Sharing God's Gifts

In today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we hear it proclaimed that many "signs and wonders" were performed in public by Christ's followers, a demonstration that produced two results. First, the people of Jerusalem outside the Christian community were awed by what the disciples were performing. And in the midst of all this amazement, many were being converted.

Good stewards know of the evangelizing power emanating from their daily acts of love, compassion, kindness and generosity. They believe that if they stay focused on Christ each day, every act has the power to transform a broken world. What "signs and wonders" will we perform today? Call on the Holy Spirit to show you the acts of love, compassion, kindness and generosity needed around you.

Holy Week Thank You! SPECIAL THANKS / KUDOS / HOORAYS

To the many people who had a hand in preparing the Holy Week celebrations in any way:

From those who prepared hundreds of palm branches, or ironed dozens of yards of red fabric, or prepared plants and flowers. Also to those who served in the various other liturgical ministries, or polished green plant leaves! Thank you for helping to create beauty and inspiration for those who worship here at Holy Family!

To the many musicians, choir members and cantors who played/sang their hearts out! Christ is truly risen! We are an "Easter People."

"ALLELUIA" is indeed our song!

Thank You

Sharing The Gospel - Second Sunday of Easter

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!"

Adult Sacrament Preparation for those with Disabilities

Have you, or someone you know, missed one or more sacraments as a child due to lack of specialized preparation for someone with a disability? Have you been told that your child cannot receive a sacrament because they "can't understand it"? Well, that was wrong. Holy Family will be hosting Sacrament Preparation for adults (18 and over) with special needs starting on May 15 between the two Sunday morning Masses. In order to be prepared, we need to know you are coming and what your needs are. If you are interested in participating, learning more, or to register, please email christen@holyfamily.com or call Christen Cota at 816-436-9200. If non-verbal communication is needed, please use the same email above.

Autism Awareness Month Listening Session

In honor of Autism Awareness Month, Holy Family will host a brainstorming session for autistic people in the parish, asking what would make it easier to participate in parish events, sacraments, leadership and ministry. This brainstorming session will be held on Wednesday, April 27, at 7 p.m. in room 215. To learn more or to register for this event, please contact Christen Cota at christen@holyfamily.com.
