REFLECTION FROM FR. HAYDEN

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”

I had one of the school kids ask me once, “How do you know when Jesus is speaking to you in prayer?” To be honest, this is a difficult question to answer. We don’t, normally, hear the voice of Jesus audibly. And yet, Jesus tells us today that His sheep, those who belong to Him, somehow hear his voice. Ultimately, the best answer I could come up with to this child’s question is that it takes practice.

To hear the voice of Jesus demands silence and listening every day. Some days, this listening will produce little to nothing. It might feel like a waste of time. But the more we practice, the more capable we are of hearing the whisper of Jesus’ voice, even in the midst of the noise and busyness of life. Whether it’s hearing Jesus speak to us through the Scriptures we read or through reflection on our daily experience, if we practice this silent listening, then we can hear Jesus speaking to us as He alone can speak. When we hear His voice, we are naturally drawn to follow Him, who promises to give us eternal life.

REFLEXION DEL PADRE HAYDEN

“Mis ovejas escuchen mi voz; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen”.

Uno de los niños de la escuela me preguntó una vez: “¿Cómo sabes cuándo Jesús te está hablando en oración?” Para ser honesto, esta es una pregunta difícil de responder. Normalmente, no escuchamos la voz de Jesús audiblemente. Y sin embargo, Jesús nos dice hoy que Sus ovejas, aquellos que le pertenecen, de alguna manera escuchan su voz. En última instancia, la mejor respuesta que se me ocurrió a la pregunta de este niño es que se necesita práctica.

Escuchar la voz de Jesús exige silencio y escucha todos los días. Algunos días, esta escucha producirá poco o nada. Puede parecer una pérdida de tiempo. Pero cuanto más practicamos, más capaces somos de escuchar el susurro de la voz de Jesús, incluso en medio del ruido y el ajetreo de la vida. Ya sea escuchando a Jesús hablarnos a través de las Escrituras que leemos o a través de la reflexión sobre nuestra experiencia diaria, si practicamos esta escucha silenciosa, entonces podemos escuchar a Jesús hablándonos como solo Él puede hablar. Cuando escuchamos Su voz, naturalmente nos sentimos atraídos a seguirlo, quien promete darnos vida eterna.
