FR. WELDON'S CORNER

Eternal life is in Christ as we help each other

The parable of the Good Samaritan is well known and begins with the question about attaining eternal life. This also means, "How do we live with each other so as to live with Christ forever in heaven?" Jesus responds to the scholar of the law with the two greatest commandments. "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself." Jesus uses the parable for us to be more self-aware through the presence of another; it now lives in this other and, in love, life takes on a whole new breadth. Here we see the Holy Spirit at work. We see with the eyes of Jesus. It is a filial love, a brotherly love, a love for our fellow human beings. When we share in this love it is the movement of the Spirit. In the love of Jesus, we receive in a certain way his vision. Without being conformed to him in love, without the presence of the Spirit, it is impossible to confess him as Lord (cf. 1 Cor 12:3) and do good for others. When we are open to God's love our "lives are enlarged and expanded. "It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me" (Gal 2:20). "Loving others and helping them is not an end in itself. The End is life in Christ, now and forever.

La parábola del Buen Samaritano es bien conocida y comienza con la pregunta acerca de alcanzar la vida eterna. Esto también significa: "¿Cómo vivimos unos con otros para vivir con Cristo para siempre en el cielo?" Jesús responde al doctor de la ley con los dos mandamientos más grandes. "Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, todo tu ser, con todas tus fuerzas, y con toda tu mente y tu prójimo como a ti mismo". Jesús usa la parábola para que seamos más conscientes de nosotros mismos a través de la presencia de otro; ahora vive en este otro y, en el amor, la vida adquiere una amplitud completamente nueva. Aquí vemos al Espíritu Santo obrando. Vemos con los ojos de Jesús. Es un amor filial, un amor fraternal, un amor por nuestros semejantes. Cuando compartimos este amor es el movimiento del Espíritu. En el amor de Jesús, recibimos de cierta manera su visión. Sin conformarse a él en el amor, sin la presencia del Espíritu, es imposible confesarlo como Señor (cf. 1 Co 12, 3) y hacer el bien a los demás. Cuando estamos abiertos al amor de Dios, nuestras "vidas se agrandan y expanden". Ya no soy yo quien vive, sino Cristo quien vive en mí" (Ga 2,20). "Amar a los demás y ayudarlos no es un fin en sí mismo. El Fin es la vida en Cristo ahora y por los siglos.

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

"The Precious Blood which we worship is the Blood which the Savior shed for us on Calvary and reassumed at His glorious Resurrection; it is the Blood which courses through the veins of His risen, glorified, living body at the right hand of God the Father in heaven; it is the Blood made present on our altars by the words of Consecration; it is the Blood which merited sanctifying grace for us and through it washes and beautifies our soul and inaugurates the beginning of eternal life in it."
