*Glory Be to
The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit*

FR. WELDON'S CORNER

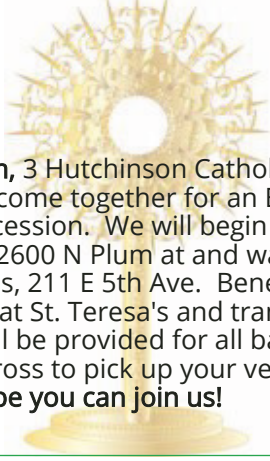

This Sunday of the Most Holy Trinity sums up God's revelation which was brought about through the Paschal Mysteries: Christ's death and Resurrection, his Ascension to the right hand of the Father and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The human mind and language are inadequate to explain the relationship that exists between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; yet the Fathers of the Church sought to illustrate the mystery of the Triune God by living it with deep faith in their own lives. The divine Trinity takes up his abode in us on the day of our Baptism: "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit". Every time we sign ourselves with the sign of the Cross, we remember God's name in which we were baptized. We do it before we pray to put ourselves in spiritual order; to focus our heart and will on God; after praying, so that what God has given us may remain within us.... It embraces the whole being, body, and soul... and everything is consecrated in the name of the Triune God. The sign of the Cross and the name of the living God contain the proclamation that generates faith and inspires prayer. And just as in the Gospel Jesus promises the Apostles that: "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth," and so it happens in the Sunday Liturgy, when priests dispense the bread of the Word and of the Eucharist to feed your soul and give it strength for the journey. Pope Benedict XVI.

La solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad resume la revelación de Dios acontecida en los misterios pascuales: muerte y resurrección de Cristo, su ascensión a la derecha del Padre y efusión del Espíritu Santo. La mente y el lenguaje humanos son inadecuados para explicar la relación que existe entre el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo, y, sin embargo, los Padres de la Iglesia trataron de ilustrar el misterio de Dios uno y trino viviéndolo en su propia existencia con profunda fe. La Trinidad divina pone su morada en nosotros el día del Bautismo: "Yo te bautizo —dice el ministro— en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo". El nombre de Dios, en el cual fuimos bautizados, lo recordamos cada vez que nos persignamos. El propósito del signo de la cruz, afirma: "Lo hacemos antes de la oración, para que... nos ponga espiritualmente en orden; concentre en Dios pensamientos, corazón y voluntad; después de la oración, para que permanezca en nosotros lo que Dios nos ha dado ... Esto abraza todo el ser, cuerpo y alma, ... y todo se convierte en consagrado en el nombre del Dios uno y trino." En el signo de la cruz y en el nombre del Dios vivo está contenido el anuncio que genera la fe e inspira la oración. En el Evangelio Jesús promete a los Apóstoles que "cuando venga él, el Espíritu de la verdad, os guiará hasta la verdad completa" (Jn 16, 13), así sucede en la liturgia dominical, cuando los sacerdotes dispensan el pan de la Palabra y de la Eucaristía para alimentar tu alma y darle fuerza para la jornada.
