"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." - Lk 11:9

FR. WELDON'S CORNER

We must persevere in prayer. In Genesis, God and Abraham have a conversation about Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham asked the Lord to spare the two cities if there were 10 innocent people. Abraham persisted in his prayer and the Lord listened, but there were no innocent people. Justice was done. Moses told the people, "If only you would heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and keep his commandments." The law of God is "very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts...." (Dt 30:10-14) Last week we heard how Mary sat at the foot of Jesus. She chose "the better part." She listened to the voice of Jesus. (Lk 10:38-42) Prayer demands persistence. "Seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened." I was recently on retreat. For eight days, I had no TV, computer, cell phone, and there was total silence except for going to Mass and speaking to my spiritual director. I needed to quiet my soul to listen to the voice of Jesus. I read the words of St. Therese of Lisieux, the Little Flower, who spoke of prayer. "I do it like the children who do not know how to read. I simply say to God what I want to say to Him, without making beautiful sentences, and He always understands me. Prayer is a movement of the heart, a simple look cast toward heaven, a cry of recognition and love in the midst of trial as in the midst of joy; finally, it is something great and supernatural which expands my soul and unites me to Jesus." The Lord God, Our Father, hears our cries and our yearnings. He knows our wounds. When we present an open heart to God the Father in our prayer, he will respond. The Holy Spirit will make Jesus known. To pray is to seek a relationship with God the Father through his Son in the Spirit. Jesus wishes to unite his heart to yours.

Debemos perseverar en la oración. En Génesis, Dios y Abraham tienen una conversación acerca de Sodoma y Gomorra. Abraham le pidió al Señor que perdonara a las dos ciudades si había 10 personas inocentes. Abraham persistió en su oración y el Señor escuchó, pero no había personas inocentes. Se hizo justicia. Moisés le dijo al pueblo: "Escucha la voz del Señor, tu Dios, que te manda y guardar sus mandamientos". La ley de Dios está "muy a tu alcance, en tu boca y en tu corazón..." (Dt 30:10-14) La semana pasada escuchamos cómo María se sentó al pie de Jesús. Ella eligió "la mejor parte". Ella escuchó la voz de Jesús. (Lc 10,38-42) La oración exige persistencia. "Busca y encontrarás, llama y la puerta se abrirá". Recientemente estuve en retiro. Durante ocho días, no tuve televisión, computadora, teléfono celular, y hubo un silencio total, excepto para ir a misa y hablar con mi director espiritual. Necesitaba aquietar mi alma para escuchar la voz de Jesús. Leí las palabras de Santa Teresa de Lisieux, la Florecita, que habló de oración. "Lo hago como los niños que no saben leer. Simplemente le digo a Dios lo que quiero decirle, sin hacer frases hermosas, y Él siempre me entiende. La oración es un movimiento del corazón, una mirada sencilla hacia el cielo, un grito de reconocimiento y amor en medio de la prueba como en medio de la alegría; finalmente, es algo grande y sobrenatural que expande mi alma y me une a Jesús". El Señor Dios, Nuestro Padre, escucha nuestros gritos y nuestros anhelos. Él conoce nuestras heridas. Cuando presentamos un corazón abierto a Padre Dios en nuestra oración, Él responderá. El Espíritu Santo dará a conocer a Jesús. Orar es buscar una relación con Dios el Padre a través de su Hijo en el Espíritu. Jesús quiere unir su corazón al tuyo.
