October is the month of the Holy Rosary.
Since Our Lady and the saints left their faith to the Church, we need to put this faith into action. Faith without works is dead, and a dormant faith will die. Those who do not nurture their faith with prayer will not be friends of God. They will be merely servants who only did what they were expected to do. (Lk 17) Even then, they will not be servants for long, as they will want no relationship with the Master. Perhaps this is why someone struggles to serve Our Lord in the parish? Mary is often called the “proto-disciple” of the Church. She is the first to say yes. St. Augustine writes, “Mary believed and what she believed was fulfilled in her. Let us too, believe so that what was fulfilled in her may also be to our advantage.” God said, “Let there be light.” Mary said “let it be done to me according to your will.” Jesus said at his death, “Not my will but yours be done.” We must give our “fiat.” We must say “your will be done.” Only in this will we be His disciples, united with Mary in the Church to serve God.
St. Anslem, Doctor of the Church said “A single mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after death.” It is a Spiritual Work of Mercy to pray for the living and the dead.
