The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Salesian Sunday Reflection

*Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 18, 2021*

Today's readings remind us that our God is a God of compassion. St. Francis de Sales frequently stresses God's loving care for us especially in adversity:

Our God is the God of the human heart. When our heart is in danger God alone can save and protect it. Just as God is the maker of all things, so also God takes care of all things, and sustains and embraces the whole of creation. Consequently, God wishes to make all things good and beautiful. Especially then, let us believe that God watches over our affairs, even in adversity. We do not always know the reason for our trials, but we must admit that in our own affairs, we are sometimes the source of our afflictions.

While we must be careful and attentive to matters that God has committed to our care, we must not be anxious, uneasy or rash about them. Worry disturbs reason and good judgment and prevents us from doing well the very things we are worried about. Gentle rains make open fields fruitful in grain, but floods ruin fields and meadows.

Thus, undertake all your affairs with a calm mind and do them in order one after the other. If you try to do them all at once or without order, your spirit will be so overcharged and depressed that it will likely sink under the burden without achieving anything. In all your affairs strive quietly to cooperate with God's plan for you.

God gives us a rich abundance of means proper for our salvation. By a wondrous infusion of God's grace into our hearts, the Spirit makes our works become God's work. Our good works like a little grain of mustard seed have vigor and virtue to produce a great good because they proceed from the Spirit of Jesus. You may be sure that if you have firm trust in God's compassionate love and care for you, the success that comes to your work will always be that which is most useful for you and the believing community.

(Adapted from St. Francis de Sales, Treatise on the Love of God, Introduction to a Devout Life).

The Knights of Columbus, Council #6702 representing the five cluster parishes are proud to announce that the family of the quarter, chosen by a vote of our members, is Douglas and Judy Becker of St. Ann's parish in Cornucopia. This enthusiastic couple contributes a host of activities including building maintenance, lawn care, the ongoing painting of the exterior of the church, leading the singing during Mass, preparing the coffee for the gathering after Mass and many others. They are truly an essential part of the parish enabling it to function as a parish community. We are also pleased to learn that Doug is a brother Knight, a member of another Council. Please help us offer our congratulations to Douglas and Judy.

Confessions

Fr. Joseph is available from 3:00 pm to 3:30 pm on Saturdays at Holy Family or by appointment at any of our cluster parishes.

Mass Stipend Announcement

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. In our parish offices, anyone may request a Mass intention by calling the parish office at St. Louis 715-373-2676 or Holy Family 715-779-3316. While it is customary for the intention to be on behalf of someone deceased, it is also customary to offer a Mass for a living person who is facing a challenge, for a wedding anniversary or other life celebration, or simply "In Thanksgiving" for some blessing received. When a Mass intention is made, it is often accompanied by offering a stipend. At all parishes in the Diocese of Superior, that stipend is $10. Canon 946 of the Code of Canon Law notes that when members of the faithful offer a Mass stipend they are contributing to the good of the Church, for they are sharing in the Church's concern for the support of her ministers. But the Mass stipend is not only about the priest. From the perspective of the faithful, by offering to help with the priest's essential support, the one offering the stipend also enters into the Sacrifice of the Mass in a sacrificial way. This has been found to be spiritually meaningful for Catholics all around the world.

Diocese of Superior Announcement

The Catholic Church is working diligently to prevent sexual abuse by parish employees, volunteers, deacons, and priests. If you have been sexually abused by someone associated with the Church and would like to report or discuss the experience, we urge you to contact: Kathy Drinkwine 715-718-1110.

The Diocese of Superior welcomes your call and understands how difficult it may be to reach out in this situation. The phone number provided is confidential and dedicated solely to these calls. Know that your call will be treated with respect, dignity, and compassion. The Diocese of Superior is bound by civil and canon law to report sexual abuse of a minor to civil authorities. Anyone who believes that they have been sexually abused is strongly encouraged to report as well.

CONDOLENCES

The members of St. Louis parish offer our deepest condolences to the families and friends of Donald and Barbara Vizanko, and Scott and Frances Smith, who were buried in the Calvary Cemetery in Washburn on Saturday, July 10th. As they laid their loved ones to rest, we pray that they find hope, comfort, and peace in the shelter of God's love and grace.
