"God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking his mercy."
-Pope Francis

His light shines in our hearts and opens the eyes of faith

"God is seen by those who have the capacity to see him, provided that they keep the eyes of their mind open. All have eyes, but some have eyes that are shrouded in darkness, unable to see the light of the sun. Because the blind cannot see it, it does not follow that the sun does not shine. The blind must trace the cause back to themselves and their eyes. In the same way, you have eyes in your mind that are shrouded in darkness because of your sins and evil deeds." A clean soul is "like a mirror reflecting light. If there is rust on the mirror his face cannot be seen in it. In the same way, no one who has sin within him can see God." In 9, Jesus cures the man born blind, but no one wants to accept it; his family or the pharisees. Jesus tells them that if they were blind, they would have no guilt, but since they claim to see, they are blind. Those with pride who claim to see are unaware of their blindness.

Lent is a time to examine life with honesty and humility. To be healed, we must go the Doctor who will open the eyes of our mind and heart. God the Father heals and gives life through his Word and wisdom. The Word became flesh and brought healing of body and soul. The Holy Spirit makes the Son known, who shows us the Father. In every genuflection and prayer of the Stations of the Cross our eyes are opened to Christ's sufferings and our sins. He brings us to his love through his suffering, and in that, we find healing. So, in all we do let us show that we are the servants of God by patient endurance and fasting, arming ourselves with integrity and relying on his power. (2 Cor 6: 2-7) With help from St. Theophilus of Antioch, +191

Su luz brilla en nuestros corazones y abre los ojos de la fe

"En efecto, ven a Dios los que son capaces de mirarlo, porque tienen abiertos los ojos del espíritu. Porque todo el mundo tiene ojos, pero algunos los tienen oscurecidos y no ven la luz del sol. Y no porque los ciegos no vean ha de decirse que el sol ha dejado de lucir, sino que esto hay que atribuírselo a sí mismos y a sus propios ojos. De la misma manera, tienes tú los ojos de tu alma oscurecidos a causa de tus pecados y malas acciones. El alma del hombre tiene que ser pura, como un espejo brillante. Cuando en el espejo se produce el orín, no se puede ver el rostro de una persona; de la misma manera, cuando el pecado está en el hombre, el hombre ya no puede contemplar a Dios." Jesús cura al ciego de nacimiento, pero nadie quiere aceptarlo; su familia o los fariseos. Jesús les dice que si fueran ciegos, no tendrían culpa, pero como dicen ver, son ciegos. Aquellos con orgullo que dicen ver no son conscientes de su ceguera.

Pero puedes sanar, si quieres. Ponte en manos del médico, y él punzará los ojos de tu alma y de tu corazón. ¿Qué médico es éste? Dios, que sana y vivifica mediante su Palabra y su sabiduría. La PALABRA se hizo carne y trajo sanidad al cuerpo y al alma. El Espíritu Santo da a conocer el Hijo, quien nos muestra el Padre. Por cada oración y genuflexión del Vía Crucis nuestros ojos se abren a los sufrimientos de Cristo y a nuestros pecados. Él nos trae a su amor por su sufrimiento, y por esto, encontramos sanidad. Entonces, en todo lo que hagamos demostremos que somos siervos de Dios por paciencia y ayuno, y armar nos mismos con integridad y confiar en su poder.

PARISH LIFE | VIDA PARROQUIAL

Madison Nelson has been a lifelong parishioner of OLG. She and her husband Sam have 4 children: River, Urban, Briar, and Shepherd. She started taking professional pictures, Madison Dean Photography, in 2016. Madison says what she loves about Our Lady Parish is the beautiful adoration chapel and how our parish feels like family. Madison said, "The Lord had definitely guided me through many of life's curveballs during those adoration hours spent with him." She also said, "I love how our parish feels like one large family. Since dad's second cancer diagnosis, the overwhelming support and prayers from our Church family has definitely made this difficult journey a little more bearable and I thank all of you for that." Madison has volunteered to be our Church Photographer. She will be taking pictures for our Church bulletin, in our new section, Parish Life. Each week, the Parish Life section will focus on a parishioner that has given their time and talent to help our Parish and also for a past parishioner that has dedicated so much of their life to OLG.

The focus on parishioners will start March 26, next weekend's bulletin. If you have a suggestion for parishioners to highlight, please email the office. office@olghutch.com

Weekly Lenten Aid

There are three things by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures. They are prayer, fasting and mercy. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives. Prayer, mercy and fasting: these three are one, and they give life to each other. Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. Let no one try to separate them; they cannot be separated. If you have only one of them or not all together, you have nothing. So, if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others, you open God's ear to yourself.
 St. Peter Chrysologus

Tres son, hermanos, los resortes que hacen que la fe se mantenga firme, la devoción sea constante, y la virtud permanente. Estos tres resortes son: la oración, el ayuno y la misericordia. Porque la oración llama, el ayuno intercede, la misericordia recibe. Oración, misericordia y ayuno constituyen una sola y única cosa, y se vitalizan recíprocamente. El ayuno, en efecto, es el alma de la oración, y la misericordia es la vida del ayuno. Que nadie trate de dividirlos, pues no pueden separarse. Quien posee uno solo de los tres, si al mismo tiempo no posee los otros, no posee ninguno. Por tanto, quien ora, que ayune; quien ayuna, que se compadezca; que preste oídos a quien le suplica aquel que, al suplicar, desea que se le oiga, pues Dios presta oído a quien no cierra los suyos al que le suplica.
