Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

CHURCH OF THE Magdalen

Our Mission: To cultivate a family of stewards for Christ through personal prayer, public worship, Catholic education, ministry to one another, and the community at large.

Lenten Challenge by Fr. John F. Jirak

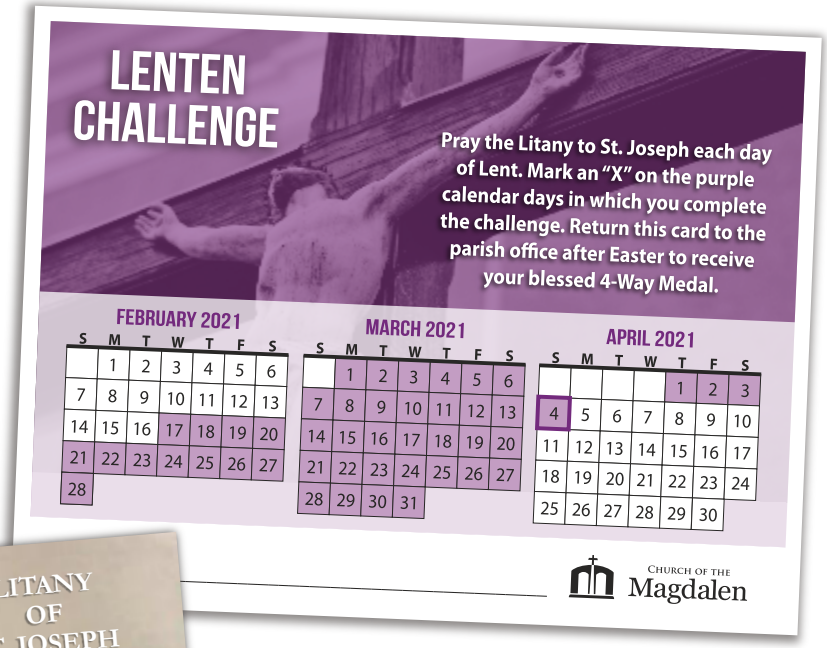
May the Lord give you peace!

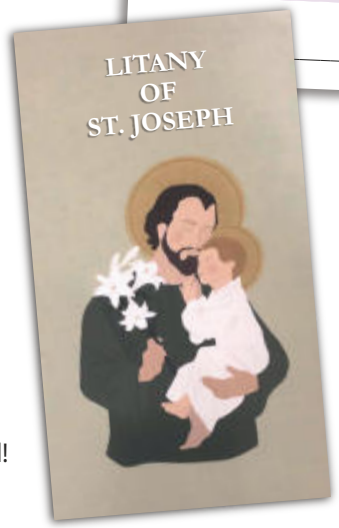
Lent starts this Wednesday, yes, this Wednesday. If you haven't thought about what you are doing for Lent, no worries! Let me offer you a fun opportunity.

Both Pope Francis and Bishop Kemme announced 2021 as the Year of St. Joseph. In the spirit of this year dedicated to the foster father of Jesus, Fr. Matt, Fr. Derek and I are hosting a Lenten Challenge. Normally, the Lenten Challenge is only for the school kids. However, we are expanding the challenge to the entire parish this year. The Lenten Challenge consists in praying the Litany to St. Joseph each day during Lent. A beautiful holy card of St. Joseph and the child Jesus with the Litany to St. Joseph on the back will be available to those who take the Lenten Challenge. A table will be placed in the gathering space with the holy card along with the Lenten Challenge cards. Those who complete the Lenten Challenge will receive a blessed 4-Way Medal. The 4-Way Medal includes the images of the Sacred Heart, the Miraculous Medal, the image of St. Joseph and St. Christopher. How much better can you get than wearing a blessed medal with those powerhouses!

Additionally, to better celebrate the Year of St. Joseph we are bringing St. Joseph into the church. The beautiful wooden statue of St. Joseph from the old Magdalen will be placed in the alcove with St. Mary Magdalen beginning Ash Wednesday until the end of the Year of St. Joseph. The sculpture is of a young St. Joseph with piercing eyes. Seriously cool!

Ad majorem Dei gloriam, Fr. John Francis Jirak, Pastor





How the Lenten Challenge works:

1. Take a Lenten Challenge Card and St. Joseph holy card from the table in the gathering space.
2. Pray the Litany to St. Joseph and cross off the calendar day you complete.
3. Repeat each day of Lent.
4. After Easter return your Lenten Challenge Card in the collection basket or drop it off in the parish office to receive your blessed 4-Way medal.

Lord, We Have Sinned by Carey Boyzuck, Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46, 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1, Mark 1:40-45

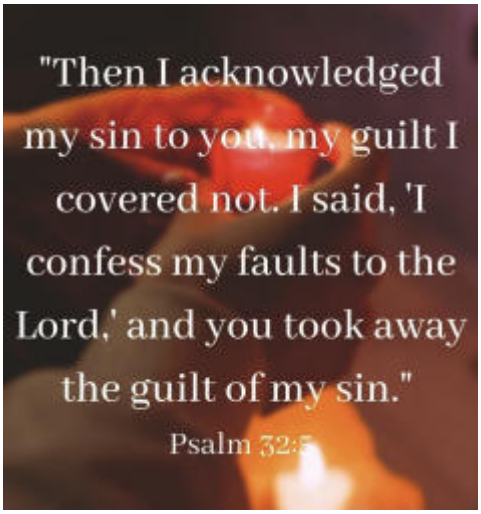
Then I acknowledged my sin to you, my guilt I covered not. I said, 'I confess my faults to the Lord'" Psalm 32:5



This is the last Sunday before Lent, which begins this Wednesday. Lent is a time to prepare ourselves to celebrate Easter. It is an especially good time to examine our lives and bring the Lord anything that is "unclean" in our hearts and minds. We declare ourselves unclean (Leviticus 13:45) whenever we truly acknowledge our sins and confess them to the Lord.

St. John taught this important truth about the importance of acknowledging our sinfulness: "If we say, 'We are without sin,' we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we acknowledge our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrongdoing. If we say, 'We have not sinned,' we make him a liar, and his word is not in us" (1 John 1:8-10). This should bring us peace. All we must do is admit that we have sinned and repent, and God will forgive and cleanse us.

When we bring our wounds to the Lord in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we imitate the leper who approached Jesus, fully aware of his condition: "A leper came to him and kneeling down begged him and said, 'If you wish, you can make me clean'" (Mark 1:40). The leper knew he couldn't save himself; he knew he needed a savior. It's a trap to think that we do not need to confess our sins, that we do not need a savior.

When we are embarrassed by our sins and hide them from God, like Adam and Eve (Genesis 3:8), we try to cover our sins by ourselves. This is something we cannot accomplish on our own. When we acknowledge our sins and show God our wounds, He will cover our sins for us: "Blessed is he whose fault is taken away, whose sin is covered" (Psalm 32:1). This is the beauty Reconciliation. We only must acknowledge and repent from our sins and bring them to God. Jesus does the rest. He covers over our sin with His own righteousness: "For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him" (2 Corinthians 5:21).

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Lenten Reflections by Monica Chessmore

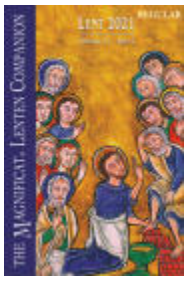
Fr. Mark Toups said, "If you always do what you've always done, you'll always get what you always got." Make this Lent the season to find your next level by opening your heart to Jesus through a daily reflection aid. A variety of aids will be available in the Gathering Space and on the kiosk at this weekend's Masses. Pick the one that fits your level.



Magnificat Lenten Companion

In addition to inspiring and relatable daily reflections, the Magnificat Lenten Companion includes essays, prayers, poetry, and devotions. This is the perfect aid to begin or renew your faith journey.

Daily time commitment: 5 min.

Lenten Gospel Reflections

by Bishop Robert Barron

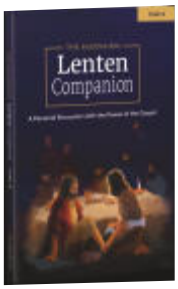
Inside this pocket-size book is each day's gospel reading and a daily reflection from Bishop Barron. Space is available for journaling and answering reflection questions. It also includes Stations of the Cross Meditations.

Daily time commitment: 5-10 min.

The Word Among Us Lent Meditations

In addition to insightful daily meditations, The Word Among Us Lent Meditations includes essays and the daily Mass readings during Lent. This is the perfect aid to ignite your spirituality.

Daily time commitment: 5-10 min.



The Ascension Lenten Companion

by Fr. Mark Toups (author of Rejoice! Advent Meditations)

The daily meditations in The Ascension Lenten Companion align with the Sunday gospel readings. Also included each day is a Going Deeper section, which includes reflection questions (often based on bible passages). Associated videos are available on our website. This aid is for you if you desire to go deeper into your heart and grow closer to the Lord this Lent.

Daily time commitment: 15-30 min.

GRAB & GO BOOKS

Looking to take your Lenten Journey to the NEXT LEVEL in 2021?
Add Fr. Jirak's Lenten Challenge (see front page) to any of these wonderful daily reflections.

Keep books from the kiosk, pass them on to a friend, or return them to the kiosk for other parishioners to grab!

Knights of Columbus: Our Lady, Help of Persecuted Christians

On Friday, Feb. 19, the image of Our Lady, Help of Persecuted Christians will be in the Gathering Space courtesy of our Knights of Columbus. Please join the Knights in praying for our persecuted Christian Brethren around the world at our Masses on Friday.

SCHOOL

Ash Wednesday at MCS

All Magdalen Catholic School children will attend Mass on Ash Wednesday during the school day. Parents, Ash Wednesday is a great opportunity to speak with your child about the importance of Lent in becoming a true missionary disciple. Need help starting the conversation? Check out all of the wonderful Lenten material the church has to offer. See article above on Lenten Meditations.

A HUGE THANK YOU!

Magdalen Catholic School would like to thank everyone who made Catholic Schools Week a great success. We had a wonderful week with our students and staff. The highlight of the week was Adoration in the Gym, a truly beautiful experience for all who participated. WOW! We are so blessed to be a part of this tremendous parish.

No School on February 15th

Magdalen Catholic School will be off on Monday, February 15th for President's Day. We will see our students on Tuesday, Feb. 16th.

Fr. Jirak's Lenten Challenge!

MCS is ready to take it to the NEXT LEVEL this Lent! Our students will have the opportunity to particiapte in Fr. Jirak's Lenten Challenge. Details are on the front page of the bulletin. We are excited for our Magdalen families to take up this challenge, growing closer to God through St. Joseph in Lent 2021!

A St. Valentine's Poem to Lent

by Lance and Ashley Biel

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
St. Valentine's Day is a reminder
For both me and for you.

Of what you may ask?
Well, Lent of course!
So ready your mind, your body & soul,
Let's pray more, eat less, and give to the poor!

We'll start it off right with ashes and fish,
Or whatever you may find without meat in the dish!
Make this Lent special, make it the best,
Matthew Kelly would say make it the best Lent yet!

There is so much to do, so much to say,
You can go to Confession, or Mass every day!
The possibilities are endless, Sacrifices so many,
Give up some sweets, or let go of a penny!

God is so good and accepts every gift,
No sacrifice too small, no prayer unheard,
Open up Scripture & devour God's word.

Forty days and forty nights,
To let go, and let God,
Lead us, guide us,
Feed us, right us!

Should you stumble or fall,
Don't worry, don't stall,
Ask Jesus for a hand,
He'll answer your call.

Speaking of He who died for our sins,
Perhaps some alone time with him
Is a good place to begin.
Kneel. Sit. Rest. Adore.

As Lent marches on and it's time for the palms,
Remember the echoes we read in the Psalms.
Psalm 6, 32, 38 & 51, add 102, 130, & 143,
Then finish each off with a contrite Glory Be!

As time marches on, and Easter arrives,
And we marvel and ponder God's glorious surprise,
Remember red roses and violets so blue,
And our one true Lord who gave his sweet life for you!
