Your gifts support missionaries serving in more than 1,100 mission dioceses, each providing service and spiritual comfort for the poorest and most vulnerable with the Sacraments and offers of the Lord’s hope and peace.

Thank you for your gifts to God and Church!

Our bulletin cover today features a photo of our Carmelite Prior General, Fr. Fernando Millan, looking out of the stagecoach during the Carmel 150 re-enactment on October 23, 2014.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We welcome with great fraternal joy Carmelite Fathers Fernando Millan and Raul Maravi to the parish this weekend! Father Fernando, a native of Spain, has been the Prior General of the Carmelite Order since 2007. Father Raul, a native of Peru, is the General Councilor for the Carmelites living in North and South America. Both currently reside in Rome.

Father Fernando aims to visit every Carmelite community in the world at least once during his six year term of office. During that period of time, he visits Carmelite communities in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, and North and South America. When traveling to the Americas, Fr. Raul normally accompanies him. Both were with us here in Leavenworth in October 2014 when we celebrated the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the Carmelites in the United States.

The photo of Fr. Fernando, which is on the front of today's bulletin, was taken four years ago this month, when we had a stagecoach re-enactment of the October 7, 1864 arrival of the German Carmelite Fathers Cyril Knoll and Xavier Huber in Leavenworth. Leaving 19th century transportation behind, Fathers Fernando and Raul will be arriving by jet at KCI this Saturday, October 13, coming to the parish for the weekend, and then visiting our Carmelite foundation in Scipio, KS this Monday.

Certainly one of the most famous Priors General in the history of the Carmelite Order was St. Simon Stock, who received the Scapular vision of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in 1251 in Aylesford, England. His image is in the stained glass window at St. Joseph Church which has been removed for restoration.

A 20th century Carmelite Prior General with a Kansas connection was Fr. Pius Mayer, O.Carm., a German immigrant ordained to the priesthood in frontier Kansas. He was pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Kickapoo in 1873 when he baptized my grandfather, Isaac McEvoy. He became the first Prior Provincial of our American Carmelite Province in 1890 and later became the Carmelite Prior General in Rome in 1903.

More recent Priors General have been Fr. Kilian Healy, a Carmelite of our Province from Massachusetts, who served from 1959-1971; Fr. Falco Thuis, a Dutch Carmelite, who served from 1971-1983, and was a great friend of the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth; Fr. John Malley, another Massachusetts native, who served from 1983-1995; and Fr. Joseph Chalmers, a native of Scotland, and a member of the British Province who was Prior General from 1995-2007. Fr. Fernando will be completing his 12th and final year as Prior General in 2019, when a new Prior General will be elected at the General Chapter to be held in Rome next September.

Please give Fathers Fernando and Raul a warm Kansas welcome!

God bless you always! Fr. David
