Sharing God's Gifts

In today's first reading we encounter the Holy Spirit who at Pentecost came rushing in over Jesus' followers like a powerful wind. It must have been a frightening experience for them. But their great acts of prophetic witness began when the Spirit drew them out of their "comfort zones." Jesus said the Holy Spirit, like the wind, blows where it will; into the lives of good stewards, empowering them to perform wondrous acts of healing, reconciliation and evangelization; encouraging them to proclaim the Gospel with boldness and confidence. All of that is a little beyond the comfort zone where most of us live our lives. This week, reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be calling you out of your personal comfort zone. Come On, Holy Spirit!

Ministry To The Sick - We Need Your Help!

Our brothers and sisters in Christ who are sick or homebound desperately long to receive the Eucharist. For them to receive Christ in the Eucharist, it is up to us, their holy family, to be willing to give a little of our time each month.

Holy Family Catholic Church has responsibilities to the sick and homebound, specifically the Catholics in North Kansas City Hospital, Benton House, and many people in their own homes. We have not been able to get this ministry up and running again since Covid, due to lack of parishioners willing to help. We NEED you!

PLEASE contact Christen Cota if you are willing to help or want to learn more about this special and important ministry, christen@holymfamily.com or 816-436-9200 ext. 304.

 We are aware that some parishioners already take the Eucharist to those in need each week. If you are currently doing so, please email christen@holymfamily.com. We want to keep an active list so we can be supportive of this great gift we are offering. Thank you!

Sharing The Gospel – Pentecost

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new.

Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

Question of the Week – Gifts for Service

Key Passage: Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord. (1 Cor. 12:4–5)

Adult Question: What gift of service have you received from the Holy Spirit and how well are you using it right now?

Child Question: What gift do you hope to receive from the Holy Spirit? How could you use it to serve others?

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." — Jn 20:21-23
