

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) begins with the beautiful prayer of the Son to the Father explaining all of salvation history in one sentence; "FATHER,... this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent." (Jn 17:3). That is immediately followed by the statement that God desires all to be saved (I Tim 2:3-4) and that salvation comes through the name of Jesus Christ alone. (Acts 4:12). These three verses together become what is known as the Catechism of the Catholic Church; the rest of the text of the Catechism works to pull these words apart and explain both their beauty and the method of how God worked to bring these to fulfillment.

(CCC 1) God, in an act of sheer goodness, created us out of nothing. Our very existence is a gift from God and something to be cherished as everything God created is made good! (Gen 1:1-31). This introduction harkens back to the beginning of the Baltimore Catechism, the predecessor of the modern-day Catechism, which stated that God created us to know, love, and serve Him in this life so that we can be happy with Him in the next life. That is the whole reason for life; to come to know God. Thankfully, this is not something we do on our own; rather God inserts Himself into our life so that we can more easily come to know Him.

(CCC 2) This message of the existence of a personal God who wants to know each of us individually is not something we are meant to keep to ourselves. In other words, faith is not a "me-and-God" relationship. Love by its very nature is meant to be shared. This is why Christ came to this earth to establish His Church to spread the Gospel. Our very existence as Christians is based on spreading the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. If we are not preaching the Gospel, we are not living up to the worthy name of Christian. Again, God does not abandon us in this endeavor, but rather works with us and establishes our good works in signs and wonders.

(CCC 3) This task of spreading the Gospel is intimately linked with the Apostles and their successors. We find the truth properly handed on from generation to generation when done in union with apostolic tradition. The further one finds oneself from the successors of the apostles (the Bishops and priests in union with them), the further one is from the truths of Jesus Christ. This Christian life of evangelization is lived out in three tangible ways: in the profession of our faith, in living with a spirit of charity towards our brothers and sisters in Christ, and in taking part in the liturgical traditions of the Church as well as being united with each other in prayer.

The PSR school year has come to an end. This year, we were faced with many obstacles but we overcame them with the volunteer catechists' dedication and the students' perseverance. Thank you to all that made this school year a success, especially our volunteers-
Sarah Lee, Aaron Guyer, Ruby Smith, Kristin Wilmes, Elenore Cobb, Adam Eisiminger and Matt Lee.

BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

If you have a ministry or group that you would like to promote, please consider submitting a bulletin article via email to share information about your organization with the parish.

Some announcement guidelines/best practices:

1. When requesting promotion for an upcoming event, the more time you can give, the better. If able, please submit your announcement at least a couple of weeks prior to your event.
2. Bulletin submissions must be sent in no later than Noon on Fridays for the following week's bulletin (i.e. your request is made by Friday, July 1st, it can appear in the July 9th and 10th bulletin). Bulletins during Advent, Lent and certain holidays have earlier submission deadlines, so please try to get announcements during those times in as early as possible. I have added a small box with submission deadlines at the bottom of page 2 of the bulletin. Please submit your announcements to: saintroseparishoffice@gmail.com.
3. Make sure you include contact information in your announcement and please double check email addresses and phone numbers for accuracy.
4. You may include photos in your submission. I will do my best to find space for them in the bulletin.
5. All bulletin announcements will be subject to revision and will be published as space allows.

SING TO THE LORD!

St. Rose of Lima is in need of more cantors to serve as ministers of music at Masses. There are no special qualifications, just the desire to praise and to pray to God through song and to lead others to sing to the Lord! Elaine will work with those interested as well as current cantors so you will be prepared and understand what this ministry involves. This is a wonderful way to serve God while helping to enrich the worship for others.

We also need another organist to assist at Masses, so please contact Elaine if you are interested or you know someone who might be available to help.

May God bless you as you discern the gifts you have received from the Holy Spirit and your involvement in our music ministries.

Please contact Elaine Ingle if you are interested or if you have any questions (816-390-4040).

Rosary Prayer Group

The Legion of Mary is sponsoring the Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy weekly Thursdays at 5:30pm, before Mass. A sign up sheet is available on the bulletin board for anyone who would like to lead the Rosary or the Chaplet.
