Sharing God's Gifts

Jesus said, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you'll find something." John 21:6

Living the Christian faith often leads to unexpected finds. It helps if we're open to these new gifts from God. How often do we feel we are being called or nudged to do something and we ignore it? May we learn to trust in our Lord and where he tries to lead us. Let us all walk with our eyes and our hearts open to His path, listening to what He asks of us. So many of us are looking for "something", wanting "something" ... are we looking on the right side of the boat? Come on, Holy Spirit!

"Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me." — Jn 21:18-19

The Risen Jesus: An Examination of Resurrection Narratives

During the Easter season we proclaim with great joy the resurrection story of Jesus. Each resurrection narrative links the Risen Jesus to the overall intent and purpose of that particular gospel. These four two-hour Zoom sessions examine the resurrection narratives of each of the four gospels. They will link each resurrection account to the gospel as a whole, and to their meaning and significance for us today. These sessions are an ideal way to celebrate the Easter Season and deepen our belief in the resurrection. Join them via Zoom as they reflect on these rich narratives which help us explore the deeper meaning of our baptismal call. Zoom sessions will be held Wednesdays, May 4, 11, 18 and 25 from 7 to 9 p.m. They will be repeated on Thursdays, May 5, 12, 19 and 26 from 10 a.m. to noon. All churches and faith traditions are welcome. The session will be facilitated via Zoom by Biagio Mazza, Pastoral Associate at St. Sabina Parish in Belton, MO. To register, email biagio@stsabinaparish.org or call 816-979-3153 with your name and time preference.

Sharing The Gospel - Third Sunday of Easter

Could it be that God's image has become so soiled and distorted that it is hard for us to see it? Our self-serving agendas have done a great job twisting God's image into what profits us. We want our agenda to be God's agenda and use prayer as the convincing leverage we need. Worse still, our success and egocentric agenda often erases God's image completely, replacing it with our own. St. Oscar Romero instructs us that the Son of Man "dies on the cross to cleanse God's image, which is soiled in today's humanity, a humanity so enslaved, so selfish, so sinful." Striving to preserve control of our destinies at all costs, we fail to see the risen suffering servant, the Christ, standing right beside us.

Jesus, who suffered and died on a cross and was raised from the dead, corrects our soiled image of God. He shows us God as God is, not who we want to make God to be. God is the God of the poor, the weak, and the marginalized. He is the God who tenderly caresses us when we are suffering and hurting, assuring us that all will be safe and well. He is the God of equity, peace, justice, and compassion who wants happiness for each of His children, desiring their wellbeing and success. God goes where men and women are afraid to go, sitting with the lost, the broken, and the sorrowing. St. Oscar Romero challenges us to illuminate with "Christ's light ... even the most hideous caverns of the human person: torture, jail, plunder, want, chronic illness. The oppressed must be saved." The resurrection calls us to be God's microphone, a messenger, and a prophet (St. Oscar Romero).

Using eyes that see beyond the limited constructs and desires of our world, we can see the true and real Jesus standing before us, calling us to transformation and change. Asking us more than once, "do you love me?" We are beckoned to give an answer. Answering in the affirmative, it is now our task to feed the sheep and the lambs who belong to God. In short, equipped with the power of the resurrection and a corrected image of God our task is to make things better, brighter, holier, more life-giving, and just for all of God's children. Considering our choices, our interactions, our philosophies, and aspirations, how can we do this?

Adult Sacrament Preparation for those with Disabilities

Have you, or someone you know, missed one or more sacraments as a child due to lack of specialized preparation for someone with a disability? Have you been told that your child cannot receive a sacrament because they "can't understand it"? Well, that was wrong. Holy Family will be hosting Sacrament Preparation for adults (18 and over) with special needs starting on May 15 between the two Sunday morning Masses. In order to be prepared, we need to know you are coming and what your needs are. If you are interested in participating, learning more, or to register, please email christen@holyfamily.com or call Christen Cota at 816-436-9200. If non-verbal communication is needed, please use the same email above.

Question of the Week – Feed My Sheep

Key Passage: When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." (John 21:15)

Adult Question: In what ways are you answering Jesus' command to Peter to "feed my sheep"?

Child Question: What do you do to take care of others as Jesus asked Peter to do?
