"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A reflection for the seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bishop Kevin Rhoades

Saint Augustine taught that the New Testament is hidden in the Old Testament and the Old is made manifest in the New. We see this in John, chapter 6. This Sunday's first reading from the second book of Kings, like this Sunday's gospel, describes a hungry crowd—someone bringing forth barley loaves and another objecting that the bread is too little for the large crowd. In both accounts, the people were able to eat their fill. There was a multiplication of the loaves and there was bread left over.

The Old Testament reading features Elisha as the prophet who performs the miracle. In the New Testament, it is Jesus. There are several other miracles performed by Elisha that are also akin to the later miracles of Jesus. Elisha the prophet prefigures Jesus. The New Testament is hidden in the Old and the Old is made manifest in the New.

The hungry crowds in both readings are fed. Their physical hunger is satisfied. But the New Testament account of the miracle is followed by the great discourse of Jesus that we will hear over the next four weeks, in which Jesus identifies himself as the Bread of Life. He is greater than Elisha the prophet and miracle-worker. In fact, as we continue reading chapter six of John's gospel, Jesus reveals himself as greater even than Moses, the one through whom God fed the people with manna in the desert during the Exodus. Jesus will say words that Elisha and Moses would never dare to say: "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst" (John 6:35).

In the gospel miracle, scripture scholars have identified a Eucharistic meaning in the multiplication of the loaves and fish. In the four gospel accounts of this miracle, we find the same verbs used describing Jesus' action at the miracle as are used in the account of his institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper: "Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them" (John 6:11). The early Christians definitely recognized the connection between the multiplication of the loaves and the Eucharist. In second-century catacombs, we find artistic representations of the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish to symbolize the Eucharist.

Many people in the world today are hungry for material food. All of us hunger for truth, justice, love, peace, and beauty. In a word, we are hungry for God. Saint Augustine once exclaimed: "We must hunger for God!" Jesus, the Bread of Life, satisfies this hunger. His word satisfies our hunger for truth and illumines the path of life for us. His grace, the life-giving power we receive in the sacraments, especially in the Holy Eucharist, nourishes us on our earthly pilgrimage.

Every time we say the Our Father, we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread." Jesus is our daily bread. He is the Bread of Life. May the Lord Jesus multiply his bread for us and for all who are hungry in the world today!

This enthusiastic couple contributes a host of activities including building maintenance, lawn care, the ongoing painting of the exterior of the church, leading the singing during Mass, preparing the coffee for the gathering after Mass and many others. They are truly an essential part of the parish enabling it to function as a parish community. We are also pleased to learn that Doug is a brother Knight, a member of another Council. Please help us offer our congratulations to Douglas and Judy.

CONDOLENCES

The members of St. Louis parish offer our deepest condolences to the families and friends of Isabelle Moe who was laid to rest in the Calvary Cemetery in Washburn on Saturday, July 24th. May God grant them the peace and comfort of knowing that she lives on in joyful glory with Him.

Mass Stipend Announcement

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. In our parish offices, anyone may request a Mass intention by calling the parish office at St. Louis 715-373-2676 or Holy Family 715-779-3316. While it is customary for the intention to be on behalf of someone deceased, it is also customary to offer a Mass for a living person who is facing a challenge, for a wedding anniversary or other life celebration, or simply "In Thanksgiving" for some blessing received. When a Mass intention is made, it is often accompanied by offering a stipend. At all parishes in the Diocese of Superior, that stipend is $10. Canon 946 of the Code of Canon Law notes that when members of the faithful offer a Mass stipend they are contributing to the good of the Church, for they are sharing in the Church's concern for the support of her ministers. But the Mass stipend is not only about the priest. From the perspective of the faithful, by offering to help with the priest's essential support, the one offering the stipend also enters into the Sacrifice of the Mass in a sacrificial way. This has been found to be spiritually meaningful for Catholics all around the world.

Diocese of Superior Announcement

The Catholic Church is working diligently to prevent sexual abuse by parish employees, volunteers, deacons, and priests. If you have been sexually abused by someone associated with the Church and would like to report or discuss the experience, we urge you to contact: Kathy Drinkwine 715-718-1110.

The Diocese of Superior welcomes your call and understands how difficult it may be to reach out in this situation. The phone number provided is confidential and dedicated solely to these calls. Know that your call will be treated with respect, dignity, and compassion. The Diocese of Superior is bound by civil and canon law to report sexual abuse of a minor to civil authorities. Anyone who believes that they have been sexually abused is strongly encouraged to report as well.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Catholic Community of the Bayfield Cluster wishes to congratulate the St. Louis Knights of Columbus Council #6702 as they celebrate their 46th anniversary. Charter member Charles Guski was the first Grand Knight. The Knights have graciously donated to a multitude of important causes on behalf of our faith community in the form of charitable contributions, time, and manpower, and the members of the cluster offer them our sincerest gratitude. Thank you for your faithful witness to Christ through charity!

This Sunday, July 25, we remember our former pastor Fr. Kevin Gordon. Fr. Kevin died March 11, 2021. A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 2:30 p.m. outside St. Francis Church in Red Cliff. A feast will follow next door at Legendary Waters Event Center. Fr. Kevin served our cluster from May 2012-November 2018. He frequently used this prayer at funerals to close the Prayer of the Faithful. We pray this for him now.

Lord, may you support us all day long, till the shadows lengthen and evening falls, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done; then in your mercy, Lord, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at last. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
