PASTOR'S REFLECTIONS

So much to talk about this weekend. We are celebrating The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We believe that Mary, preserved at birth from original sin, was also preserved from corruption of the body in the grave. Her uncorrupt body and soul were taken into heaven. Pope Pius XII defined this doctrine on November 1, 1950 in the apostolic constitution Munificentissimus Deus. This belief was not new, however, Pope Pius XII formally made it a doctrine of the Church.

Next weekend is our Parish Festival. I remember last year when I had to make the call to cancel the festival for last year, as many other events were canceled as well. This spring we have seen a reopening of events and a lifting of restrictions, both in our society and in the Church. Some of these were huge - the lifting of the mask mandate, the blue tape departure, and the return of our holy water. The loss of the festival last year was something we felt financially. It is our biggest fundraiser of the year. For me, another huge part of this spring was being able to start getting together with friends again. This is a part of the festival I greatly missed.

One of the things about not having the festival last year is getting back into the swing of it this year. Again, I want to thank all who have been working hard to get things ready. Please help out if you can. One way that everyone can help is coming to the festival and inviting many others to come too. I have fond memories of festivals in the past. Like when I bid up a quilt I wanted, fighting against someone right behind me, only to find out he was trying to buy it for me and give it to me. But I would not let go. :) I remember watching how high some of my jamming baskets went, the Jello-eating contest, and pulling for the Grand Raffle. The Grand Raffle should be a lot of fun this year, as we have more cash prizes than ever before.

Lately we have seen a rise in the Covid numbers again, and some masking requirements have returned in some areas. Recently Israel added the United States to its list of countries that it is requiring quarantine for 2 weeks upon entering the country. It goes without saying that my November trip I was leading is not going this year. The trip, for the second time due to COVID, will be rescheduled for Nov 7 - 18, 2022. So if you were thinking about going to the Holy Land with me, but were concerned about restrictions currently in place, we'll see what changes we see this coming year. Pray by this time next year we will have killed COVID.

There have been so many things to pray for lately. We are in so much need of rain. I have struggled to keep some of my flowers going. With a rise in COVID numbers, we are seeing some restrictions returning. This is not what I like to see. I'm praying for the success of our Festival, and any number of people I know who are ill at this time or dealing with health issues. I sometimes think my list has gotten so long, I do not cover it very well. What is on your prayer list?? I am hoping many of these same things. Your list of people may be different from mine. That is something I will always remember about my mother, she was always praying for others. Sometimes she knew them, other times she only knew of their need for prayer. I have a daily prayer list, it changes regularly. You should know I am an Excel junkie. I have an Excel file set up for my daily prayers. I can see how long a prayer has been on my list - one week, one month, etc. I also sometimes will set up a goal of having an intention on my list for a set time or until the event is over. I have been praying for a couple whose wedding I did this weekend; that prayer now changes from the being prepared to the new marriage. This list can help me keep on-going prayers in the forefront of my mind. It can also remind me if it has been awhile, to check in with someone. Technology can be good or bad, depending on how you use it. Here, it really does help my prayer.

Blessings,
Fr. Backer

SYNOD 2022

Synod Prayer - Year of St. Joseph: Heavenly Father, who gave St. Joseph to Jesus and Mary as protector and guide, grant that our Archdiocesan Synod, under his protection and guidance, may help us discern your direction for our Church. May we listen as he listened, trust as he trusted, obey as he obeyed, receive as he received, love as he loved, and share in his life of devotion to Jesus and Mary. Amen. St. Joseph, pray for us.

Faith and Family

Today's feast celebrates Mary's Assumption into heaven. It is one of three feasts of Mary that are Holy Days of Obligation for Catholics in the United States. January 1 is the feast of Mary, the Mother of God, and December 8 is the feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven has long been held as an important Catholic belief. The belief was not defined as dogma, however, until 1950 by Pope Pius XII. The dogma teaches that Mary, who was without sin, was taken, body and soul, into the glory of heaven. The Gospel for this holy day recalls Mary's actions after the announcement of Jesus' birth by the Angel Gabriel. Mary goes to visit her cousin Elizabeth who is also with child. Elizabeth greets Mary with full recognition of the roles they and their unborn children will play in God's plan for salvation. Mary responds to Elizabeth's greeting with her song of praise, the Magnificat. Both women recall and echo God's history of showing favor upon the people of Israel. Mary's Magnificat, in particular, echoes the song of praise offered by Hannah, the mother of Samuel. The Gospel for this day reminds us that Mary's Assumption into heaven is best understood with regard for the full spectrum of Catholic beliefs about the person of Christ and the person of Mary. Only Mary, who was born without stain of original sin—the Immaculate Conception—could give birth to Christ, who is fully God and fully human. This is called the Immaculate Conception. Because of Mary's role in God's plan of salvation, she does not suffer from the effects of sin, which are death and decay. Mary is the first to receive the fullness of the redemption that her son has won for all of humanity. The Church, therefore, recognizes Mary as the sign of the salvation promised to all. Today's Gospel highlights Mary's faith. Mary's faith enabled her to recognize the work of God in her people's history and in her own life. Her openness to God allowed God to work through her so that salvation might come to all. Mary is a model and symbol of the Church. May we be like Mary, open and cooperative in God's plan of salvation.

Join a small group to discuss and give feedback on priorities within each Synod focus area. There will be small group sessions at St. Luke's this fall offered at various times and over a 6-week period starting in September. We ask that you help Archbishop Hebda and take part in a small group. Watch for dates! See more at archspm.org/synod.
