Advent Reflections 2019
Week Four (December 22) – "Let the Lord Enter"

The feast of Christmas invites us to remember how Christ the Light has entered into our world, to celebrate the ways in which we experience his presence among us now, and to anticipate his final coming which will banish darkness and fear for all time.

• Listen – “Do not be afraid,” the angel proclaims. "Mary will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus because he will save his people from their sins."

• Remember – that growth and change always cause some fear and trepidation: Can I do this? How painful is it going to be? Will it work out for the best?

• Anticipate – that, like Mary and Joseph, we can trust that doing something impossible—or at least challenging—is not impossible with God's grace. What impossible thing is God inviting me to do this Christmas that frees me or a loved one from darkness?

Merry Christmas to you and your family from Fr. Pierre, the staff and Parish Pastoral Council at Queen of Peace Parish!

When he discovered that Mary was with child, Joseph resolved to end their engagement with as little disgrace as possible. But obedient to the voice of God, he changed those plans and became instead the protector of the child Jesus, and His mother, Mary. God grant that I may be as open to the leading of the Holy Spirit!

Hermanas, queridos miembros de nuestra parroquia:

Mis muy amados hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, hoy celebramos el cuarto domingo de Adviento. Como saben, este tiempo de Adviento es un tiempo de preparación.

El Adviento está dividido en dos partes: las primeras dos semanas sirven para meditar sobre la venida del Señor, cuando ocurre el fin del mundo, mientras que las dos siguientes sirven para reflexionar concretamente sobre el nacimiento de Jesús y su irrupción en la historia del hombre en Navidad.

Pues bien, mis hermanos, el próximo martes será noche buena y el miércoles Navidad. ¿Estamos preparados? O, ¿será una navidad en donde habrá abusos (en el comer y en el beber), o prisas de última hora por comprar y olvidar de Dios…?

Queridos, seamos honestos… ¿Quién no añora esas noches, previas a la Navidad donde se rezaba en casa frente al nacimiento que hacíamos con mucho cariño en donde las vacas eran más pequeñas que el Niño Dios y la figura del Niño Dios era más grande que María y José… y yo le ponía mis “monitos” del Santo y Blue Demon, el Llanero solitario y Toro (su amigo) y mi ejército que anima para que con tus santos la Navidad nos traiga de nuevo.

Sobres Es sumamente importante nuestra contribución a nuestra Iglesia y parte de nuestro compromiso bautismal es sostenerla financieramente como nuestra casa que es. Es importante usar los sobres designados para esto. Le pedimos que si no tiene sobres, llame a la parroquia.

Coro de niños Una manera en que nosotros nos unimos a través de la música en la liturgia. Si sientes que Dios te llama a este ministerio como integrante del coro o para tocar algún instrumento, por favor, contacta a Lora Heit al 319 610 5432 para unirte al coro o a Elizabeth Ayard al 319 529 8424. Gracias. Unete al coro de los Ángeles.

Cookie Walk Gracias por hacer este evento. Gracias por todas sus donaciones. Las galletas estaban deliciosas. Se recolectaron $321. Este dinero se usará para comprar cosas para el Warning Center que será abierto desde 6 de enero hasta marzo. Esto proveerá techo y calor a las personas que no tienen casa y duermen en la calle, especialmente en este tiempo de invierno.

¡Feliz navidad a la comunidad Reina de la Paz! ¡Gloria a Dios en las alturas y paz, en la tierra, a los hombres de buena voluntad!

Images or statue or icons: What does the Bible say about this?

Some weeks ago the Statue of the Blessed Mother, our Patroness, got vandalized. That was a shock for everyone. Worse, to make sure, let’s put it that way, they were doing us a favor; they leave us a note quoting the book of Exodus and the book of Revelation. Maybe, let us assume, it is for them a way to evangelize us, we Catholics. FYI these two books they quote talk about idols and images among other things. So, as you can see, we Catholics are in the spotlight of a lot of “groups” out there because of our position on images or statues and so on. I’ve never paid too much attention to these kinds of details or I would never see myself using the Bible for such a purpose, but now that we are personally attacked, I think it is convenient to clear this topic up by asking the question: What does the Bible say about this? Now, for the sake of precision and conciseness, I will need you to use your Bible while reading this article, for I only put the biblical references along with some necessary clarifications.

We are accused of adoring images. We Catholics do not adore images. We adore only God and simply venerate the images we consider sacred, like the statue of Our Blessed Mother. And this is not prohibited by the Bible at all. The big mistake of these “anti-Catholic” groups” is that they confuse image and idol. The Bible prohibits clearly the use of idol; the books of Exodus and of Revelation are very firm about that. An image or statue or icons is not equivalent to an idol. We all agree that an image represents a thing or and individual and an idol represents a false god that is adored in the place of the real and only God. There is an example of idol in Ex 20:3. Lack of adequate interpretation or by choosing deliberately to con people, some folks will tell you that it is biblically forbidden to have any kind of images in the Temple of God. I am afraid that it is not true. God doesn’t prohibit the possession of images; on the contrary there are passages in the Bible where God orders that images be made. Let’s see some examples: Exodus 25:1; Exodus 26:8; Ex 25:18 and Numbers 21:8-9: God speaks with Moses to construct the temple. Here the Bible clearly speaks on how God sent for images of angels to be made and placed in the temple.

What about the point regarding the kneeling before images and people. There are critics in this area too. Is that idolatry? In the sacred scripture, on some occasion Saint Peter and St Paul didn’t want the people to kneel before them, because they were viewing them as ‘gods.’ For this reason, kneeling in front of an image or person with the intention of adoring them is wrong. But, if it is for a simple act of respect and gratitude, there is no problem in that at all. Take a look at Joshua 7:6. When Catholics are praying and before them there is an image, they are not praying to or asking the image for anything. We just want to remember that individual through the memory that this image brings of him. Now, if we do not have an image of a saint in front, that doesn’t mean we will stop praying, that doesn’t make any sense. We pray by faith, not by what our eyes can see.

But images are part of our tradition, so we keep them. For the sake of the argument, let’s see what the Bible says about King Solomon who made images for the temple, a King considered very wise. 1 Kings 6: 2 Solomon constructs the temple of God, 1 Kings 6:23; 1 Kings 7:29. To put it in a human way, God was happy and thankful that his temple was filled with these images. It is said in 1 Kings 8, 10-12 that the priests could not continue with the ceremony, being that the glory of Yahweh had filled the house. And there is nowhere in the Old Testament Solomon is accused of idolatry.

What about the processions with images that we Catholics do, does that conform to the Holy Scripture? It is said in 2 Samuel 6: 5 that the king and the people took the Ark of the Covenant with the images of the Cherubims from one place to another. Would that be considered a procession? Some folks would probably say they were moving it, that’s it. But, no, this was a procession, and we can add, with images. The passage states that the people were singing, playing instruments and dancing. For instance here at Queen of Peace we have a beautiful procession with the statue of Our Lady during the Patron Feast we celebrate every August 22nd.

Did the New Testament say something about images? Jesus didn’t speak badly of images. At times he just mentions them and then moves on. (John 3: 14-16) Jesus referred positively to Numbers 21 that talk about the bronze serpent that Moses made. Jesus speaks of the image that is on the bill. (Mark 12:16-17) He directly speaks of it without mentioning the theme of idolatry. This would have been an excellent moment to speak of it, don’t you think? But he did not think that way. What he had in his hands was an image and that was it.

And FYI these biblical references can be found in any Bible. I make this precision for some folks can say: maybe Fr. Pierre is using a Catholic Bible.

My main point with this article it is to say that we will be placing back the statue of Our Blessed Mother as soon as we finish with the construction of a beautiful grotto in order to manifest our utmost respect and devotion to her. Now, this goal will not be achieved without your contribution. It is not a secret that we need around $14,000 for that. So, hurry to be one of the privileged ones who will be gifting Our Lady this grotto. Call the church office to give your donation.

Our Lady Queen of Peace... pray for us! - Fr. Pierre

QUEEN OF PEACE STARTS AN ENDOWMENT FUND
The Queen of Peace Parish Pastoral Council recently approved starting an endowment fund with the Catholic Foundation in the Archdiocese of Dubuque. The Catholic Foundation has more than 170 accounts of all sizes in the Archdiocese. We started with the minimum fund amount of $10,000. Through this endowment, we are planning for the long-term sustainability of Queen of Peace. The principal amount is not spent down and continues to grow each year. We can claim a 4% distribution each year and 10% for emergency needs. The purpose of the endowment fund is to support the Parish, whether building and grounds needs or special projects. And, we own the account—nothing from the account will be used to support any Archdiocesan purpose or project.

Starting in January, there will be an extra envelope in your offering packet for the Second Sunday of each month if you wish to contribute to the Endowment Fund.

Merry Christmas & a Very Happy New Year!
