Dear Friends,

This week marks the 48th year since the devastating Supreme Court ruling of Roe v. Wade. Since then, over 61 milling unborn children have been needlessly killed in the U.S.

Every life is valuable and we must pray for the end of abortion. Please join me in the below prayer and also the prayers on page four of this bulletin.

Prayer To God the Father of All Life

Eternal God, You have revealed Yourself as the Father of all Life. We praise You for the Fatherly care which You extend to all creation, and especially to us, made in Your image and likeness.

Father, extend Your hand of protection to those threatened by abortion, and save them from its destructive power. Give Your strength to all fathers, that they may never give in to the fears that may tempt them to facilitate abortions.

Bless our families and bless our land, that we may have the joy of welcoming and nurturing the life of which You are the source and the Eternal Father. ~ Amen.

The Bible Part Two

Hello Parents!

We continue our journey this month in confirmation through the Bible. Last time we discussed why the Bible should be important in our life. God reveals himself to us in two ways, through Sacred Scripture and through Sacred Tradition. Sacred Scripture is the Bible. Sacred Tradition is the teachings that have been handed down from the apostles to their successors through preaching, example, and life of worship, even before the New Testament was written. Both Scripture and Tradition make up the Word of God, and both were entrusted to the Church to interpret and share with the people of every place and time. The first generation of Christians didn't have a written New Testament; the Church existed before it was written.

The Bible is made up of seventy-three books—forty-six in the Old Testament and twenty-seven in the New Testament. Learn these different books of the Bible as well as the people and stories they contain by printing and using these Bible bookmarks like students are in class this month: <https://catechistsjourney.loyolapress.com/wp-content/uploads/2012/09/bible-bookmarks-combined.pdf>

To get an overview of the Bible students and parents are encouraged to read these three books:

1. The Gospel of Matthew.

First, as we discussed in Session 3, read the Gospel of Matthew. This will help you to delve deeply into the life and teachings of Jesus.

2. The book of Genesis.

Next, read Genesis. This will give you incredible insight into the human condition, show you what happens when we walk with God and what happens when we turn our backs on him, and help you to see that the world is a bit of a mess and the Gospel is the antidote.

3. The book of Psalms.

Finally, read the Psalms; better still—pray them! This is the most beautiful collection of prayers. Here you will find a prayer for every occasion in your life. You will encounter every emotion in the Psalms: joy, sorrow, hope, desperation, trust, fear, confusion, clarity, and many more.

Begin by reading one chapter a day.

It will take you twenty-eight days to work your way through Matthew and fifty days to make your journey through Genesis. If you then pray three Psalms a day it will take you fifty days to make your way through all 150 Psalms.

In just 128 days you will have a good sense of what the Bible is all about. Watch the rest of this month's videos. Next month we begin Lent!

PRAY FOR THE END of ABORTION

We Mourn the Children Who Have Died

Let Us Pray

Divine Mercy For the Unborn

For all helpless little children who die in the womb of their mother, I pray that all of these little souls will be given eternal life by Our Lord, Jesus Christ, through His Divine Mercy and I beg Jesus that I be allowed to spiritually baptize a little soul born dead and I do so by saying: I baptize you (Give name, preferably a Saint's Name) in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit... I have called you by your name, you are Mine!' (Is. 43:1)

Prayer of Divine Mercy Apostolate Capuchin Friary, Dublin

Pledge of Recommitment

I thank God today for the gift of my life,
And for the lives of my brothers and sisters.
I know I am responsible for the unborn who cannot speak for themselves.
I know that the most serious tragedy of our day is the tragedy of abortion.
Today I commit myself,
never to be silent, never to be passive,
never to be forgetful of the unborn.
I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement
And never to stop defending life
Until all my brothers and sisters are protected,
And our nation once again becomes
A nation with liberty and justice
Not just for some, but for all.
Amen!
