2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. - Mk 9:7-8

Se formó entonces una nube, que los cubrió con su sombra; y de esta nube salió una voz que decía: "Este es mi Hijo amado; escúchenlo". En ese momento miraron alrededor y no vieron a nadie sino a Jesús, que estaba solo con ellos. - Mc 9, 7-8

Gerard House

The K of C are doing the Gerard House fundraiser online this year. Last year, they collected over $600 in supplies and $200 in gift cards. You can make checks out to Gerard House or K of C. They will use their checks to buy gift cards and diapers. Al Molina can also pick supplies up. Just contact him at almol1969@yahoo.com. Or you can bring donations to 521 S. Santa Fe 67216. Our fundraiser will go throughout March. If anyone would like to donate towards new ultra sound machines, our council is sending $500 through the State Knights program that purchase them for health clinics. Our current state fund is low because of the virus. The cost of one machine is $28,000, and there is a need for them in Wichita, Pittsburg, Osborne, and other cities. You can make a check out to the Knights of Columbus with a notation of ultra sound machines on the check. 100% of money raised will go towards these machines. We always need men to join the Knights to make sure that we continue helping.

Father's Corner

I recently learned that March is Women's History Month. Therefore, this month we are invited to look back at history and celebrate the vital role women have played in American history. Unfortunately, this celebration is often hijacked by a "feminist" movement that does more harm than good for women in our day. As Catholics, we are called to promote a feminism which upholds the equal dignity of the sexes while also defending the unique gifts of women, the true "feminine genius", as St. John Paul II said. Above all, a true feminism must embrace maternity. Therefore, any "feminism" that either belittles men in general in the process of celebrating women or rejects fertility and motherhood (such as the pro-abortion and pro-birth control movements), is not true to its name.

We would do well to look to a Catholic saint who devoted much of her life to discovering and writing about the feminine genius. St. Edith Stein wrote that "the strength of woman lies in the emotional life." Most do not equate feeling emotional with feeling strong, but St. Edith Stein explains how the emotional life instills in women the desire to love, "a yearning to be raised above a narrow, day-to-day existence into a realm of higher being...and furthers the desire for perfection in others." This desire to love comes from women's innate maternal instinct. An instinct that drives them to protect and nurture. And if you have ever seen a mom go into "mama bear mode", you know there is nothing weak about that.

Above all, may we let Mary be our guide in forming us to promote a true feminism, which allows women to share their greatest gift with the world: maternity, in whatever form that takes.

We have children's tithing envelopes by the East entrance to the Church. Feel free to take as many as you need, let your child start living the Stewardship of treasure.

Tenemos sobres de diezmo para niños en la entrada Este de la Iglesia. Tomen los que gusten y dejen que sus hijos vivan mas de cerca el Stewardship del Tesoro.

Stewardship Reflections

The Transfiguration was surely an incredible thing to witness! It is said that seeing is believing, and Peter, James, and John were given a heaping dose of belief on that mountaintop! Of course, these three disciples of Jesus already had great faith in who He was. So why did Jesus invite them up there? What was to be gained by God's revealing Himself to men who already believed? While the word "witness" does mean to see an event take place, it also means to profess or give evidence about an event. Jesus gave these disciples a story to tell...a story that would convert hearts and help others believe. Jesus gives ALL of His disciples - including you and I - stories to tell. While we may not have the mountaintop experience Peter, James, and John had, we are all given experiences that, when shared with others, can help them believe. Take some time during Lent to familiarize yourself with your story! How is God asking you to bear witness to others? How will you use your story to evangelize?

La Transfiguración ciertamente fue una cosa extraordinaria para los que fueron testigos. Bien se dice que ver para creer y a Pedro, Juan y Andrés se les administró una buena dosis de creencia arriba de aquel cerro. Claro esta, que estos tres discípulos de Jesús ya tenían una gran fe en quien era Él. Entonces, porque Jesús los invitó a la cima de aquella montaña? Que era lo que iban a ganar si Dios se les Revelaba a Si mismo a los hombres ya creyentes? Mientras que la palabra "testigo" quiere decir ver un evento sucediendo, también quiere dar fe y evidencia de tal evento. Jesús le dio a estos discípulos una historia para contar; una historia que convertiría corazones y ayudaría a otros a creer. Jesús les da a TODOS Sus discípulos, incluidos tu y yo, historias que contar. Aun cuando no hayamos tenido la experiencia en la cima de aquel cerro como Pedro, Juan y Andrés la tuvieron, a todos se nos da la experiencia que cuando la compartimos con otros, puede ayudarles a creer. Tomen un tiempo durante la Cuaresma para familiarizarse con su historia! Como es que Dios te esta pidiendo ser testigo para otros? Como es que vas a usar tu historia para evangelizar?

Recientemente supe que marzo es el mes de la historia de la mujer. Por lo tanto, este mes se nos invita a mirar hacia atrás en la historia y celebrar el papel vital que han desempeñado las mujeres en la historia de Estados Unidos. Desafortunadamente, esta celebración a menudo es secuestrada por un movimiento "feminista" que hace más daño que bien a las mujeres de nuestros días. Como católicos, estamos llamados a promover un feminismo que defienda la igual dignidad de los sexos y al mismo tiempo defienda los dones únicos de la mujer, el verdadero "genio femenino", como dijo San Juan Pablo II. Por encima de todo, un verdadero feminismo debe abrazar la maternidad. Por lo tanto, cualquier "feminismo" que menosprecie a los hombres en general en el proceso de celebrar a las mujeres o que rechace la fertilidad y la maternidad (como los movimientos pro-aborto y pro-control de la natalidad), no es fiel a su nombre.

Haríamos bien en buscar a una santa católica que dedicó gran parte de su vida a descubrir y escribir sobre el genio femenino. St. Edith Stein escribió que "la fuerza de la mujer radica en la vida emocional". La mayoría no equipara sentirse emocional con sentirse fuerte, pero St. Edith Stein explica cómo la vida emocional inculca en las mujeres el deseo de amar, "un anhelo de elevarse por encima de una existencia estrecha y cotidiana a un reino de ser superior ... y fomenta el deseo de perfección en los demás". Este deseo de amar proviene del instinto materno innato de la mujer. Un instinto que los impulsa a proteger y cuidar. Y no hay nada débil en eso.

Sobre todo, dejemos que María sea nuestra guía para formarnos para promover un verdadero feminismo, que permita a las mujeres compartir su mayor regalo con el mundo: la maternidad, en cualquier forma que adopte.
