2021 - THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

From: With a Father's Heart, the Apostolic Letter of Pope Francis on St. Joseph

Thanks to his role in salvation history, Saint Joseph has always been venerated as a father by the Christian people. This is shown by the countless churches dedicated to him worldwide, the numerous religious Institutes, Confraternities and ecclesial groups inspired by his spirituality and bearing his name, and the many traditional expressions of piety in his honor. Innumerable holy men and women were passionately devoted to him. Among them was Teresa of Avila, who chose him as her advocate and intercessor, had frequent recourse to him and received whatever graces she asked of him. Encouraged by her own experience, Teresa persuaded others to cultivate devotion to Joseph.

BULLETIN AD SPACES AVAILABLE

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for our parish and local community. Parishioners routinely patronize businesses who advertise in their weekend bulletin.

LPi, our bulletin printer, will be securing new ads for our church in the coming weeks. It is the support of the business community that helps to make our church thrive. Please consider purchasing an ad. Thanks!

PLEASE PRAY for the many who are sick and suffering in our parish family, our friends, and our relatives. For these we ask for the compassion and mercy of Jesus, and the prayers of Our Lady of Grace to come upon them and bring them healing and hope. If you would like to be added to the prayer chain, send your request to:

We'd like to purchase updated tables for all 3 classrooms for a total of $4,050.00. If you would be willing to donate to this fund, please label your donation with "Classroom Tables". Thank you so much! Special thanks to those who have already made a donation!

If you have not donated and would still like to make a difference, please contact Patrick Savageau, Donor Stewardship Specialist at 816-659-8243 or psavageau@ccharities.com.

FAITH IN REAL LIFE

Q: My teenager doesn't want to go to Mass with our family anymore, and it's becoming a rough subject in our family. Do I continue to make her go?

A: Whew. This is a good, tough question, one that resonates with me as I suspect I'll be asking it in a dozen or so years when my toddler and infant enter the realm of teendom. I think that your answer lies in the answer to a different question: What is your purpose in attending Mass as a family?

If your goal is to have meaningful and enjoyable family-time, then I would suggest letting go of Mass and finding something else—perhaps investing in a deck of Table Topic cards and digging into them over weekly brunch—as it sounds like Mass is a sore spot and unlikely to create happy together-time at the moment.

If your goal is to raise a life-long Catholic, then, well, I'd suggest doing some soul searching and coming to peace with letting go of this goal (anecdotally, I was raised in a family that attended Mass together weekly, and only 50 percent of my generation ended up as practicing Catholics; if there was a recipe for raising life-long Catholics, the person who discovered it would be a very wealthy individual right now).

But, if your goal is to show your teenager that there are certain things that your family does, regardless of anyone's mood at the moment—Sunday Mass, along with activities like, say, Saturday morning chores, family dinner, annual dentist check-ups and school—then I say keep making her go. I can guarantee that she won't be the only teenager in the sanctuary who spent the car ride to Mass rolling her eyes... just like she wasn't the only toddler who made a face about eating broccoli, or child who resisted bedtime, or tween who screamed when you said no to R-rated movies.

—Teresa Coda
