Sharing God's Gifts

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus inviting his disciples to be evangelizers. "The harvest is abundant," Jesus says. But those who are willing to invite others to a deeper relationship with the Lord are few. Good stewards who are willing to witness their Catholic faith to others know they are "like lambs among wolves." They are encouraged to be gentle, patient and loving, knowing they may face rejection and even fierce opposition. Jesus invites us to be better stewards of our faith, to give positive, courageous, joyful witness to others who have turned away from their relationship with him. Is there someone we should be reaching out to this week? Are you a witness to the Catholic faith by your actions and deeds? Let us be the gentle lamb to one another! Come On, Holy Spirit!

Ministry To The Sick - We Need Your Help!

Our brothers and sisters in Christ who are sick or homebound desperately long to receive the Eucharist. For them to receive Christ in the Eucharist, it is up to us, their holy family, to be willing to give a little of our time each month.

Holy Family Catholic Church has responsibilities to the sick and homebound, specifically the Catholics in North Kansas City Hospital, Benton House, and many people in their own homes. We have not been able to get this ministry up and running again since Covid, due to lack of parishioners willing to help. We NEED you!

PLEASE contact Christen Cota if you are willing to help or want to learn more about this special and important ministry, christen@holyfamily.com or 816-436-9200 ext. 304. ** We are aware that some parishioners already take the Eucharist to those in need each week. If you are currently doing so, please email christen@holyfamily.com. We want to keep an active list so we can be supportive of this great gift we are offering. Thank you!

Sharing The Gospel - Fourteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

Holy Family Men's Club Outing

Attention Holy Family Men's Club! The Holy Family Men's Club will be having their summer outing at the Royals vs Angels baseball game at Kauffman Stadium on Tuesday, July 26. Please RSVP with the number of tickets you need by Monday, July 18 to rob@holyfamily.com. Families are invited to tailgate prior to the game.

Question of the Week – Accepting the Christian Message

Key Passage: Jesus said to the disciples, "Whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.'" (Lk. 10:10–11)

Adult Question: Where do you see the message of Christian faith being rejected in the world today? What is your response to that?

Child Question: What can you do when you are generous with others, and they do not want what you give them?
