MONSIGNOR CHIODO

Message by Monsignor at Corpus Christi on June 19, 2022

Dear Friends,

Most folks have dreams of a future, especially as a child. A child imagines what he or she will be as an adult. How many of you had thoughts as a child thinking about the future?

Since childhood I have thought of being a Priest. All my formative years were observed around St. Anthony's. My Grandparents and Father migrated from Italy and joined St. Anthony's. My Sacraments were all celebrated, here. My Primary education was at St. Anthony School. My formation in spiritual life was given to me by nuns, priests and dedicated lay teachers, and I often served at our school's daily Mass. I had my First Mass here at St. Anthony and as a newly ordained priest in June of 1976.

And so, I have come full circle. Now is the day, on Corpus Christi Sunday, to celebrate our identity as a parish family! My heart will always be here at St. Anthony! Over the years we have accomplished a lot together. So let us join in thanking God for the privilege of being members of St. Anthony.

I want to thank all of you for your kindness, generosity and love.

I appeal to you to remain close to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

God Bless You,

PLEASE PRAY FOR

SYMBOLON
THE CATHOLIC FAITH EXPLAINED

LIVING THE FAITH

Why SYMBOLON?

Too often we try to live a faith we don't know or understand. Some of us stumble along with it, going through the motions. Others simply walk away.

Symbolon: Living the faith explores how Jesus gave us the Sacraments, the Mass, and the rich treasures of Church teaching to enliven our faith and bring vibrancy to our Catholic lives. Join us to watch the series and discover how to practically live your faith.

CATECHISM MEDITATIONS

Topic: Mission: A Requirement of the Church's Catholicity

850 The missionary mandate. "Having been divinely sent to the nations that she might be 'the universal sacrament of salvation,' the Church, in obedience to the command of her founder and because it is demanded by her own essential universality, strives to preach the Gospel to all men": "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and Lo, I am with you always, until the close of the age."

850 The origin and purpose of mission. The Lord's missionary mandate is ultimately grounded in the eternal love of the Most Holy Trinity: "The Church on earth is by her nature missionary since, according to the plan of the Father, she has as her origin the mission of the Son and the Holy Spirit." The ultimate purpose of mission is none other than to make men share in the communion between the Father and the Son in their Spirit of love.

851 Missionary motivation. It is from God's love for all men that the Church in every age receives both the obligation and the vigor of her missionary dynamism, "for the love of Christ urges us on." Indeed, God "desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth"; that is, God wills the salvation of everyone through the knowledge of the truth. Salvation is found in the truth. Those who obey the prompting of the Spirit of truth are already on the way of salvation. But the Church, to whom this truth has been entrusted, must go out to meet their desire, so as to bring them the truth. Because she believes in God's universal plan of salvation, the Church must be missionary.
