The perfect gift to help all humanity

Merry Christmas! What a great joy it is for us and all of Christendom to remember the greatest gift God has given to all of us humans - the gift of his Son Jesus. The Messiah that was foretold and the promise has been fulfilled.

This Christmas is still under the dark cloud of the pandemic and I know we all feel that we're over it, but we are not, nor will we ever be able to distance ourselves from tragedy and hardship, suffering and difficulty. That is another reason why it is good for us to remember and to contemplate on the events of Christmas. Remember the experience of Mary and Joseph who had to travel through challenges as migrants, as people on the move, as people under the Roman Empire being oppressed and exploited.

As we all settle into our homes that bring us comfort and joy, we remember our God who chose not to come as the Regal King the people were wanting or expecting, but in the midst of poverty, being born in a stable because there was no room for them. There are an estimated 82.4 million people in our world who have been forcibly displaced from their homes and so they can find a connection with the gift of the example of the Holy Family

Throughout the pandemic worldwide, it is the migrants and homeless and refugees who are the most hard hit with the virus. In our own country, the Covid-19 pandemic has brought social and racial injustice and inequality to the forefront of public health. It has highlighted that health equity is still not a reality, as many racial and ethnic minority groups are at a higher risk of getting sick and dying from Covid-19.

As we recall the Christmas story, let us also remember the shepherds, who were the least in the scale of society and how the message of joy and hope was brought to them. They too lived in poverty and exploitation and were segregated from much of the population. It was to them that the angel appeared to give the first announcement. They were filled with joy and hope, and they took those feelings out into the world.

And so, as we recall the Christmas story, in the midst of still dark times as we struggle with the pandemic, great divisions in our country and world, mass shootings and drive-by killings of innocents, and the continuous scourge of abortion, we can find joy and hope that we have a God whose gift is presented to all those in need. This great gift of Jesus, who is peace, should give strength for anyone struggling to pull through and overcome challenges.

Whatever your reason for worshiping with us this Christmas at Corpus Christi, we welcome you with great joy. And like the shepherds who announced the joy to others, we desire to walk with you on your journey of life. We are part of the Body of Christ - Corpus Christi- and I invite you to share your joys and sorrows in our community of faith. That way, we can all be Christ to one another throughout the whole year.

Merry Christmas!

*May the peace and hope of
be with you now and in the days ahead...*

On behalf of the Corpus Christi Parish Professional Staff, School and Religious Education Staffs we want to wish you a very Blessed Christmas season. Know that during this time, we offer our gratitude to God for the blessing of His Son, a blessing that is lived out in the lives of so many in our community who work hard to make this season one of fitting praise and honor.

As we prepare to enter into this new year, we understand that it is a blessing for us to serve with you all. God has called us together as a family, may we receive the joy of this season into our hearts so that all we do will be touched by the joy of Jesus' birth. May your gatherings with family and friends during this time of joy be a time of blessing and peace.

In His Love,

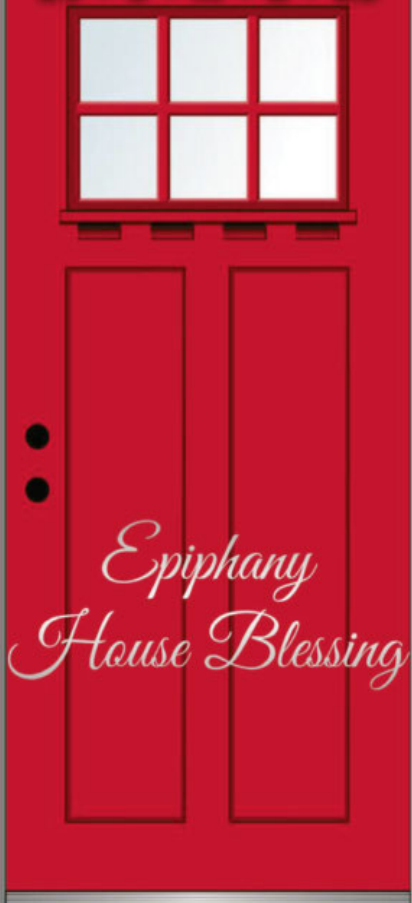

Fr. Jerry, Kyly Bateman, Laura Hulcher, Kathleen Johnson, Christine Lipscomb, Caleb Regan, Crisy Sullivan, Shaun Whisler, and Kirsten Wondra.

20 + C + M + B + 21

As an Epiphany tradition in the Catholic Church, you are invited to use this chalk to inscribe a blessing on your home for the Year of our Lord 2021 as follows:

Gather around the inside of your front door. To bless your home, use the chalk to write "20+C+M+B+21" above the doorway: 2021 for the year; C, M, B for the 3 Magi (Casper, Melchior, and Balthasar) and for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for "May Christ Bless this House." As you are writing, pray the following prayer.

Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only-begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our concern for others may reflect your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Throughout the year, those who come and go through that door will enjoy the blessing of Christ.

A stylized red graphic of the Epiphany scene, showing the three Magi on camels following a star. The word "Epiphany" is written in a large, red, cursive font across the bottom of the graphic.

Year-End Gifts and Charitable Giving in 2021

On December 27, 2020, another stimulus package was signed into law to help combat the far-reaching impacts of COVID-19. In many ways, this bill extends the charitable tax incentives enacted by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act back in March 2020, but it also provides some additional provisions.

Are you itemizing deductions?

The adjusted gross income (AGI) limit for cash contributions to qualifying public charities remains increased for individual donors. For cash contributions made in 2021, you can elect to deduct up to 100 percent of your AGI (formerly 60 percent prior to the CARES Act).

Not itemizing?

The CARES Act allowed for an additional, “above-the-line” deduction for charitable gifts made in cash of up to $300. This provision is extended into 2021 for taxpayers filing single/separately.

New in 2021 is an additional “above-the-line” deduction for those married filing jointly. Joint filers (who aren’t itemizing) will be allowed to take an above-the-line deduction of up to $600 in cash contributions to charity this year.

What about IRA Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD)?

The CARES Act did not change the rules around the QCD, which allows individuals over 70½ years old to donate up to $100,000 in IRA assets directly to charity¹ annually, without taking the distribution into taxable income.

However, remember that under the CARES Act an individual can elect to deduct 100 percent of their AGI for cash charitable contributions. This effectively affords individuals over 59½ years old the benefits similar to a QCD; they can take a cash distribution from their IRA, contribute the cash to charity, and may completely offset tax attributable to the distribution by taking a charitable deduction in an amount up to 100 percent of their AGI for the tax year.

If you’re planning a large donation in 2021, this may be a smart strategy as long as you are between the ages of 59½ and 70½ and are not dependent on existing retirement funds.

As always, note we are not attorneys or financial advisors — we only want to make sure that faith-filled generous stewards are aware of all tax benefits available to them. As always, please consult your financial advisors before making any major decisions and gain insights from them if you itemize your deductions.

Gospel Reflection

Lessons of the Holy Family

Today’s Gospel reading on its Feast of the Holy Family gives us a glimpse into the childhood of Jesus with his Mother, Mary, and his foster father, Joseph. This is a family like no other — consisting of the very Son of God, Mary, Queen of all Saints, and St. Joseph, patron of the Universal Church. Yet as we see in today’s Scripture passage, they led a life typical of the families of their day. They experienced many of the same joys and trials that all parents and children experience even today. And so, we can look to this Family for help in our own family lives and see in them a model of Stewardship in family life.

The Gospel passage, from Luke, starts by telling us something about Jesus’ parents: “Each year Jesus’ parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover, and when he was 12 years old, they went up according to festival custom.” In other words, this Family took seriously the Stewardship of their Time. The “Holy Couple” carefully observed the traditions and practice of their Jewish faith and brought up their Son to do the same. They worshiped as a family and with their faith community. And they did so faithfully.

We can take their example to heart by making Sunday Mass attendance a priority for our families, by making prayer with our family a priority every day, by making sure that we regularly celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation, and by observing in our family life the feasts and fasts appropriate to the liturgical calendar. When we, as families, prioritize our Time with God and worship of Him, we will be imitating the Holy Family.

And when we are faced with the inevitable challenges that come with family life, we will be far better equipped to handle them, just as the Holy Family did. We read just a few verses later in our scripture passage, that Mary and Joseph faced every parent’s worst nightmare — they can’t find Jesus! What parent cannot relate to this awful moment or at least the fear of such a moment. Perhaps a little child wanders off in the store and is physically missing as young Jesus was. Or perhaps an older child, though physically present, is spiritually or emotionally “missing” through addiction or loss of faith. In these times, too, we can look to the Holy Family for guidance. Mary’s very human initial reaction upon finding Jesus — “Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety” — comforts us in our own suffering as we realize that our Blessed Mother has been through difficult times in family life, too. The Holy Couple didn’t always understand their Divine Son. But they loved Him deeply and gave Him the best of themselves as parents. The Divine Son, though God, obeyed His parents, giving witness to the value of parents and family life.

On this Feast of the Holy Family, let us reclaim the beauty and importance of family life. Let’s commit to steward our families well in 2022, making time spent with God and practicing our faith the most important appointments on our family calendars. Let’s make 2022 a year at Corpus Christi Catholic Parish like never before. Happy Feast Day, parish family!
