06 NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Halfway through summer, we should all take a few moments to reflect upon the meaning of this special God-given season and thank Him for it. Summer often acts like a Sabbath for the year. God created the world in six days, and rested on the seventh. Likewise, students and people in the work force work diligently through the year, and summertime provides a period of rest and refreshment after long hours of labor. Although work continues through the summer, many use this season to take a much-needed vacation with family and friends.

Our Holy Father emphasizes the need for vacations and renewal. Several summers ago he shared these observations. "I invite everyone to make these days of well-deserved summer rest a time of inner enrichment and worthwhile family relaxation" (Angelus Message, July 16, 2000). "Vacations, holidays, must be wisely used in order to benefit the individual and family through contact with nature, tranquillity, the opportunity to foster greater family harmony, good reading and healthy recreational activities; above all, through the possibility of spending more time in prayer, in contemplation and in listening to God" (Angelus Message, July 23, 2001).

CATHOLIC Q&A CORNER

Question:

What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Answer:

Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others? ©LPi

DO NOT TURN FROM YOUR NEIGHBOR

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Mon., July 18th-Fri., July 22nd – Totus Tuus 9am-2:30pm

Sat., August 20th – 8th Grade Middle School Formation Alive in the Spirit Retreat

In today's Gospel reading we learn that the greatest commandment is to love God with all our heart and soul and strength, and to love our neighbor as ourselves.

The most important thing you do in your life is loving God. If you really love God then you will do what is right and love other people as well. The Samaritan in the story loved God even though he didn't worship Him in the proper way like the Jews did. But because he loved God he wanted to please Him by being kind to his enemy.

If you don't love God then you will not be able to make good decisions about other things either. You can't even love other people properly if you don't love God the most. The priest and the Levite in the parable probably cared more about themselves than about God. That is why when they saw their own countryman injured and lying by the roadside they just walked past.

Is God the most important person in your life? Talk to Him everyday and you will grow to love Him. You can be a good neighbour to everyone by being a good friend of God.

Family life is filled with the ordinary; raising children, day-to-day routines and tasks. But in all of its ordinariness, God allows us time to discover the extraordinary ways our Catholic faith gives meaning and purpose to our everyday lives.

Join us for Family Faith Formation 2022-2023. Sessions will be held the first three Wednesdays of the month at 4:30 & 6:30pm for 60-minutes. Sessions begin on Wednesday, September 7th and run through May. A detailed list of program offerings is below. To register visit: <https://www.stpatsekhorn.org/family-faith-formation.html>
