Sharing God's Gifts

The Letter to the Ephesians reminds us that Christ is creating a new world order: one that brings about relationships based on love, peace, reconciliation, hope and unity. Christ is said to have "abolished in his flesh the enmity," by His cross to have "slain the enmity," that is, the opposition between Jew and Gentile, creating in Himself "one new man, (so) making peace." As a Eucharistic community, we are stewards of Christ's new creation. How are we promoting peace and reconciliation? How are we showing love for our neighbors? What are we doing to encourage unity and understanding among those with whom we gather around the Lord's Table each week? May we all come to the Lord's Table to find love, peace, reconciliation, hope and unity.

SEXUAL ABUSE

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact the Victim Advocate at 816.392.0011 or victimadvocate@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released.

We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Frasier Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love.

The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.

Exploring St. Joseph through Art

In the 16th century, Christianity spread to the Western Hemisphere and this resulted in the birth of a new Roman Catholic artistic tradition based in Cusco, Peru, the Cusco School. Cusco was the first artistic center where European painting techniques were taught in the Americas. Jesuits introduced the fashionable art from Spain and Flanders and Andean artisans made it their own – bringing lush color, elaborate garments and rich adornment common to Incan art. We soon see the artist's work reflecting the greater understanding of the role of Saint Joseph in the Church. Mary is nowhere to be seen in this particular 17th century work; instead we see Saint Joseph as young doting father, relishing his paternal role. For the first time, he is regularly depicted not as a peripheral character or supportive reflection of Mary, but rather at the center of the work, with his own rich royal garb in keeping with the Christ child's regal status surrounded by regional flowers. St. Joseph was a figure with whom new Christian believers could relate and his devotion grew throughout Europe and the West as faithful fathers turned to him for intercession on behalf of their families and marriages. Increasingly, Joseph was also seen as the patron of a "good death" with the image of his peaceful passing with Christ and the Virgin Mary at his side.

Changes to COVID Procedures at Holy Family

FYI, the general dispensation for everyone from the obligation to participate in Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation was removed by Bishop Johnston on June 1. The CDC has issued a statement that if you are fully vaccinated, you do not need to wear a mask indoors. The ribbons will still be used on the pews on the sides of the church for those who feel more comfortable social distancing. We are now passing the collection baskets and we are now singing during Mass.

If you are not comfortable attending in person, you are welcome to join us for our 4:30 p.m. Saturday live streamed Mass online! You can find Mass at holyfamily.com any time after 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays.

Commit to One Hour of Prayer in Adoration

Do you desire a better prayer life? Why not commit one hour of your week for quiet, peaceful meditation with Jesus.

The next meeting of the book club will be on Tuesday, July 20, at 7 p.m., in room 202. They will be discussing The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane, by Lisa See.

For more information, please contact Vicky Draftz at vhadel2008@gmail.com.

Young Adult Gathering

Attention 18 - 25 age parishioners, you are invited to join the young adult community at Holy Family for a Young Adult Gathering on Sunday, July 25, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Journeying Forward Together: New Resource

Feeling alone? Losing a beloved spouse can be a difficult road to face. You are invited to come on Saturday, August 14, at 3:30 p.m., to share thoughts, struggles and challenges as we walk this path together. The group meets in room 202.

We will be using a new resource called "Bereavement Support Care Kit" which will be a useful tool for reflection and discussion each month. For additional information, please call Lisa Conaway at 816-832-8957.

Can you help operate the cameras during Mass at Holy Family?

As we move from recording Mass to livestreaming Mass on Saturday evenings, we are in need of volunteer camera operators to help out!

If you or someone you know would like to be trained to live stream the Mass on Saturdays at 4:30 p.m., please email Alec@holyfamily.com for more information.

Is God calling you to serve the Becoming Catholic Ministry?

Consider being a Sponsor!
(commitment through spring)

The sponsor is a co-traveler on this journey of faith who commits himself or herself to accompany a catechumen (unbaptized) or candidate (baptized Christian) along the way to reception of the sacraments. Sponsors are similar to faith journey companions but will likely attend formation sessions and special Rites and Masses. They will also provide support for a time after the reception of sacraments to help the new Catholic integrate into our parish community and life. The sponsor is a friend, witness and guide. Sponsors need to love the Catholic faith, but do not need to be experts.

Based on your mutual availability, you are also encouraged to spend regular one-on-one time with the person you sponsor, such as a coffee date or a meal out together, listening along their journey.

Angels

Question: I've heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer: As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God's image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess "I believe in the resurrection of the body." As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

Question of the Week –16th Sunday in Ordinary Time Come Away and Rest

Key Passage: The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." (Mark 6:30–31a)

Adult Question: What do you do to rest so that you can return to work refreshed?

Child Question: When will you take time to stop and pray this week?

Kits for Kids with Love INC

The Service Outreach Committee is partnering with Love INC to assist with providing hygiene items for the school-aged children. The demand for school supplies is met by many organizations. Love INC takes it a step further and provides hygiene kits, so these children can start the school year off feeling good about themselves!

Each child receives a nylon bag with shampoo/conditioner, soap, deodorant, toothpaste/toothbrush, brush or comb.

Love INC is asking for cash donations to put these bags together. 1 bag is $5! 5 bags for $25! 10 bags for $50! You get the idea. They are asking for cash versus items, as they are able to purchase the same name-brand items for everyone at a bulk rate.

Donations accepted throughout July and can be placed in the offertory. Please mark your checks "Kits for Kids." You can also bring your donation to the parish office or donate at hollyfamily.com.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?
