JANUARY 30, 2022 | FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the Desk of Fr. McNea

Last Saturday's Synod Listening Session was a wonderful gathering. About 40 people participated in this session and everyone was very engaged in our time together. In fact, we went even longer than we had anticipated. A very fruitful time together! I am very grateful to Janet and Scott Macon who were the facilitators for this session. I am also very grateful to all those who participated. If you would still like to participate, the questions that were the focus for the listening session are available on our parish website and there is space provided for you to respond, in writing, to these questions. Look for the Synod Survey to click on for giving your feedback. There is further information about the synod also on the website.

This week is the 2022 Catholic Schools Week. We have celebrated this week in the US since 1974. This year's theme is: "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service." Since last July 1, our Catholic schools in Winona are now Cotter Schools, with three campuses. As I mention each year, we are unique in Winona that we have Catholic education available from preschool through the university level. Not many places can claim that, other than in major cities. We are the only place in our diocese that can claim this fact. I am very grateful to all those who support our Catholic schools. Please continue to pray for our Catholic schools that they will remain true to their Catholic identity, with Jesus always as the source and the center of every Catholic school community.

From the Desk of Fr. Cronin

Soon you will be receiving your annual record of stewardship to assist you in your tax return preparation for the year 2021. I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for your generosity of time, talent, and treasure. Without your support each week—even when you are away from town (online giving really does work)—we would not be as financially sound as we are. Throughout my entire priestly ministry, I have basically said this when it comes to stewardship, "give proportionately to what you have." If you have lots of time, talent, and treasure, share it with abundance. If you have more limited time, talent, and treasure, give a limited amount. Please just give to your ability. It is expensive to live, money doesn't grow on trees, and people's circumstances are all different and subject to change. By the way, I have never made it a practice to regularly review the level of giving by individual parishioners. I just assume that people take their generosity seriously. I also think it is important to emphasize that stewardship involves everyone. While we are pleased with the "major" contributors who have helped us accomplish many things (we could not survive without them), we cannot rely solely on them. It is not fair to say "let the big givers give...they don't need my help." Parish life is a team effort and we all have to do our part for the team. Amen. Alleluia

Fr. Mike

WEEKLY REFLECTION

These days it feels like I keep facing the same choice. Do I only associate with people who agree with me, or do I take the risk of trying to be in relationship with people who don't agree with me? I know that's not exactly the situation Jeremiah and Jesus were facing. They were speaking God's truth and had the confidence that comes with that. But I am much more cautious about speaking for God!

Given that, I'd like to suggest that there are two reasons why I, and maybe all of us, need to stay in relationship with people we do not always agree with—even in our own parish family. First, it is possible that I do have some part of God's truth that other people need to hear. Second, it is also possible that the other person, too, has some part of God's truth that I need to hear. Both possibilities require the kind of love St. Paul describes in his First Letter to the Corinthians. So, just as Jeremiah and Jesus did, let us speak our truth—and listen to others' truth—with kindness and without fear.

Brian Singer-Towns, St. Mary's parishioner

SCOUT SUNDAY—FEBRUARY 6

The Scouting program at St. Mary's Parish is more than just an activity for our youth to learn about the outdoors. Scouting provides fun, fellowship, and training to our St. Mary's youth as well as youth in our community. It emphasizes honesty, self-reliance, and respect. Through a year-round program, it affects character, citizenship, and personal fitness. But the success of our Scouting depends on our volunteers, who serve in a variety of leadership roles so that our young people may benefit from our Scouting ministry. We salute the splendid volunteers who presently serve as Cubmasters, Scoutmasters, Venturing Advisors, and in other positions of leadership. Our Scout units would like to invite you and your family to be a part of their program. (For more information contact Chad Coudron 507-452-1828 or Brian Knutson 507-474-0178)

Respect Life

American Life League launched the Marian Blue Wave in October of 2019.

Its goal is to end abortion, with the help of our Blessed Mother and her Son. It is a call to Catholics across America to pray a weekly Rosary with the specific intention of ending all manner of abortions and shutting down every Planned Parenthood facility in the United States. It all began when Bishop Joseph Strickland of the Diocese of Tyler, Texas tweeted that "what this country needs is a Marian Blue Wave." In the first two years, approximately 30 Planned Parenthood abortion facilities have closed. Coincidence? Likely not. The power of the Rosary shining through!

Please consider joining this prayer movement! For information, see www.marianbluewave.com.
