Then taking the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled 12 wicker baskets.

A Prayer for the Fathers in Our Lives

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail. We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways - both big and small - they lift their children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.

In Jesus name, we pray.

Amen.

Jesus - Filled Summer
God of the Extra Ordinary

The green of Ordinary Time symbolizes our spiritual growth as we learn to know the Lord through his teachings, miracles and teachings in scripture. Our daily task during Ordinary Time is to walk as a disciple and imitate Jesus in his earthly ministry. The symbols of this season help to make us more mindful of that mission.

How do you incorporate the blessings of this season into your summer? Are you making more time for the Lord or taking a vacation from Him?

God of the (extra) ordinary,
Send now your interrupting Spirit upon our ordinary lives, our ordinary stories and our ordinary churches.
Raise us from the dead. Forgive us.
Convert us and invite us again into your discipleship. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, You are the Good Shepherd.

You know each of us and You call us by name to serve the faith.

Help us respond generously to Your voice. Give courage and guidance to those You call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, single life, and sacramental marriage, so they may respond wholeheartedly and serve devotedly.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

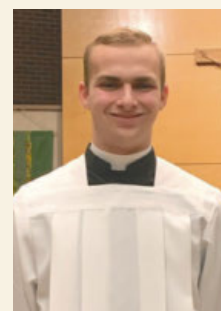

Amen.

HAPPY Father's Day

"Everything I say for one of my children is for all of them...each soul is my favorite," said Our Lord to the French mystic Gabrielle Bossis, "if only you knew my love for each one."

Can we sense God's love, God's longing to draw us daily into their love? The state of the world today may cause us to wonder. Many are tempted to believe we are cut off and do not belong. It does not take much imagination to see the sorrows and struggles in our world these days. The culture of death knocks loudly and often, embracing greed, warfare, violence, destruction—ways contrary to life, to God.

In today's gospel we meet Jesus in a crowd, speaking life-giving words about the reign of God, and healing people of their ailments. It is precisely here where the feast manifests. The disciples thought the healing work was completed and attempted to have Jesus dismiss the five thousand. Jesus then invites the seemingly impossible. Give them something to eat yourselves.

Five loaves and two fish are all we have, they respond. And while they are busy calculating, Jesus acts. An unexpected blessing and an unexpected feast for and with love: The love of Jesus, the love of God, the love-possibility between those gathered there, and dare I say, those gathered here in cyberspace?

Many wonder if Jesus truly multiplied the loaves, or if the miracle was the sharing of goods already present with all gathered.

In the past we have been allured by the miracle of the loaves and fishes as an act out-of-the-ordinary and astonishing. These days as we face the cesspool of violence in local, national, and world news, I believe the greater miracle would be to trust God enough to share our goods, fullness, littleness, or even our weakness with our sisters and brothers. Then maybe we, too, will marvel, remembering "we belong to each other," in the words of St. Mother Teresa.

Today is the feast of Corpus Christi, a celebration of Jesus' presence in the Eucharist. The Church professes our reception of the Eucharist to be the fullness of Jesus' life broken and shared with each one of us. Dorothy Day wrote: "Christ is bread on our altars because bread is the staple of the world, the simplest thing in the world, something of which we eat and never get tired...if you sat and thought forever and ever, you could not think of any way for Christ to remain with us which would bring us closer to him." Why? Day states in another piece "the answer is very simple. It was because [God] loved us and wished to be with us."

The Body & Blood of Christ

When Jesus went back to Heaven He didn't want to leave us all alone, so He gave Himself to us in the Holy Eucharist. First, He gave himself to the Apostles at the Last Supper, and today He gives Himself to us in Holy Communion.

Normally when we eat something it gets absorbed into our body. But receiving Jesus in Holy Communion does something different. It makes us more into Jesus' Body! It brings our soul closer to God and closer to all the other people in the Church. That's what "Communion" means.

When we go to Communion in a state of grace we can get so much more grace from God. Our small (venial) sins can be taken away and we can get more strength to do His will. In fact, the time that your prayers are the most powerful is right after you receive Holy Communion, when Jesus is right inside you. He is your closest friend and only wants what is good for you. When you go to Communion, remember Who you just received and don't forget to thank Him for coming to you!

What a MONUMENTAL Week we had last week hosting VBS! A big thank you to all of our parent and teen volunteers and to every family who participated. Thanks to you we collected more than 2,500 items for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry.

A huge thank you to the Faith Formation Team for all of their hard work: Elizabeth Hansen, Monica Schroll, Taylor Weister, Johnny Murray, Mandy Busch, & Erin Keller
