PRAYER FOR ORDINATION ANNIVERSARY

God our Father,
You reveal your omnipotence in the superabundance of your mercy, poured forth into the world through the sacred wounds of your Son and our Redeemer.

We ardently pray that your sacred ministers may be clear reflections of your mercy. May they, with every word and deed of their life, illumine humanity disoriented by sin, and bring it back to you, who are Love.

We ask this, Father, through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen

"As we progress in this way of life and in faith, we shall run on the path of God's commandments, our hearts overflowing with the inexpressible delight of love."

Rule of Benedict

Jesus tells the disciples, "If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father ..." This type of generous, expansive love can be really challenging to practice. Of course, we want our beloved friends to live into the fullness of their callings. We know that their whole purpose in life does not revolve around us. Other people are not ours to possess. Still, the departure of a dear friend can evoke difficult feelings. How will the relationship change when we are not together every day? Will we still be as close?

It's easy to imagine the disciples asking difficult relational questions as their dear friend Jesus prepares to be assumed into heaven. Still, a generous spirit and a hurting heart can coincide in one body. Jesus calls the disciples to move through this transition with generosity. Rejoice that I have accomplished my life's work. Rejoice that I am going to the Father. Rejoice that I will take you with me, for where I am you will also be.

Jesus tells the disciples, "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." Now, I don't think Jesus expects his followers to never feel these profoundly human emotions. The Son of God knows better than anyone that hard things happen. Hearts get hurt. Sin and suffering remain strong forces in our world even with the promises of Easter. Abbot John Klassen, OSB, of Saint John's Abbey spoke powerfully to this reality on Good Friday when he said: "We can never really know the resurrection of Christ if we drive around the cross."

To get to resurrection, we must move through the cross. Suffering and death, hope and resurrection, are always part of the same story. Jesus calls us to move through the crosses of our lives with courage. Courage does not erase suffering. Rather courage recognizes human hardship and says: move forward anyway. Feel troubled and move forward anyway. Feel afraid and move forward anyway. You can do it. You are never alone. My Spirit is with you always.

The Easter season continues for 50 days from Easter Sunday, April 17th, until Pentecost Sunday, June 5th, 10 days after the Feast of the Ascension.

Open to all families! Makes a great learning experience, especially those preparing for 1st Holy Communion next year!

To me, the nations who have legalized abortion, they are the poorest nations. Let us all pray that we have the courage to stand for the unborn child, and give the child an opportunity to love and to be loved, and I think with God's grace we will be able to bring peace in the world. For the child is the greatest gift of God to a family, a nation, and the whole world.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Mon., June 6th - Fri., June 10th - Vacation Bible School from 9-11:30am

Mon., July 18th-Fri., July 22nd - Totus Tuus 9am-2:30pm

Family life is filled with the ordinary; raising children, day-to-day routines and tasks. But in all of its ordinariness, God allows us time to discover the extraordinary ways our Catholic faith gives meaning and purpose to our everyday lives.

Join us for Family Faith Formation 2022-2023. Sessions will be held the first three Wednesdays of the month at 4:30 & 6:30pm for 60-minutes. Sessions begin on Wednesday, September 7th and run through May. A detailed list of program offerings is below. Register at www.stpatselkhorn.org/family-faith-formation.html

In today's Gospel reading Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit to the disciples after He was gone. The Holy Spirit would teach them all they needed to know.

After Jesus left, the disciples would be confused about what Jesus had wanted them to do and how to go about building the Church He had started. But Jesus promised that they would not be alone. God the Holy Spirit would come to them and show them what they needed to do.

Where is the Holy Spirit now? He is still working in the Church. He inspires people to do what is right and to learn the truth. He also shows the leaders of the Church what God wants of them and keeps the Church's teachings free of error. Can you think of times when the Holy Spirit has helped you?

HUMAN NEEDS COMMITTEE:

MAY: Stephen Center

Donate to the Stephen Center

Your donation allows the Stephen Center to provide the resources necessary for individuals and families to emerge from homelessness. A donation of $50 provides 31 meals to the hungry men, women and children staying in our shelter. You can provide shelter and supportive services for one person for $25, four people for $100, and 10 people for $250.

Make a one-time charitable donation at:
<https://stephencenter.org/donate-money>

The Stephen Center welcome your check or money order gift. To donate by mail, simply mail your donation to Stephen Center, Attn: Development, 2723 Q Street, Omaha, NE 68107.

Are you shopping on Amazon or selling items online? Do you have a gift card balance you don't need? Consider donating it to the Stephen Center.
