REFLECTION FROM FR. JIM

Peter and the disciples have seen Jesus, risen from the dead. But they still go fishing. And they keep fishing even though they are not catching anything. How easy it is to go back to our old way of life. We go back to what is familiar. Jesus will not leave them alone. Jesus will not leave Peter alone. When Peter recognizes Jesus he jumps out of the boat and swims to the shore. Every day we must go back to the one who calls us. We must go back to Jesus. Then Peter hauls in the net filled with 153 fish. Peter is with Jesus and then he has the strength to bring in the fish. If we draw close to Jesus, then we will be able to live our vocation.

The Matter of Life Documentary

We stand at a critical point in history where the question of abortion is being debated in the highest courts. It is time to understand the pro-life case and form beliefs on more than what is said in the media. Watch an exclusive sneak peek of the award-winning documentary The Matter of Life. Please join us in supporting this event!

Here is the sneak peek link that can be embedded in the social media image:

<https://www.revelationmedia.com/watchthematteroflife/>

REFLEXION DEL PADRE JIM

Pedro y los discípulos han visto a Jesús resucitado de entre los muertos. Pero todavía van a pescar. Y siguen pescando, aunque no pescan nada. Qué fácil es volver a nuestra antigua forma de vida. Volvemos a lo que es familiar. Jesús no los dejará solos. Jesús no dejará solo a Pedro. Cuando Pedro reconoce a Jesús, salta de la barca y nada hasta la orilla. Todos los días debemos volver a quien nos llama. Debemos volver a Jesús. Entonces Pedro arrastro la red repleta de pescados grandes, eran 153 peces. Pedro está con Jesús y entonces tiene la fuerza para traer el pez. Si nos acercamos a Jesús entonces podremos vivir nuestra vocación.
