LITURGICAL LIFE

Confession

I have heard this all my life from my Protestant and Jewish friends about the Sacrament of Reconciliation: “Why do you Catholics have to confess your sins to a priest? Why not just confess them straight to God and avoid the middle man?” On the surface, that may be a reasonable supposition to ones outside the Catholic faith; after all, we all turn to God for mercy and forgiveness.

However, if we examine the logic of this supposition, there are a couple of flaws. One flaw is if we take it even a step further in confessing straight to God, why even bother confessing if we rightly claim that God is all-knowing. Since God already knows our sins, what is the point in confessing. In fact, let us go straight from the commission of the sin to God’s forgiveness, bypassing things like confession, contrition, and atonement.

Another flaw in the logic of that statement is the assumption that if we look up to the sky and confess, all will be forgiven and we will be healed. If we do that, do we really know that God has forgiven us? How is that communicated? Do we really and truly feel forgiven and healed?

Jesus gave his apostles the authority to forgive sins, and that authority has been passed on through the centuries to where we are at 2000 years later. Before healing the paralytic, Jesus told him his sins are forgiven. If we truly desire healing, we need to hear those words, “your sins are forgiven.” It all begins by confessing them to a priest.—TB

Mission Priest Next Weekend

Next weekend, a mission priest will be here to celebrate all the Masses at Saint Pius and Saint Joseph (except the Latin Mass and the Power Show Mass). When scheduling the priest, it completely slipped my mind that was the Power Show weekend. Whenever a mission priest comes, it is my opportunity to take off and go somewhere. I usually go to Fargo and visit Mom and stay at her house. But now that she is in a nursing home visits are limited and now that the house up for sale, I do not know what to do and where to go. Maybe I will ask my sister to stay at her lake cabin.—TB

Remember the Synod?...Focus Areas

In Year I of the Synod, over 8,000 faithful attended the 30 Prayer and Listening Sessions. We prayed together and listened to one another. Over 35,000 comments were shared on what was working well in the Archdiocese and what areas needed strengthening. (Thank you to all of you who were able to participate in those sessions and share your feedback!) Based on this feedback, other consultations and discernment, Archbishop Hebda has determined the three focus areas that will shape the Year 3 Consultation process.

Forming parishes that are in the service of evangelization.

Forming missionary disciples who know Jesus’ love and respond to his call.

Forming youth and young adults in and for a Church that is always young.

While these focus areas may seem quite broad, during Year 3 on the consultation process, we will have the opportunity to learn, pray, discuss and break it down further in small groups (more on this later). In the meantime, refer to insert which provides a deeper dive into the three focus areas.

Due to the pandemic, and the inability to gather, the two year Synod process expanded to three years. Year II focused on “The Church Prepares”, in which the Archdiocese provided many free video series, on various topics, for the faithful to take advantage during lockdown and quarantine. If you didn’t get a chance to see these series, they are still available at archspm.org/synod.com

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life's demands and people's needs can really zap us of all of our energy. Anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and even apathy can run wild. We can find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect, and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished. Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours?

Program Information

Nate's Community Garage developed in 2020 as a 501c3 out of Nate's Garage. Nate's Garage is a full service automotive repair facility including mechanical, body work, detailing and mini storage. Nate's Community Garage is ONLY the second program of its kind in Minnesota. We have helped nearly 30 people, families, and Veterans with financial assistance to afford safety related auto repairs. Nate's Community Garage asks the participant to pay 25% of the repair bill and we will cover the balance up to $500 a year. Nate's Community Garage is bridging the financial gap for Veterans and low-income people to afford unexpected automotive repair.

We have 5 major fundraising events in the summer. The next one is:

Saturday, July 24 at 10 am
Fundraiser Car Show & Burn Outs
Nate's Community Garage
