“When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?” And the king will say to them in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.’” — Mt 25:38-40

Pope Francis and Joe Biden spoke by phone on Nov. 12 and the pontiff congratulated the president-elect, who in January will become only the second Catholic president in United States history.

According to an official read-out from the transition team working with Biden and Vice President-elect Kamala Harris, Biden received Francis' blessings and the two expressed a commitment to work together on a series of overlapping signature issues, including immigration and environmental protection.

"The President-elect expressed his desire to work together on the basis of a shared belief in the dignity and equality of all humankind on issues such as caring for the marginalized and the poor, addressing the crisis of climate change, and welcoming and integrating immigrants and refugees into our communities," said the statement.

Francis' phone conversation to Biden comes at a time when President Donald Trump has refused to concede the election, yet leaders from around the world have reached out to Biden to offer congratulations.

The president-elect, according to the read-out, "noted his appreciation for His Holiness' leadership in promoting peace, reconciliation, and the common bonds of humanity around the world."

Biden has previously met in person with Francis on several occasions. In 2013, he led the U.S. delegation to the inauguration of Francis' pontificate. In 2015, he welcomed Francis for his first-ever visit to the United States and, a year later, Biden spoke at a Vatican conference on healthcare.

During the final week of his presidential campaign, Biden cited Francis' newly released encyclical Fratelli Tutti, one of many references to his Catholic faith while on the campaign trail.

Francis, said Biden of the encyclical, asks the questions, "that anyone who seeks to lead this nation should be able to answer."

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Titles and privileges, palaces and guards, banquets and benefits, servants and fine living, are all things earthly folks associate with kings and royalty. These have no place in Christ. To understand the kingdom of Christ and what it means to have Christ as our king, one must be willing and able to understand transformation, engagement and empowerment. To live in the kingship of Christ, we have to live deeply and contemplatively; allowing God to change not only how we act, but how we feel, think, and see. It is not an easy journey or one that is always welcomed. Sometimes, it is easier and safer to live as if Christ were our earthly king. It's a more black and white world. But the kingdom of Christ exists in a world of gray where the hungry, thirsty, those who are strangers, naked, ill, and imprisoned find a welcome home. It is a kingdom that doesn't always make sense, where the last are first and the weakest are most strong. World economics and secular philosophy doesn't like this kind of king. Maybe that is why they crucified him the first time and continue to. Whatever we do to the least of God's children, we do to God. Do you really want to inherit the kingdom?

Kids Corner

Hey Kids!

Today, Sunday, November 22nd, is the last Sunday of our liturgical year (church year) and it's a great day because we celebrate with the Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Father Kinney is going to be all decked out in white to lead us in the celebration. It is really too bad that we all can't be there to celebrate with him but some of us will participate with him using the wonderful technology we have available. But some of us will have to celebrate this great feast on our televisions with another priest. But, just think (deep thought) one year from now we all will be one year closer to the King of the Universe and really be able to celebrate with everyone on this great solemnity. Thank you, God, for giving us Jesus! Maybe you can add that to your "Thanksgiving Dinner Prayer." Wouldn't Jesus just love that?
