Sharing God's Gifts

Martha and Mary are the focus of this weekend's Gospel, which abounds with rich themes about hospitality, service, and finding the right balance between action and prayerful attention to the Lord. Christians who are good stewards of their faith life realize that if they are too busy to enjoy peaceful, private time with the Lord, then something is out of balance in their spiritual lives. If we make time for Mass, but then carry on with our busy schedules without prayer, meditation and reflection, we are missing out. If we find ourselves anxious and harried by life's routines, could it be a sign that something in our spiritual life needs some serious attention? Do you only pray when you need God? Is prayer present in your family life? Let God know how your day is going, share the good with the bad. Come On, Holy Spirit!

Ministry To The Sick - We Need Your Help!

Our brothers and sisters in Christ who are sick or homebound desperately long to receive the Eucharist. For them to receive Christ in the Eucharist, it is up to us, their holy family, to be willing to give a little of our time each month.

Holy Family Catholic Church has responsibilities to the sick and homebound, specifically the Catholics in North Kansas City Hospital, Benton House, and many people in their own homes. We have not been able to get this ministry up and running again since Covid, due to lack of parishioners willing to help. We NEED you!

PLEASE contact Christen Cota if you are willing to help or want to learn more about this special and important ministry, christen@holyfamily.com or 816-436-9200 ext. 304.  We are aware that some parishioners already take the Eucharist to those in need each week. If you are currently doing so, please email christen@holyfamily.com. We want to keep an active list so we can be supportive of this great gift we are offering. Thank you!

Sharing The Gospel - Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

"Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis)." While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the "details" of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

Blood Drive at Holy Family

Please share your gift of life with local hospital patients who need it by donating at the next Community Blood Center blood drive on Tuesday, July 19, from 2 to 6 p.m. in the parish hall. To make an appointment online visit savealifenow.org/group and use Group Code: 6J. For more information, please contact Janet Austin at 816-436-4367 or jaustin2250@att.net or Roger Prokes at (660) 582-1000 or roger.prokes@gmail.com.

Journey to New Life Men's Clothing Drive

From July 9 through July 25 Holy Family Service Outreach Committee will be collecting men's clothing for Journey to New Life Ministry. Journey to New Life serves men and women returning to the community from prison or local, state or federal justice systems. They also serve homeless veterans. The goal is to assist these men and women to become successful and productive citizens. Women's clothing donations are abundant, but donations of men's clothing are not. All new or gently used men's clothing is needed including belts, wallets, work shoes, dress shoes, tennis shoes, socks (both white and dark), jeans and boxer shorts in sizes 32 to 46, t-shirts and dress shirts in large and extra large sizes. Donation barrels will be available starting July 9.

Protecting God's Children Class

To all volunteers who will be working with children in any capacity, you are required to attend a Protecting God's Children's (PGC) Class. Holy Family Parish will be hosting a PGC class on Saturday, July 23, from 9 a.m. to noon. Class is limited to 15 participants. To register for the class go to www.virtusonline.org and create an account, follow the instructions to register and select Holy Family Parish for the location. If you have questions, please contact Barb Blando at barbarablando@gmail.com.

St. Pius X Corner
Faith, Academics, Service

Welcome to the 'St. Pius X Corner'! Here you will find monthly announcements, important information, student highlights and other fun news about our school. We begin this month with a reflection from one of our fantastic SPX parents:

"Saint Pius X High School's offering of weekly Mass, theology class, confession, adoration, campus ministers and staff priest all help plant seeds in faith formation. These opportunities combined with academics and extracurricular activities produce well-rounded students."

-Ann McCoy

Holy Family Men's Club Outing

Attention Holy Family Men's Club! The Holy Family Men's Club will be having their summer outing at the Royals vs Angels baseball game at Kauffman Stadium on Tuesday, July 26. The Royals might lose more than 100 games, but that won't stop us from taking advantage of (hopefully) cheap tickets! The event is open to men's club members and their families. Please RSVP with the number of tickets you need by Monday, July 18 to rob@holyfamily.com. Families are invited to tailgate prior to the game.

Book Club

The next meeting of the book club will be on Tuesday, July 19, at 7 p.m., in room 202. They will be discussing A Walk in the Woods: Rediscovering America on the Appalachian Trail by Bill Bryson. For more information, please contact Vicky Draftz at vhadel2008@gmail.com.

Becoming Catholic

Is God calling you to serve the becoming Catholic Ministry?

Consider being a Sponsor!
(commitment through spring)

The sponsor is a co-traveler on this journey of faith who commits himself or herself to accompany a catechumen (unbaptized) or candidate (baptized Christian) along the way to reception of the sacraments. Sponsors are similar to faith journey companions but will likely attend formation sessions and special Rites and Masses. They will also provide support for a time after the reception of sacraments to help the new Catholic integrate into our parish community and life. The sponsor is a friend, witness, and guide. Sponsors need to love the Catholic faith, but do not need to be experts.

Based on your mutual availability, you are also encouraged to spend regular one-on-one time with the person you sponsor, such as coffee date or a meal out together, listening along their journey.
