“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

A WORRY TABLE

A Worry Table: Some of us would do well to emulate the woman who realized that her fears were ruining her life, so she made for herself a "worry table." On tabulating her worries she discovered that 40 percent will never happen; 30 percent were all about decisions that cannot be altered; 12 percent were about others' criticism, most untrue; 10 percent were about my health, which gets worse as I worry; 8 percent were legitimate since life has some real problems to meet.

Thomas Kepler from James Cox, The Ministers Manual For 1996.

WILL THE GRASS EVER COME BACK?

Erma Bombeck, the author who wrote "If Life Is A Bowl Of Cherries, What Am I Doing Here In The Pits", tells of two moments in her husband's life:

There was a time when the children were growing up that her husband used to go and look at the back yard. Surveying the muddy patches where the lawn should be, he would wonder -- Will the grass ever come back?

And then there was the time when the children were grown and gone that her husband went and looked over the beautiful green lawn, immaculate from lack of use and wondered -- Will the children ever come back?

Some parts of life are temporary - some are eternal. Wisdom knows the difference. This is the fundamental issue at stake in the story of Mary and Martha.

Richard J. Fairchild, The Better Part

HUMOR: WHEN ANXIETIES FINALLY COME TRUE

For several years a woman had been having trouble getting to sleep at night because she feared burglars. One night her husband heard a noise in the house, so he went downstairs to investigate. When he got there, he did find a burglar. "Good evening," said the man of the house. "I am pleased to see you. Come upstairs and meet my wife. She has been waiting 10 years to meet you."

William Marshall, Eternity Shut in a Span

Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire - a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

Celebrate the Conclusion of the Diocesan Capital Campaign

Tuesday, July 19th, 5:30 PM

Bishop Rice will be here at SEAS on Tuesday, July 19th, to celebrate Mass at 5:30PM and give thanks for the success of the first-ever Diocesan Capital Endowment Campaign - which was recently concluded. The campaign funded three priorities for the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau: youth formation, seminarian education/formation and retirement of our diocesan priests.

SEAS Rosary Makers is a team of volunteers who make beautiful handmade rosaries for Springfield Catholic High School seniors and others as needed. Please bring your own rosary making pliers, and we will supply the beads. We also repair rosaries at your request.

If the idea of making rosaries brings a smile to your heart, perhaps Mother Mary is asking you to join this ministry, which meets every Tuesday morning at 10:00AM in PSR Room 5. INFO: Ellie Widmer, 417.576.4224 or ewidmer43@gmail.com.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

I get by with a little help from my friends . . . remember the Beatles song? We all need a concerned caring friend at difficult times in our lives. A Stephen Minister can listen and care for you, or for someone you know, who is going through a tough time.

PLEASE CALL:

Joan McClennen, 417.838.9170

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Luke 10: 38-42

Key Passage: "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." "Martha, Martha, you are anxious about many things. There is need of only one thing."

Question: What is the "one thing" Jesus says we need?

Children: When you ask your friend over to play, do you ask what your friend wants to do?
