PASTOR'S PONDERINGS

PARISH MISSION— We are continuing with FORGIVEN: THE TRANSFORMING POWER OF CONFESSION this Sunday at 6pm in the GACC Cafeteria. Babysitting is available so that both Mom and Dad can attend. Even if you haven't been able to attend the previous weeks know that you can jump in this week. Even as a priest it can be intimidating to go to confession, but I think this week's lesson explaining the Rite of Reconciliation will help alleviate the fear of going to confession. This series is for the whole parish and I hope you will join us. It will conclude next week on April 3 with a Parish Reconciliation Service.

A PARISH RECONCILIATION SERVICE will be held Sunday, April 3 at 6pm in St Mary's Church. At this time, there will be seven priests to hear confessions so all can take part in the beautiful Sacrament of Reconciliation and Penance in a timely fashion.

THE CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS are hosting several events to help you on your Lenten Journey. This week starting Wednesday you can see "The Man of the Shroud" exhibit in the lower level of St Joe's. On Thursday you can here about the exhibit by Jim Bertrand at 7pm at the Church. See page 4 for details.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE—Thank you to those who gave witness to life on March 26. There are more opportunities to join other Christians in praying for an end to abortion. West Point has claimed Friday, April 1 from 8am-5pm at Planned Parenthood in Omaha to pray. See the details on page 3.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS will be held on the Fridays of Lent at 7:00pm at St Mary's. Exposition and Confessions will follow Stations of the Cross. The St Aloysius Guild will also be leading the Stations of the Cross on Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm in Aloys.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FISH FRY will be held the Fridays of Lent at the GA Cafeteria from 5-8pm.

THE BLUE RIBBON DINNER will be held Monday, April 4th. Your participation in and generous support of the dinner goes to the GACC Endowments. The funds generated from the endowments have allowed us to offer our teachers and staff a significant raise; thus helping us retain current and attract new teachers to GACC. Details on Page 3.

SPIRITUAL INSIGHT— The story of the Prodigal Son illustrates the generosity and mercy of the father, the selfishness of the younger son who thinks about himself and squanders the generosity of the father, and the older son who becomes upset when his brother returns home and gets a party thrown for him. If we reflect on these three characters I think we can recognize an aspect of their attitudes at different stages of our life and hopefully we learn from them. In the times that we are being selfish and demanding what is not ours, can we take a step back, admit it, and ask for forgiveness? When we recognize someone else getting something that we don't think they deserve, are we able to pause and reflect on the gifts that have been given to us, offer thanksgiving, and be happy for the other person. Finally, can we be generous like the father offering to others the gifts that we have, but most especially offering forgiveness to those who have hurt us. As we reflect upon these attitudes may we allow ourselves to be robed in our heavenly Father's grace which helps us turn away from our selfishness, be thankful, generous, and forgiving.

In Christ,
Fr Weeder

4th Sunday of Lent

The readings for the 4th Sunday of Lent Year C remind us that God is always waiting for us to return to Him so we can receive the abundance of life he offers us. The first reading tells of how the Israelites celebrated Passover on the plains of Jericho. In the second reading Paul tells us to be reconciled to God. And in the gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the prodigal son, which is sometimes called the parable of the forgiving father.

..."No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." (JOSHUA 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

On Thursday, March 31
7 pm at St. Mary's church,
"The Man of the Shroud"
 expert, Jim Bertrand, M.Ed. of the American Confraternity of the Holy Shroud, will give a special presentation and a rare viewing of a Shroud replica. For more information on this exhibit, visit spiritcatholicradio.com/shroud

St. Mary's Parish in West Point will have an up-close experience of the most studied artifact of all time – The Shroud of Turin, what many believe to be the authentic burial cloth of Christ. The Man of the Shroud exhibit will include 42 beautifully designed panels on display on the lower level of St. Joseph's Retirement Home (enter through the lower-level west door) from Wednesday, March 30-Sunday, April 3. Viewing Times: Wednesday, 8 am – 8 pm,

Thursday-Sunday, noon – 6 pm. Also on display will be replicas of the Crown of Thorns, whips, nails, and Holy Sponge used in the Passion of Our Lord. This exhibit will raise the questions, "Could the Shroud be the most important archaeological artifact ever found? Does it provide clues to what happened during the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus?"
