PASTOR'S REFLECTIONS

I do not often like to make movie reviews or recommendations. But last night I watched one that I was just so impressed with. The movie is called, 'Seven Days in Utopia'. Here is one summary of the movie (no spoiler). Luke Chisholm is a young golfer who's about to take a swing at the big time. Luke, however, has a big blowup that makes national news, drives away his father/coach, and seemingly scuttles his once-promising career. While driving along a Texas back road, Luke crashes through the fence of rancher Johnny Crawford. Johnny makes Luke an irresistible offer: spend a week with him in the tiny town of Utopia and see if Luke can change his life...

Johnny becomes a powerful force in Luke's life, not only teaching him about golf, but about life, and about God! Through flashbacks, it is clear that Luke had/has an overpowering father that has pushed him and that Luke himself has some anger issues. There are some really good life lessons that anyone can take away from this movie, even if you never played golf. Two things it got me to thinking about... Who has been a Johnny to me in my life, helping me see these great life lessons? Have I ever been a Johnny to someone else? And how can I do that more?

I don't want to spoil the movie, so I will not say much more. But, there are 2 or 3 very powerful moments toward the end. As I said before, I'm not trying to become a movie critic or promoter. But if you are looking for a good one, with some good lessons, and a clear God push, 'Seven Days in Utopia' comes highly recommended.

Just a reminder as the parish festival is getting closer, there will be more and more details to bring together. I want to thank all of the chairs for their prep work on things. I don't think people know how much planning and organizing goes into putting on our festival in a normal year. With not having a festival last year, this year has ended up being even more work. A few people have moved and we have needed to find people to fill these positions. If you are one of those people who stepped up to a new role this year, Thank You in advance. The parish festival is "All Hands on Deck". Please help if you are asked and able.

There have been some concerns about the work on the waterline out front. We have let them know about the parish festival and have been told that they will have both entrances open. They may not be tarred, but they will be useable. We are now moving into the Pie and Cake tins being available for you to pick up and bake. There are still some needs in the Bottle Bonanza, pop, water, and prizes area. The Baskets from Heaven can come in too. Be creative.... Movie Night: DVDs, popcorn and treats... Dog themed: treats and toys (I already have one to bid on)... Baby themed... Adult themed... many things work. Please be helping us advertize our festival too - invite, invite, invite!

I want to also thank Marilyn and all of our young people who helped put on the Vacation Bible School this last week. I think fun was had by all the children who attended. This is another event that has so much work put into the planning and preparation to put on. I am very impressed by so many of our young people.

Blessings to all,
Fr. Backer

SYNOD 2022

Synod Prayer - Year of St. Joseph: Heavenly Father, who gave St. Joseph to Jesus and Mary as protector and guide, grant that our Archdiocesan Synod, under his protection and guidance, may help us discern your direction for our Church. May we listen as he listened, trust as he trusted, obey as he obeyed, receive as he received, love as he loved, and share in his life of devotion to Jesus and Mary. Amen. St. Joseph, pray for us.

V I S I O N S T A T E M E N T

*The Church of St. Luke is a Catholic Community, centered in Christ through baptism and formed by the Eucharist.
We strive to always be a community where every heart is touched by our Christian fellowship.*

Faith and Family

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus. In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our Eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world. In today's reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life. -Sunday Connection

Archbishop Hebda Needs Your Help! Join the Journey this Fall! It's August and we are planning our Fall and Back to School activities. Plan to join us this fall to help shape the future of our local Church through the ongoing Archdiocesan Synod process. Archbishop Hebda needs your input in how to best form:

- Parishes that are in the service of evangelization;
- Missionary disciples who know Jesus's love and respond to his call; and
- Youth and young adults in and for a Church that is always young.

Join a small group to discuss and give feedback on priorities within each Synod focus area. There will be small group sessions at St. Luke's this fall offered at various times and over a 6-week period starting in September. We ask that you help Archbishop Hebda and take part in a small group. Watch for dates! See more at archspm.org/synod.

Jesus' Power Pulls Us Through!

THANK YOU! VBS 2021 Rocky Railway has rolled on through! Thank you to Claire Leither and all the Crew who came together to put on a great week of fun and learning! We thank all those who helped behind the scenes, from those who donated supplies to those who donated time and energy to put it all together. Because of many helping hands, we all climbed aboard the Rocky Railway of life with Jesus and learned that he is by our side in life's wild ride! We know that Jesus is with us always and will guide us and help us in life. He is a true friend, one that is by our side to help us in all things!

The Church of St. Luke's family expresses our condolences to Terry & Barb Kantor and Family on the passing of Terry's brother, Roger.

We offer our sympathy to Marilyn & Dan Popp and Family on the passing of Dan's father, Donald. Eternal rest grant unto them, Oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

I would like to thank all brother knights who have dedicated their time and talents in many of these activities. I also want to thank all you who have supported the Knights' activities this past year. Your support is greatly appreciated. - Ron Shatek
