The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A reflection for the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Paul E. Jarzembowski reflects on the readings for August 8, 2021.

The digital landscape today is fraught with uncertainty, infighting, and divisiveness. However, like a moth to a flame, I cannot stop myself from regularly opening my Twitter app (as well as my other social media accounts) and observing the drama threaded out before me.

I watch as people tear one another down with reckless abandon, lobbing clever quips and biting comebacks across the safe distance and anonymity provided by digital spaces. What makes it even sadder is that the individuals engaged in these scuffles have so much in common with one another. They often share a similar love for country, faith, and mutual interests; yet online, they appear as polar opposites or bitter enemies.

“This is enough, O Lord!” I shout into the void, echoing Elijah in this Sunday’s first reading (1 Kings 19:4). And yet it continues, day after day, hour after hour, minute after minute.

This frustration comes to mind when Jesus is confronted by his fellow Galileans in John 6:41–51. After having fed them with a multitude of loaves and fish in John 6:1–15 and after sharing the news of his generous gift of self as the Bread of Life in John 6:24–35, the crowds start to murmur about Jesus, akin to the start of a negative thread unrolling on Twitter.

They begin by questioning his credentials and family heritage, putting doubt in others’ minds about the veracity of Jesus’ words and actions. The text notes that the crowds talk about him behind his back, in a seemingly anonymous space without confronting him face to face.

Jesus calls them out. He stops the divisiveness in its tracks and responds by invoking their shared cultural heritage—“Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert” (John 6:49)—to remind them what unites them is more important than what divides them. He then reiterates the compassionate message of the Bread of Life that his mission is to give his life and love to the world, even to those who would beat him down.

In this way, Jesus gives us a model for our divisive and divided world. He asks us to step out of anonymity, remember our shared story, and proceed with selfless compassion for one another.

St. Paul echoes this wisdom, saying that “all bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice” (Eph. 4:31). He then goes on to say what should replace these elements: “...be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ” (Eph. 4:32).

St. Paul’s summary should be our mantra, too, when we next open our mobile apps or are tempted to engage online. This simple yet profound message of boundless and selfless love, modeling the Lord’s example in the gospel, is truly enough, O Lord, to counter all that assails us today.

The Knights of Columbus, Council #6702 representing the five cluster parishes are proud to announce that the family of the quarter, chosen by a vote of our members, is Douglas and Judy Becker of St. Ann's parish in Cornucopia. This enthusiastic couple contributes a host of activities including building maintenance, lawn care, the ongoing painting of the exterior of the church, leading the singing during Mass, preparing the coffee for the gathering after Mass and many others. They are truly an essential part of the parish enabling it to function as a parish community. We are also pleased to learn that Doug is a brother Knight, a member of another Council. Please help us offer our congratulations to Douglas and Judy.

Confessions

Fr. Joseph is available from 3:00 pm to 3:30 pm on Saturdays at Holy Family or by appointment at any of our cluster parishes.

Thank you!

Mass Stipend Announcement

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. In our parish offices, anyone may request a Mass intention by calling the parish office at St. Louis 715-373-2676 or Holy Family 715-779-3316. While it is customary for the intention to be on behalf of someone deceased, it is also customary to offer a Mass for a living person who is facing a challenge, for a wedding anniversary or other life celebration, or simply "In Thanksgiving" for some blessing received. When a Mass intention is made, it is often accompanied by offering a stipend. At all parishes in the Diocese of Superior, that stipend is $10. Canon 946 of the Code of Canon Law notes that when members of the faithful offer a Mass stipend they are contributing to the good of the Church, for they are sharing in the Church's concern for the support of her ministers. But the Mass stipend is not only about the priest. From the perspective of the faithful, by offering to help with the priest's essential support, the one offering the stipend also enters into the Sacrifice of the Mass in a sacrificial way. This has been found to be spiritually meaningful for Catholics all around the world. Please indicate when requesting a Mass if the person is deceased or for the health and welfare also please let us know who is requesting the intention in case we may need to change the date so we can contact you.
