Blessing of Statue of Saint Joseph

While this month is dedicated to Mary, May 1st is the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker. Pope Francis has made 2021 a special Holy Year honoring Saint Joseph, and we are grateful for the gift of a very inspirational statue of Saint Joseph, the husband of Mary and foster father of Jesus.

The statue will be blest this weekend at the 5:00 PM Mass, and it will soon be placed near the Sacred Heart shrine at the west exit doors of the church.

Holy Family Meditative Rosary

We invite you to come and pray the Rosary. We have a group of parishioners that meet in the church near the Blessed Virgin Mary statue at 11AM on most Mondays to pray the rosary. They meet in the parish hall afterwards for a short coffee social.

The Third Tuesday of the Month we have a Rosary Breakfast in Robert Martz Hall following the 8:30 AM Mass. The Holy Family Meditative Rosary is prayed followed by a breakfast social.

We also have a group that prays the rosary for Priests following the 8:30 morning Mass on Wednesdays.

On Wednesday afternoons we have a group that meets to make rosaries for missionaries.

If you can't join them, take some time to pray the rosary, wherever you are.

Planned Giving

Have your plans changed during this difficult time? Socio, political, and economic changes in our society may have caused the need to provide and protect your family with a Will or Trust. With a Trust your heirs will avoid probate and working with an estate planning advisor you can be very creative in structuring your bequests to maximize your financial resources for giving. Learn and explore ways to plan at the archdiocese's gift planning website, CatholicPlannedGiving.com

Xavier Catholic School and St. Francis de Sales are partnering to provide more preschool options for our community! Preschool and Pre-K classes are coming to St. Francis de Sales for the 2021 - 2022 school year. Classes will be held in a St. Francis de Sales School of Religion classroom. Limited enrollment is still available. Please contact Shannon Holcomb at 913-682-1943 for information.

Please join us for the Crowning of our Blessed Mother on Sunday May 9th following the 8:00AM Mass and stay and pray the Rosary with us. The Blessed Mother holds a special place in our Christian tradition. We honor her throughout the year, but especially in the month of May.

Pilgrim Virgin Mary Statue Home Visitation

Legion of Mary continues signups for the Pilgrim Virgin Mary. Parishioners may sign-up in the back of the church to have the Pilgrim Virgin Mary statue brought to their home for the week. A calendar is available in the back to sign up. You can also call the parish office at 913-727-3742 or email Sharon at the parish office: plc@stfrancislansing.org.

POPE FRANCIS has called for a global "prayer marathon" inviting individuals, families and communities to pray for an end to the pandemic. Marian Shrines throughout the world will be special centers for these prayers. Each day in May, there will be a livestream from one of 30 chosen Marian shrines or sanctuaries to guide the prayer at 6 p.m. Rome time (11 am CDT) on all Vatican media platforms.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Our catechists who taught our religious education classes did an extraordinary job. Because of the pandemic they used Zoom to connect with our students. Few, if any, had any experience teaching this way, so they had to learn not only this new means of communication, but to find and create ways to keep our young disciples focused on the lessons at hand.

So I pray that God will doubly reward each of them for their extra efforts in this very important mission of catechizing our youth. And let's all pray that this coming Fall we will be able to return to normal face-to-face religious education.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

We've entered an age when discovering the truth feels more complicated than ever. Some of us are leery of "facts," knowing how easily they can be manufactured, massaged, or politicized. Traditional sources of truth—government, news media, even organized religion—have proven to be subject to the same failures to which we ourselves are prone. How do we sort out truth from all the political noise that distorts what we hear? John says the Spirit's been given to us for precisely this task. Pray for the gift of holy discernment. Today's Readings: Acts 9:26-31; 1 John 3:18-24; John 15:1-8

Monday, May 3

FEAST OF PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

Poor James the Lesser. The other apostle named James—the Greater—got the better nickname. We don't even know anything about James the Lesser, other than his name and that Jesus picked him to be one of the 12—but that alone speaks volumes about this James. We've all experienced what it feels like to have labels attached to us that make us feel less in the eyes of others, if we even feel seen or known at all. But God looks past those labels to the truth of our identity. That's where you'll find your value and dignity, even if others don't seem to. Remember that, like James, you are God's chosen. Today's Readings: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8; John 14:6-14

Tuesday, May 4

EASTER WEEKDAY

Today is Teacher Appreciation Day, recognizing teachers as a force for good—especially in this pandemic year. Through John Baptist de La Salle, patron saint of all teachers, we might say the best educators naturally follow a "Lasallian" philosophy of education. "The Lasallian tradition emphasizes the fact that all people, especially the young, have an inherent dignity which comes from their being created in the image of God," explains St. Mary's College of Winona. "Education is a means of developing this dignity for the well-being of each student as well as for the well-being of our society." Thank a teacher today. Today's Readings: Acts 14:19-28; John 14:27-31a

Wednesday, May 5

EASTER WEEKDAY

Though today's "Cinco de Mayo" celebrations commemorate but a single Mexican victory over France at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862, in the United States it has become an opportunity to honor the heritage and culture of Mexican people. As folks revel in parades and festivals, enjoying Mexican cuisine and music, we recall these words from the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "Human interdependence is increasing and spreading through the world . . . embracing people who enjoy equal natural dignity." Celebrate Cinco de Mayo with a prayer of gratitude for the richness of human diversity. Today's Readings: Ac 15:1-6; Jn 15:1-8

Thursday, May 6

EASTER WEEKDAY

One of the earliest conflicts in the church had to do with whether Gentiles should have to follow the laws and customs of Judaism. Because Christianity grew out of Judaism, early church leaders had a hard time sorting out what was essential to the emerging Christian faith and what was simply the "way we've always done it." This question continues to vex church leaders to this day and has gone through many iterations—from questions about ritual practices, to prayers and social norms. What is essential to the faith? That we love God with our whole heart, mind, and soul, and love our neighbor as ourselves. Everything else may well be a matter of custom. When it comes to faith, take time today to get back to the basics. Today's Readings: Acts 15:7-21, John 15:9-11

Friday, May 7

EASTER WEEKDAY

If you have a garden, you might be checking the forecast these days to see if conditions are right for planting. Gardens play an outsize role in the Christian imagination. From the Garden of Eden to the Garden of Gethsemane, key events happen in gardens. For centuries communities of sisters, brothers, and priests have cultivated gardens for food, edification, and connection to a major metaphor for spiritual development. Seek out a patch of green, and whether you plant a seed or enjoy a bloom, connecting with creation will connect you with the Creator. Today's Readings: Ac 15:22-31; Jn 15:12-17

Saturday, May 8

EASTER WEEKDAY

Blessed Teresa Demjanovich (1901-27) has been called America's "Little Flower." Like Thérèse from Lisieux, France, Teresa from Bayonne, New Jersey was a spiritual writer of great insight who also died young. Because of her virtue, her writings, and a miracle healing attributed to her intercession, she was beatified in the Newark cathedral in 2014, the first-ever such ceremony held in the United States. Her elevation to sainthood awaits confirmation of a second miracle. Teresa's mother died in the 1918 pandemic, which killed well over 500,000 Americans. Sound sadly familiar? Ask Blessed Teresa's intercession for all who have suffered because of COVID-19. Today's Readings: Acts 16:1-10; John 15:18-21

Dear Padre

Why is the Church considering a word change to the Our Father? It seems fine as it is.

Of the two versions of the Lord's Prayer in Luke 11:2-4 and Matthew 6:9-13, Luke's is more concise. The petition, "and lead us not into temptation" in Greek means both "do not allow us to enter into temptation" and "do not let us yield to temptation" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2846). The Catechism includes the explanation from James 1:13: "God cannot be tempted by evil and he himself tempts no one," to certify that God "wants to set us free from evil. We ask him not to allow us to take the way that leads to sin." Consequently, Pope Francis reportedly approved the English wording, "do not let us fall into temptation" to replace "lead us not into temptation."

"It is not a good translation because it speaks of a God who induces temptation," the Pope said in 2017. "I am the one who falls. It's not him pushing me into temptation to then see how I have fallen." On the contrary, "a father helps you to get up immediately," he added. "It's Satan who leads us into temptation—that's his department."

However, unlike the change in the Italian Lord's Prayer that will appear in their third edition of The Roman Missal, no immediate plans have been made to change the wording in English-speaking countries.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

THE GLORIA

GLORY TO GOD in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING I

Acts 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus.

The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 22

R/. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

I will fulfill my vows before those who fear the Lord.
The lowly shall eat their fill;
they who seek the Lord shall praise him:
“May your hearts live forever!”

R/. I will praise you, Lord,
in the assembly of your people.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord;
all the families of the nations shall bow down before him.

R/. I will praise you, Lord,
in the assembly of your people.

To him alone shall bow down
all who sleep in the earth;
before him shall bend
all who go down into the dust.

R/. I will praise you, Lord,
in the assembly of your people.

And to him my soul shall live;
my descendants shall serve him.

Let the coming generation be told of the Lord that they may proclaim to a people yet to be born the justice he has shown.

R/. I will praise you, Lord,
in the assembly of your people.

READING II

I John 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.

Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

GOSPEL

John 15:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples: “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

THE APOSTLES' CREED

During the Easter Season it is appropriate to recite The Apostles' Creed since it is the basis for the Baptismal promises renewed at Easter.

I BELIEVE in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

(Bow) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.
