

LITURGICAL LIFE

Mass Times

Instilled in my head from my days of seminary was a basic rule that pastors should avoid messing with Mass times. The time Mass starts is very personal to those who go to that particular Mass. Mea Culpa, Mae Culpa. Since I was assigned here, I violated that rule twice. First, to accommodate the Traditional Latin Mass at Saint Joseph, at a time we could not get a priest to say it at 8:00 AM, we had to move it to after the 10:30 AM Mass. The people and the Priests for the Latin Mass begged me to have that Mass start at 11:30. The only way that could happen is the 10:30 Mass be moved 10:00. I surveyed the crowd at that Mass and most were happy with that idea. However, the downside is that I could never be available for any after Mass activity at Saint Pius.

Couple years ago, things got more stable for the Traditional Latin Mass, and the Mass got moved back to 8:00 AM. The later Mass, for a while, stayed at 10:00. Folks at Saint Pius complained to me that I never hang around after Mass, and some accused me of checking my watch if Mass was going long.

Attendance at the Tradition Latin Mass was growing, and with only one priest to serve, the communion procession took longer, so that the end of Mass, especially a High Mass, ended after 9:30. The people attending that Mass tended to hang around and socialize to the point where parking was an issue. There were a few folks begging me to move the Mass back to 10:30.

The Mass got moved back to 10:30. Parking was better. I got to watch the children's Christmas Pageant at Saint Pius. I did get a couple of nasty-grams for moving the Mass. What can I do? I guess I cannot please everybody.

Now, I am going to test the waters with still another Mass time change. Ever since Father Leonard stopped helping out, on Saturday evenings, I have been hightailing it out of Saint Pius after the 4:00 PM Mass to get to 5:30 PM confessions and Mass at 6:00 PM. It was after Father Leonard left, I was thinking it would be nice for me to just have one Mass on Saturday evening. The Mass attendance at both sites, but especially at Saint Joseph, has been low, so low that if we combine both congregations, we still would not fill half the Church. Here is my proposal: one Mass on Saturday evening at 5:00 PM, with confessions at 4:00 PM. From Trinity Sunday to the Feast of Christ the King, the Mass will be held at Saint Joseph, and from the First Sunday of Advent to Pentecost, the Mass will be held at Saint Pius.

Tell me what you think.—TB

Synod director: Next step tweaked due to COVID, but still rooted in Parish Consultation feedback

The next step in the Synod process has been reformatted in response to the newest variant wave of COVID-19, Archbishop Bernard Hebda announced in a January 7 letter to clergy. The next consultation event is now the Parish Synod Leadership Team consultation and will take place at parishes February 26.

Archbishop Hebda originally planned to bring together parish representatives in deanery-organized meetings to discuss the Synod focus areas and further hone ideas surfaced during the Parish Consultation process in the fall. Under the revised approach, those parish representatives will gather in person at their parish as a team February 26 (or alternatively, March 5) to discuss and pray about those same ideas guided by a video prepared by the archdiocese. Feedback shared that day will inform the Archdiocesan Synod Assembly in June.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

A businessman ordered flowers to be sent to the opening of his friend's new branch office. When the businessman got to the event, he was shocked to see the flowers with the inscription "Rest in Peace." He was so outraged that he stopped at the florist to complain.

"It could be worse," the florist said, "Just think: Today someone was buried beneath a floral arrangement with the inscription 'Congratulations on Your New Location!'"

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

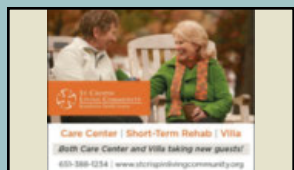

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
