RECONCILIATION

Please contact Fr. Philip at the parish office to schedule (816-436-9200 ext. 307).

BAPTISM

Because of COVID-19, we are not offering an in-person Jordan Program class. Instead, we are having families complete an online course. For more information about the on-line Jordan Program, please call the parish office.

MARRIAGE

Couples intending to marry should contact the parish at least nine (9) months before the anticipated wedding. Contact Fr. Phil to schedule the preparation sessions.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK OR HOMEBOUND

Please notify the parish office when a member of your family is hospitalized or confined to home. Eucharistic Ministers are available to bring Holy Communion to homes on a regular basis and the hospital as scheduled by the patient.

HELPING HANDS PROGRAM

Should you or someone you know be in need of assistance with home repairs, a ride to a doctor's appointment, meals while you are recuperating or anything similar, Holy Family wants to help. Please contact Phyllis Font at 816-582-9507 or email at pfont1@yahoo.com to receive the help you need.

Are you a "handy person" and would be willing to help others with repairs? Contact Phyllis or Henry Font with your information and area of expertise.

Sharing God's Gifts

In the reading from the letter of St. James we are urged to be "doers" of the Gospel, not just listeners. Being a "steward" of God's Word is a matter of listening to the Good News, embracing the Good News and putting the Good News into action in our day-to-day lives. And whenever we are uncertain as to what decisions to make or actions to take as good stewards of the Gospel, St. James reminds us: We can never go wrong if we resist popular values that are not compatible with the Gospel, and we come to the aid of those who are burdened, distressed and poor. Are we able to stand on our own with our Gospel values and be there for those in need? How are we being Christ to one another?

SEXUAL ABUSE

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact the Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

St. Joseph for Kids: Child’s Prayer for Patience

Dear Lord,
Thank you for helping me grow.
Every day I grow.
I grow in size.
I grow in strength.
I grow in knowledge.
I grow in virtue.
I’m trying to make the virtue of patience a habit.
I try to wait with patience.
I try to be patient with others even when I am annoyed.
Others are patient with me when I make mistakes.
You are patient with me when I make mistakes.
Being patient is one way I can grow to be more like you, Jesus.
Help me to be more patient.
Thank you for all you have given me.
Thank you for patience.
Thank you for love.
Amen

Missionary Priest Visiting Holy Family

Fr. Deva Gudime, from the Diocese of Guddapah, India, will celebrate Mass at Holy Family the weekend of September 4/5.

The diocese is very active in the community and has pioneered various schools for the poorest of the poor. Special preference is given to girls in order to enhance education among women. Every year they issue special scholarships for the poor children who are frequenting job oriented courses and higher education.

The majority of the poor are deprived of basic amenities like drinking water, housing, sanitation and health. It is a big challenge to the Diocese to improve the living standard of the people. The diocese has always been a great assistance at the time of floods, fire, accidents and other natural calamities. Much of their charity goes towards the medical care of the poor.

The Diocese is fully depending upon the grace of your solidarity and support of the generous hearts. We appeal earnestly for your continued support and cooperation for the success of all their endeavors through your prayers and encouragement. Therefore we appeal to you to show your generosity.

The next meeting of the book club will be on Tuesday, September 21, at 7 p.m., in room 202. They will be discussing Little Fires Everywhere, by Celeste Ng.

For more information, please contact Vicky Draftz at vhadel2008@gmail.com.

Journeying Forward Together

Feeling alone? Losing a beloved spouse can be a difficult road to face. You are invited to come on Saturday, September 11, at 3:30 p.m., to share thoughts, struggles and challenges as we walk this path together. The group meets in room 202.

We will be using "Bereavement Support Care Kit" which will be a useful tool for reflection and discussion each month. For additional information, please call Lisa Conaway at 816-832-8957.

Save the Date - Fall Cleanup

Holy Family will be having our fall cleanup day on Saturday, October 16, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. There will be plenty of indoor and outdoor activities so we can spruce up our church and grounds. Join the team of dedicated volunteers to have some fun, meet new people and make a difference. Watch the bulletin for more information as the date gets closer.

For more information, please contact Maintenance Supervisor Dee Carver at 816-436-9200, ext. 305.

We have several new families who have joined the parish:

- Rebecca Brakeville
- James, Christy, Dorothy and James Cook
- Matt, Katie, Andrew and Chloe Grither
- Steve and Diane Smith
- Carol Ann Noble
- Tony, Jill, Tanner and Aubree Casto
- Andrew, Amy, Caroline, Olivia and Calvin Mark

It is great to have you as members of our family we call holy.

We also welcome Fallon Dae and Bodhi Roy, children of Andrew and Meghan Kudrna, who were reborn of water and the Holy Spirit as Children of God in Baptism.

Congratulations to the parents of Fallon and Bodhi as they take their first steps in their spiritual life in the church.

Precious Blood Center Has Reopened

The Precious Blood Renewal Center has resumed in-person programming. They have a full schedule of events, including:

Nature's Revelation: 'Every Common Bush Afire with God', A Day of Reflection on Creation and the Creative Process, Saturday, September 18, from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Mystic Chocolate for Body and Soul - A study group for women, Wednesdays, September 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29, 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Repairers of the Breach: Reconciling Division, Healing Community, Saturday, September 25, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For a full description of these programs or other offerings from the Center, visit pbrenewalcenter.org/events. The Center is located at 2120 St. Gaspar Way, Liberty, Mo. For more information, please call 816-415-3745.

Can you help operate the cameras during Mass at Holy Family?

As we move from recording Mass to livestreaming Mass on Saturday evenings, we are in need of volunteer camera operators to help out!

If you or someone you know would like to be trained to live stream the Mass on Saturdays at 4:30 p.m., please email Alec@holyfamily.com for more information.

Bishop Johnston's 4th Annual Golf Classic

On October 11, join in the fun supporting the Bright Futures Fund for the 4th Annual Golf Classic at the Blue Hills Country Club. There will also be online and live auctions. Tee off is noon, with lunch provided. Dinner with the live auction follows the tournament. Online bidding opens in September.

Sharing Your Faith

Question: My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer: There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

Question of the Week –Doers of the Word

Key Passage: Welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. (James 1:21–22)

Adult Question: Which words of Jesus provide the most inspiration for the Christian work that you do?

Child Question: How do you welcome the words of Jesus into your heart?

Join St. Catherine of Siena Women's Bible Study!

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Give it all Back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.
