SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

As we continue to struggle with the backlash of the pandemic, many families throughout our diocese will not have the means to provide for their children's back to school supplies. Yet having the right items in the backpack can impact a child's academic performance. Catholic Charities' KCSJ assists many of these families each year with school supplies. We are collecting backpacks and other essential supplies to offer to schools in the lowest income areas of the KCSJ Diocese. This year's tax-free school supply shopping in Missouri runs from August 6-8. For more information or to give a gift of a backpack filled with supplies, please contact Susan Walker, Executive Director of Outreach, 816-659-8218 or swalker@ccharities.com

Rocky Railway VBS

ALL ABOARD! At Rocky Railway, kids discover through life's ups and downs that Jesus' power pulls us through. Kids participate in memorable Bible activities, sing songs, play games, engage in snack-eating experiences, take part in Bible Adventures, meet Bible Memory Buddies that will remind them to trust Jesus, and test out Sciency-Fun Gizmos they'll take home and play with! Plus, kids will learn to look for God all around them through God Sightings. Each evening ends with the Rock Wrap-Up that gets all involved in living what they've learned. Rocky Railway is for kids from 4 years old to 5th grade and will run from 5:45 to 8:15 each evening from August 2-6. Stop by the registration table and sign up! For more information, call the church at 747-6154

Dear Faithful of Sacred Heart,

There is a book that you will hear me reference often in my homilies titled : “In Sinu Jesu: When Heart Speaks to Heart: The Journal of A Priest at Prayer”. It is a book written by a Benedictine Monk who started to hear Our Lord and Our Lady speak to his heart in 2007. I have been praying with this book off and on for about the last three years. It has been a constant source of inspiration and edification in my own prayer life, especially when I am engaged in Eucharistic Adoration. Building off of my homily from this past weekend I want to encourage you in the practice of the visit to the Blessed Sacrament. Our Lord Jesus Christ is waiting for each of us in the Eucharist. Why? Because He loves us and He wants to spend time with us. St. Josemaria Escriva, founder of Opus Dei, said this : “When you approach the tabernacle, remember that he has been waiting for you for twenty centuries.”

Every time we come before the Eucharist we enter into the presence of our greatest Friend, this friendship is transformative. We come away holier, shining with the glory of God that radiates from Our Lord’s Eucharistic Face. I want to give you a quote from the book I referenced earlier to emphasize to you Our Lord’s disposition toward us when we come before Him in the Eucharist. I hope this encourages you to visit Him often and to make the visit to the Blessed Sacrament a regular part of your life. We hang out with our families and friends all the time; Our Lord Jesus Christ, our greatest Friend and Family Member, wants to hang out with us. Here is what He once spoke to the heart of the priest who wrote the book:

“I am absorbed by your presence before Me. Does it shock you that I should say such a thing? But I am absorbed by you; My eyes rest upon you; My Heart is all yours; I am listening intently to you; and all my attention is focused on you when you come seeking Me. Believe that I am totally absorbed by you and soon you will be totally absorbed by Me. I speak here using human terms, using the language of friendship, of affection, of love. I am present here in all the sensitivity and tenderness of My humanity. I am here offering you My friendship, ready to spend as much time with you as you are ready to spend with Me. I want you close to Me; as close as John was to Me when, at My last supper, he rested his head upon My breast. Prayer such as this cannot be calculated or measured in terms of minutes or hours. It is what it is -- and this, for as long as you abide in My presence.” (In Sinu Jesu, pg. 247)

Any time we give to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament will profit us a million fold. Be assured of my prayers for you and your families every day.

To Jesus through Mary,
Fr. Gabe

RCIA Corner
With the gift of Jesus’ Precious Blood on the Cross and in the Eucharist, let us reflect on the freedom given to us through our Baptism into him — to be heirs of the promise and liberated from sin. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the way by which persons become “citizens of the Kingdom” through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Inquiry sessions begin in August.
