Thank you to all who came out for the St. Francis Blessing of the Pets this past weekend. We had lots of dogs, a few rabbits, and even two lizards. It was a beautiful evening with a beautiful prayer service. We enjoyed the “Puppy Chow” made by PSR families after the service.

The O'Malley family attends Blessing of Pets with their fur baby

Please help us support Colin for his preparation recital. Colin often plays for our Saturday, 5 pm Mass and some of our Sunday Celebrations.

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact the Victim Advocate, Kathleen Chastain, at 816.392.0011 or chastain@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

Dear Faithful of Sacred Heart,

Before we dive further in to St. John Paul II's teaching on how we can truly enter into the deep levels of prayer, I would like to speak about a feast we recently celebrated in the Church that is near and dear to my heart; specifically, the Solemnity of the Holy Archangels: Michael, Gabriel and Raphael. St. John Paul II will also figure prominently into the equation.

One of the aids that God has given each of us in this life is the protection and guidance of the Holy Angels; those blessed spirits who chose to follow Him when they were created. These angels are now confirmed in goodness and are faithful and true protectors for us as we journey through this valley of tears. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states this: "From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life. Already here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united in God." (CCC 336).

Having felt the sincere protection of the angels throughout my journey, this is something that I want to translate into the parish as a whole, calling on angelic protection together. St. John Vianney states this: "Private prayer is like straw scattered here and there: If you set it on fire it makes a lot of little flames. But gather these straws into a bundle and light them, and you get a mighty fire, rising like a column into the sky; public prayer is like that." I would like our prayers to join together in calling on angelic protection, especially as we are sent forth into the world. The most concrete way I know of doing this is to pray the prayer to St. Michael the Archangel after Mass has concluded. This is a prayer that was prayed after Mass for many years and in 1994 St. John Paul II encouraged the Church to return to it when he stated:

"The prayer can fortify us for that spiritual battle about which the Letter to the Ephesians speaks [of]: "Finally, draw your strength from the Lord and from his mighty power."(Ephesians 6:10). And to this same battle that the Book of the Apocalypse refers [to], recalling in front of our eyes the image of St. Michael the Archangel (cf. Revelation 12:7). Surely, this scene was very present to Pope Leo XIII, when, at the end of the previous century, he introduced to the entire Church a special prayer to St. Michael: "St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil..." Even if today this prayer is no longer recited at the end of the Eucharistic celebration, I invite all to not forget it, but to recite it in order to obtain help in the battle against the forces of darkness and the spirit of this world."

With JP II's words in tow, I invite you to recite the prayer to St. Michael with me after Mass has concluded. May he protect us as we are sent forth on mission. The words are as follows:

"St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen."

Be assured of my prayers for you and your families,
To Jesus through Mary,
Fr. Gabe

This week in preschool we have been learning about spiders and the signs of fall! We are working on patterns a lot and having fun spotting patterns around the classroom. The Fruit of the Spirit for the month of October is patience so we are learning the meaning of the word and how to identify situations that require patience. Our Faith Focus this week is the story of Abraham and Sarah, we have to trust God and wait patiently for Him to keep his promises!

Please see next week's bulletin for info regarding enrollment for next year! 2022-2023!

What's Happening in PSR?

Preschool- They talked about getting into heaven is easier with less. Then they read the book The Boy Who Gave His Lunch Away and discussed ways they can help others and live on less because Jesus always gives us more.

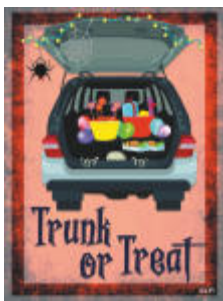

Kindergarten- They talked about the importance of us showing our love for God by following the commandments He gave us.

First Grade- They learned more about their Circle of Grace and staying safe. They talked about adults we can trust to help us. They also talked about the story of Naaman.

Second Grade- They learned that God always has a plan and takes care of His people. They also became more familiar with some of the main characters of salvation history and their genealogical relationship to Jesus.

Third Grade- They discussed today's Gospel (Mark 10:17-30), reviewed the Ten Commandments, and discussed the changes we can make to enter heaven.

Fourth and Fifth Grade- They discussed original sin.

All Saints Day and Trunk-or-Treat

All children are invited to attend Mass on Saturday, October 30th at 5:00 in their Halloween costumes or dressed as their favorite Saint. We will have Trunk-or-Treat in the lower parking lot following Mass. The Knights of Columbus will be providing hot dogs and chips. Youth Group will have a hot chocolate station. We would love to have several parishioners participate in handing out treats. You are welcome to decorate your trunks too if you'd like. Let's celebrate All Saints Day together as a parish.

St. Nicholas Workshop

We are so excited to return to an in person workshop this year. All children ages three through fifth grade can plan to spend time on Saturday, December 4th, making gifts for their family and friends. Many elves have been busy coming up with crafts and food items for your children to make. This is such an amazing opportunity to teach your children the importance of thinking of others and giving to others. We will have registration after all the Masses on the weekends of October 16, 17, 23, 24, 30, and 31. We will also have a donation list and a sign-up list for anyone who wants to help. Stop by for more information.

Coming up: NCYC is the 18th through the 21st.**

From the classroom

This past Sunday the Theology of the Body Class discussed what hope and redemption in Christ looks like. Corey started the night with a crisp new ten dollar bill and asked the class who wanted it. Of course they all did. Next, Corey crumpled the bill and asked who wanted it. Finally he dropped the crumpled bill to the ground and stomped on it. He then picked up the bill and asked the class if the bill still had value. The class said the value had not changed. Corey explained that no matter how worthless they may feel or how many times they or someone else has “stomped on them” each one of them is still a person of great worth. The class also read and discussed the Prodigal Son from Luke 15. Yvonne led the class in the Dive In portion of the night and asked the youth to write down what about their lives they would be eager to show Jesus. She and Corey then took the class to the Chapel and asked the youth to reflect on how Jesus can turn their shame and hurt to forgiveness, peace and hope. After returning to the classroom the youth were reminded that it has been said “God knows your sins and calls you by name. The Devil knows your name, and calls you by your sins.” They discussed how the Sacrament of Reconciliation helps us to change the way we view God and view ourselves.

Mass Intentions

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead. The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass, since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. For that reason, all are encouraged to have Mass offered for loved ones who have died, for the living who are in need, for the souls in Purgatory, for members of the church who are celebrating a special anniversary, or for different programs offered in our parish community. This is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church, and all are encouraged to take it up.

Contact the Parish Office to schedule a Mass intention. Dates are available on a first come—first serve basis.

Mass intentions are a personal donation, but the suggested amount is $10. Please contact the Parish Office with any questions.

New Parish directory update - Due to high demand for photography times we have added an additional photo day: Tues Nov 9th from 2 - 8:30pm. We encourage all parishioners to participate but there are additional ways to be included in the directory. You can also submit your own photo or be listed without a photo. Reminder - all parish groups and clubs will need to submit their own group picture if they want to be included. UCD will NOT be taking group photos on these days. If you have questions please contact Megan Jackson at 660-238-6948 or
