From the Pastors

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

On this Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. I invite you to reflect on the spiritual significance of the celebration of this feast for our life. The film Gandhi is a three-hour epic, depicting the life of Mahatma Gandhi in India. In order to lead the oppressed people of India to freedom from British rule, Gandhi adopted non-violent means such as fasting from food, vigils of prayer, peaceful marches, protests and civil disobedience. One of the reasons why Gandhi put on a loincloth and fasted from food, almost to the point of death, was to show solidarity with the Indian people, identifying with them in their physical sufferings. This finally brought independence to India. Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., too, identified with his enslaved and maltreated people and became the voice of the voiceless in the name of God. Jesus' baptism was his identification with God's chosen people who became aware of their sinful lives and need for God's forgiveness. The baptism of Jesus reminds us of our identity and mission. It reminds us of who we are. The words of St. Basil the Great bring clarity to our identity and mission.

"Today let us do honor to Christ's baptism and celebrate this feast in holiness. Be cleansed entirely and continue to be cleansed. Nothing gives such pleasure to God as the conversion and salvation of men, for whom his every word and every revelation exist. He wants you to become a living force for all mankind, lights shining in the world. You are to be radiant lights as you stand beside Christ, the great light, bathed in the glory of him who is the light of heaven. You are to enjoy more and more the pure and dazzling light of the Trinity, as now you have received – though not in its fullness – a ray of its splendor, proceeding from the one God, in Christ Jesus our Lord, to whom be the glory and power for ever and ever. Amen."

The annual Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children falls on Saturday, January 22nd this year. Sacred Heart Parish plans to observe this day with Holy Mass at 9:00 am and Eucharistic Adoration and Rosary right after the Mass until noon.

The Eucharistic Adoration will conclude with Divine Mercy Chaplet prayed at 11:30 am. Let us observe this day as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. I invite all to join with family and children for this day of prayer.

United in prayer,

Fr. Joshy Mathew, MSFS

Next week our parish will take up a collection to support the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. Although the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care. The Solidarity Fund supports pastoral projects to build the capacity of the church and foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension. EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist – a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power – a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ – and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament – he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

Sacred Heart Parish and School has a close partnership with North Country Food Bank Life and Justice Committee has set up opportunities for the Parishioners to volunteer their time at North Country. Our first opportunity will be on January 18th and there are 8 open spots. There needs to be a minimum of 12 people at each volunteer day or the event will need to cancel. This volunteer opportunity is a great event for all ages over the age of 8. It is not hard packing boxes. Each volunteer stands by a couple of food items. As the box (which is on a manual conveyer belt) comes to you; you place your items into the box and then push the box to the next person. The food boxes are giving to local and neighboring families. This is a great corporal work of mercy.

Sacred Heart School News

"The Word became flesh and made his dwelling place among us. It is Christ who enlightens our hearts and our homes with his love. May all who enter this classroom find Christ's light and love."

During morning prayer on Monday, Sacred Heart 7-12th grade students marked their faith family doors all around the school with the Epiphany door symbols. The Epiphany door blessing includes symbols for all three kings, plus the numbers from the current year. The three letters are the first initial of each of the three kings (Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar) but the C, M, B also stands for the Latin blessing Christus Mansionem Benedicat which means "May Christ Bless this House."
