Sharing God's Gifts

A prominent theme in today's Gospel parable is generosity. Late at night, a sleepy friend responds to his neighbor's request for food for an unexpected guest. Jesus suggests that it would be unthinkable for a friend to deny a friend in need. A friend would most certainly give what is asked and more. Through this story, Jesus illustrates God's generosity. Good stewards realize the extraordinary love and graciousness with which God showers us. We need never convince God to be generous. God is already that generous friend. His abundant love bathes us in goodness. This week, prayerfully reflect on God's generosity to us. What should our response be to that generosity? How do you share your blessings? Come On, Holy Spirit!

After using over $113,000 in cash during the last fiscal year, we need to increase giving by $200,000 in order to keep the parish in a good cash position. Our $4 million loan is down to $3.1 million, but rising interest rates will make the pay-off more challenging. Please consider an increase in giving if you are able.

Ministry To The Sick - We Need Your Help!

Our brothers and sisters in Christ who are sick or homebound desperately long to receive the Eucharist. For them to receive Christ in the Eucharist, it is up to us, their holy family, to be willing to give a little of our time each month.

Holy Family Catholic Church has responsibilities to the sick and homebound, specifically the Catholics in North Kansas City Hospital, Benton House, and many people in their own homes. We have not been able to get this ministry up and running again since Covid, due to lack of parishioners willing to help. We NEED you!

PLEASE contact Christen Cota if you are willing to help or want to learn more about this special and important ministry, christen@holyfamily.com or 816-436-9200 ext. 304.  We are aware that some parishioners already take the Eucharist to those in need each week. If you are currently doing so, please email christen@holyfamily.com. We want to keep an active list so we can be supportive of this great gift we are offering. Thank you!

Sharing The Gospel - Seventeenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

Question of the Week – Daily Prayer

Key Passage: Jesus said, "So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you." (Lk. 11:9)

Adult Question: Have your most recent prayers been prayers of praise, petition or sorrow? Which kind of prayer do you need to practice more often?

Child Question: What are you most thankful for right now?

“Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,’ and he says in reply from within, ‘Do not bother me.’ I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.” — Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8
