What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime "in the future" while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. "Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom)." We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

IMPORTANT FEAST DAY THIS WEEK

Transfiguration of the Lord

Saturday, August 6th—Mass at 8:30AM

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a day when we commemorate the occasion upon which Jesus took three of his disciples, Peter, James and John, up on a mountain, where Moses and Elijah appeared and Jesus was transfigured, his face and clothes becoming dazzlingly bright. We will celebrate Mass on this day at 8:30 AM.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Mondays: 4:00—8:00 PM
in the Day Chapel.

REFLECTION ON THE OUR FATHER

"I cannot say 'our' if I live only for myself. I cannot say 'Father' if I do not approach God like a child. I cannot say 'who art in heaven' if I am not laying up some treasure there right now. I cannot say 'Hallowed be thy name' if I am careless with that name. I cannot say 'Thy kingdom come' if I am not working to actualize it in the here and now. I cannot say 'Thy will be done' if I am resentful of that will for me at this moment. I cannot say 'on earth as it is in heaven' if I don't look on heaven as my future home. I cannot say 'Give us our daily bread' if I am overanxious about tomorrow. I cannot say 'Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us' if I am waiting to settle a score with someone. I cannot say 'Lead us not into temptation' if I deliberately put myself in a place to be tempted. I cannot say 'Deliver us from evil' if I am not prepared to pray as though everything depends on God and work as though as everything depends on me." Dag Hammarskjold wrote, "Hallowed be thy name, not mine. Thy Kingdom come, not mine. Thy will be done, not mine." Anonymous

THREE KINDS OF GIVERS

There are three kinds of givers: the flint, the sponge, and the honeycomb. Which kind are you? To get anything from the flint, you must hammer it. Yet, all you get are chips and sparks. The flint gives nothing away if it can help it, and even then only with a great display. To get anything from the sponge, you must squeeze it. It readily yields to pressure and the more it is pressed, the more it gives. Still, one has to squeeze it. To get anything from the honeycomb, however, one must only take what freely flows from it. It gives its sweetness generously, dripping on all without pressure, without begging or badgering. The honeycomb is a renewable resource. Unlike the flint or the sponge, the honeycomb is connected to life; it is the product of the ongoing work and creative energy of bees. If you share like a honeycomb giver your life will be continually replenished and grow as you give.

When we share we freely give and we acknowledge that all we have is on loan and others have as much right to the things of God's creation as we do.

Keith Wagner, But, I Need It!

THE DOLLARS ARE IN THE WAY

Henry Ford once asked an associate about his life goals. The man replied that his goal was to make a million dollars. A few days later Ford gave the man a pair of glasses made out of two silver dollars. He told the man to put them on and asked what he could see. "Nothing," the man said. "The dollars are in the way." Ford told him that he wanted to teach him a lesson: If his only goal was dollars, he would miss a host of greater opportunities. He should invest himself in serving others, not simply in making money.

That's a great secret of life that far too few people discover. Money is important. No question about that. But money is only a means by which we reach higher goals. Service to others. Obedience to God. God comes to the rich man and says, "You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?" The answer was clear. The rich man had put his trust in things. Now he was leaving these things behind.

Are you interested in being a part of one of these? Would you like to know more about how to get a group started and what this journey is all about? Contact our DRE, Denise Dumars, if you are interested in being a part of a Discipleship Quad – ddumars@seaschurch.org or call 417.887.6472, ext. 610. You will be glad you found the time for this!

ANNUAL MISSION SUNDAY—THIS WEEKEND
July 30th/31st
The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette at all Masses

The Missionaries of our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life—beginning at the La Salette Shrine in France, where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor. With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciling message to the poor.

Please support the Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette THIS weekend as they bring us their heartfelt stories to all our Masses and invite us to be a part of their important ministry. Any donations made via check should be made payable to SEAS. We will send total dollars received in one check from the parish.
