Sharing God's Gifts

Alive in Christ! That's what we are. Among the many readings of Easter, Saint Paul reflects on this "newness of life" in his letter to the Romans. The Christian life is a resurrected life. It is new life, one of truth, inner joy and genuine fulfillment. God has transformed our lives for all eternity, and that transformation is what it means to be a Christian.

Do you know the resurrected life? Have you genuinely experienced it? Good stewards have; and in their commitment to the Lord, they know what it means to be alive in Christ. It is time to rejoice. He is risen! Alleluia! Rejoice in what the resurrected life means for you! Alleluia!

Sharing The Gospel - Easter Sunday

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing,

God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live.

Question of the Week – Made New by Christ

Key Passage: Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, as you really are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. (1 Cor. 5:7)

Adult Question: What change could the hope of the resurrection of Christ inspire you to make?

Child Question: What bad habit would you like to "clear out" during the hopeful time of this Easter season?

A Message from Fr. Phil

Welcome to Holy Family! What an Easter blessing to have you celebrate with us. Please know that all are welcome here to give praise and thanks to our Risen Lord! If you were unable to join us in person, we appreciate that you have found our online streaming as a source of nourishment in your faith journey.

The resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ gives our life meaning and direction. This is the opportunity to start over no matter the situation. The stone was rolled away not to allow Christ to come out, but to enable the disciples to go in. Let Christ draw you in! Open your heart this Easter Season. Spend time discerning your gifts, pray about His plan for you, listen to where He wants to lead you. Be present and give yourself the opportunity to be His vessel!

Hopefully, you enjoyed your experience today, ALLELUIA! Please reach out to Patty Rose at patty@holyfamily.com and let her know about your experience. I wish you and your family a blessed Easter Season.
